Socialist Realism And The Modern Literary Process:

Socialist Realism and the Modern Literary Process Aleksandr Ivanovich Ovcharenko, 1978 Representation and the Twentieth-century Novel Paul D. Morris, 2005 Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2006-11-22 This collection of essays analyzes the literary response to the coups insurgencies and invasions that took place around the globe during the Cold War and explores the thematic and stylistic trends in world writing prompted by Cold War hostilities Socialist Cultures East and West Dubravka Juraga, M. Keith Booker, 2002-06-30 Decades of Western Cold War propaganda were designed to depict socialism as inimical to genuine aesthetic achievement Now in the wake of the Cold War it is becoming possible to reassess the past and present cultural productions of artists with socialist inclinations The essays in this volume begin such a reassessment finding that socialist cultural production in the 20th century both as the official culture of the socialist East and as an oppositional culture in the capitalist West has been rich and varied The volume focuses on socialist culture in the industrialized world primarily Eastern Europe and the West An introductory essay overviews socialist cultural productions of the 20th century while the chapters that follow address a wide range of topics These include Soviet socialist realist fiction and film musicals the socialist drama of Bertolt Brecht and British and American leftist fiction The volume demonstrates that propagandistic Cold War depictions of socialism as a threat to artistic expression were inaccurate and misleading Nation-Building, Propaganda, and Literature in Francophone Africa Dominic Thomas, 2002-11-19 The relationship between literature the state is examined in this discussion of Francophone African literature Dominic Thomas considers the case of the Congo where the recent transition to democracy was in part inspired by the works of Sony Labou Tansi Henri Lopes Emmanuel Dongala among others Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only form analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world The Russian Hero in Modern Chinese Fiction Mau-sang Ng, 1988-08-04 The Russian influence took root in the Chinese intellectual tradition that evolved after the Literary Revolution of 1917 When the Chinese communists turned to Russia for their inspiration they also accepted the Russian version of the novel's form and function in society However they did not accept it uncritically Chinese understanding of the arts goes back for thousands of years and thus Chinese intellectuals brought their own kinds of tradition and intelligence to these new arts and political solutions In this lucid study the author demonstrates how Chinese writers guided by Russian authors such as Chekhov

Turgenev and Andreyev created works of art that are both original and Chinese. However, he also shows that the familiar heroes of such famous novelists as Lu Xun, Yu Dafu, Mao Dun, and Ba Jin have a strong Russian flavor linked to prototypes in the Russian literary tradition. The author depicts the fortune of Soviet literature and the fate of the intellectual hero in the People's Republic of China. He believes that the humanistic May Fourth intellectual tradition, which inspired enthusiasm for classical Russian literature, has been revived with the publication of works like Dai Houying's Man ah Man and Zhao Zhenkai's Waves. Translations from Kommunist, 1963. Dai Wangshu Gregory Lee, 1989. Mexican muralist, international Marxist Curtis Swope, 2024-10-29. David Alfaro Siqueiros was perhaps the most important communist painter of the twentieth century. This book, the first sustained engagement with Siqueiros's work in the English language, focuses on the artist's late murals, which are both aesthetically innovative and politically provocative. It places Siqueiros in an international context, revealing that the dogmatism he has been charged with was in reality a complex phenomenon. It provided a foundation for, rather than an obstacle to, his efforts to create an art embedded in the day-to-day concerns and theoretical debates of the world-wide mass movement. He saw himself as a part of The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia. Yvonne Howell, Nikolai Kremmentsov, 2021-12-02. The idea that morally, mentally, and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals, leaders, and reformers throughout history. This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century. The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here. The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences, such as biology, medicine, and psychology, and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction, dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects, sculptures, and exemplary agricultural fairs. With contributions from scholars based in the United States, Canada, the UK, Germany, and Russia, the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex, contradictory, and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere. In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union, this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions, their often obscure origins, acclaimed and forgotten champions, unexpected and complicated results, and mutual interrelations. In short, the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history: when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind. Chinese Ibsenism Kwok-kan Tam, 2019-09-10. This book is a study of the relation between theatre, art, and ideology in the Chinese experimentations with new selfhood as a result of Ibsen's impact. It also explores Ibsenian notions of self, women, and gender in China and provides an illuminating study of Chinese theatre as a public sphere in the dissemination of radical ideas. Ibsen is the major source of modern Chinese selfhood which carries notions of personal and social liberation and has exerted great impacts on Chinese revolutions since the beginning of the twentieth century Ibsen's idea of the self as an individual has led to various experimentations in theatre film and fiction to project new notions of selfhood in particular women's selfhood throughout the history of modern China Even today China is experimenting with Ibsen's notions of gender power individualism and self Kwok kan Tam is Chair Professor of English and Dean of Humanities and Social Science at the Hang Seng University of Hong Kong He was Head 2012-18 and is currently a member of the International Ibsen Committee University of Oslo He is a Foundation Fellow of the Hong Kong Academy of the Humanities He has held teaching research and administrative positions in various institutions including the East West Center the Chinese University of Hong Kong and the Open University of Hong Kong He has published numerous books and articles on Ibsen Gao Xingjian modern drama Chinese film postcolonial literature and world Englishes His recent books include Ibsen Power and the Self Postsocialist Experimentations in Stage Performance and Film 2019 The Englishized Subject Postcolonial Writings in Hong Kong Singapore and Malaysia 2019 and a co-edited volume Fate and Prognostication in the Chinese Literary Imagination 2019
