Africa and the Africans in the Nineteenth Century: A Turbulent History Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch, Mary Baker, 2015-02-12 Most histories seek to understand modern Africa as a troubled outcome of nineteenth century European colonialism but that is only a small part of the story In this celebrated book beautifully translated from the French edition the history of Africa in the nineteenth century unfolds from the perspective of Africans themselves rather than the European powers It was above all a time of tremendous internal change on the African continent Great jihads of Muslim conquest and conversion swept over West Africa In the interior warlords competed to control the internal slave trade In the east the sultanate of Zanzibar extended its reach via coastal and interior trade routes In the north Egypt began to modernize while Algeria was colonized In the south a series of forced migrations accelerated spurred by the progression of white settlement

Through much of the century African societies assimilated and adapted to the changes generated by these diverse forces. In the end the West's technological advantage prevailed and most of Africa fell under European control and lost its independence. Yet only by taking into account the rich complexity of this tumultuous past can we fully understand modern Africa from the colonial period to independence and the difficulties of today. The Making of World Society Remus Gabriel Anghel, Eva Gerharz, Gilberto Rescher, Monika Salzbrunn, 2015-09-15. Do the current changes of both geographical and symbolic boundaries lead to the emergence of a world society? How do transnational migration, communication and worldwide economic and political networks manifest themselves in globalised modernity? This book presents innovative contributions to transnationalisation research and world society theory based on empirical studies from Asia, Africa, Latin America and Europe. Practicable methodologies complete theoretical inquiries and provide examples of applied research which also might be used in teaching.

Gouverner les sociétés africaines Centre d'étude d'Afrique noire (Institut d'études politiques de Bordeaux), 2005-01-01. Quelles sont les capacités de modernisation et de déploiement des dispositifs de gouvernement? Quels sont les moyens localement disponibles pour concevoir des politiques publiques adaptées et les mettre en œuvre avec succès? Tels sont les interrogations actuelles de la recherche sur les sociétés africaines. La partie la plus technique de ces politiques peut comporter des éléments importants dont la conception ici comme ailleurs est extranationale. La légitimation par contre ne peut en aucun cas être produite hors de la scène locale et de sa culture. Elle a besoin d'un espace public c'est-à-dire de forums et d'arènes où les choix sont débattus et libérés. Les études rassemblées dans ce livre proposent un repérage et une description des lieux d'institutionnalisation. Certains de ces lieux sont anciens, leurs fonctions ont dérivé dans le temps, ils sont souvent suspects d'inadaptation et ne bénéficient pas de l'engouement de la nouveauté. Néanmoins, ce sont des ancrages possibles de nouvelles dynamiques partis politiques, travers les programmes de démocratisation, municipalités, l'heure de la décentralisation. D'autres lieux apparaissent au premier plan des insignes de l'innovation recommandés et encouragés par les instances internationales, ce sont parmi d'autres les ONG actives dans le domaine de la santé ou des droits de la personne ou encore les commissions lectorales nationales. Russites ou checs, ces expériences ont été analysées pour ce qu'elles sont. Elles rendent compte des dynamiques en cours, des difficultés et des blocages sans les enjoliver pour en faire des démonstrations exemplaires. Elles invitent à poursuivre toujours plus activement l'étude du développement institutionnel des sociétés africaines. Cet ouvrage s'inscrit dans la série de l'Afrique politique qui est conçue et réalisée depuis 1994 par le Centre d'étude d'Afrique noire de l'Institut d'études politiques de Bordeaux. La formule annuelle a été progressivement remplacée par l'approche thématique. Cette évolution a conduit cette année à l'abandon du millésime mais l'esprit et la manière d'aborder le politique en Afrique s'inscrivent plus que jamais dans la continuité des travaux de l'équipe.

African Diasporas in the New and Old Worlds ,2021-11-01 In the humanities the term diaspora recently emerged as a promising and powerful heuristic concept It challenged traditional ways of thinking and invited reconsiderations of theoretical assumptions about the unfolding of cross cultural and multi ethnic societies about power relations frontiers and boundaries about cultural transmission communication and translation The present collection of essays by renowned writers and scholars addresses these issues and helps to ground the ongoing debate about the African diaspora in a more solid theoretical framework Part I is dedicated to a general discussion of the concept of African diaspora its origins and historical development Part II examines the complex cultural dimensions of African diasporas in relation to significant sites and figures including the modes and modalities of creative expression from the perspective of both artists writers and their audiences finally Part III focusses on the resources collections and archives and iconographies that are available today As most authors argue the African diaspora should not be seen merely as a historical phenomenon but also as an idea or ideology and an object of representation By exploring this new ground the essays assembled here provide important new insights for scholars in American and African American Studies Cultural Studies Ethnic Studies and African Studies The collection is rounded off by an annotated listing of black autobiographies contemporains gravitent nombre d'acteurs devenus particulièrement visibles depuis les récentes recompositions tactiques. Parmi eux se détachent des individus ou des groupes dont les pouvoirs ont été renforcés par la valorisation du local et des coopérations trans tactiques. Les locales organisations non gouvernementales devenues des porte drapeaux de la société civile ainsi que des associations et des syndicats d'hier revigorisés par la consolidation des acquis démocratiques. C'est à partir de ces différents acteurs émergents que les auteurs mettent en perspective et lucident les désordres liés aux mutations des dernières années. L'irruption plus ou moins violente de grands changements socio politiques, adoption des programmes d'ajustement structurel, mondialisation, transition démocratique, renforcement des pouvoirs de la société civile, remet elle en cause la centralité de l'Etat dans les destinées politiques et économiques des sociétés africaines. Les stratégies déployées pour le contourner ou pour le doubler, les guerres civiles, visant son contrôle, les critiques acerbes dont il est l'objet de la part des bailleurs de fonds, pourraient bien témoigner de sa vitalité en tant qu'appareil tout autant que de celle des réseaux qui lui sont articulés. Fondé sur des enquêtes empiriques menées en Afrique francophone, lusophone et anglophone, le livre alterne les regards internes et externes au continent, combine les échelles macro et micro sociales et introduit une lecture sociologique dans l'approche des relations extérieures de l'Etat, comme dans ses relations avec les groupes qui contestent aujourd'hui son monopole de la chose publique.

Muslim Minorities in the West Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, Jane I. Smith, 2002-03-11. Although they are typically portrayed by the media as dangerous extremists in distant lands, Muslims in fact form a permanent, peaceful and growing population in nearly every Western country. While Westerners are now more commonly seeing mosques in their neighborhoods or scarved Muslim women in their streets, misperceptions and stereotypes remain. With expanding numbers and desires to protect their rights and identities, Muslims are coming into more and more into the public view. In Muslim Minorities in the West, noted scholars Haddad and Smith bring together outstanding essays on the distinct experiences of minority Muslim communities from Detroit, Michigan to Perth, Australia, and the wide range of issues facing them. Haddad and Smith, in their introduction, trace the broad contours of the Muslim experience in Europe, America and other areas of European settlement and shed light on the common questions minority Muslims face of assimilation, discrimination.
