Ricoeur's view the political is the realm of a tension between rationality the attempt to provide a coherent explanation of the world and irrationality which manifests itself in force and repression This political paradox lies at the heart of politics for the claim to explain the world generates its own form of violence the more one desires the good the more one is inclined to impose it Ricoeur warns citizens the guardians of democracy against any totalizing system of thought and any dogmatic understanding of history Power should be divided and controlled and Ricoeur defends a form of political liberalism in which states are conscious of the limits of their power and respectful of the freedom of their citizens Ranging from questions of power and repression to those of ethics identity and responsibility these little known political texts by one of the leading philosophers of the twentieth century will be of interest to students and scholars of philosophy politics and theology and to anyone concerned with the great political questions of our time

Children's Picture Books and Contemporary Egyptian Society Yasmine Motawy, 2025-02-25 A social and political history of two decades of Egyptian neoliberalism through children's picture books published in Egypt in the post 2000 era Children's picture books are some of the most transparently ideological materials available to parents and educators and as cultural objects they are an expression of the zeitgeist of a particular era They reveal much about the hopes values and aspirations of the society that produces them as well as that society's vision of its place in the wider world at large Children's Picture Books and Contemporary Egyptian Society examines a new wave of Egyptian picture books that was published in the current century to see how these books responded to larger societal trends and transformations in Egypt as well as to explore the ideologies that lie behind them Yasmine Motawy argues that a host of factors including the growth of gated communities and international schooling the proliferation of lucrative literary awards returning Gulf migrants television dramas and nationwide reading advocacy initiatives helped give rise to a new kind of children's picture book in Egypt Motawy focuses on three clusters of selected picture books to investigate the extent to which these books reproduce hegemonic discourses or alternatively open up new horizons of childhood agency and societal transformation The first cluster includes books that directly socialize the child by showing them how things are done in both the domestic sphere and the increasing globalized spaces that children frequent with their families The second cluster aims at reframing cultural notions around femininity through the retelling of folk and fairy tales while the third cluster addresses children's abilities to assess the impact of their actions on their environment and invites them to examine their personal suitability to positions of power and stewardship

Father Figures in Zimbabwean Literature and Society Kizito Z. Muchemwa,Robert Muponde,2007 Gender studies in Zimbabwe have tended to focus on women and their comparative disadvantages and under privilege Assuming a broader perspective is necessary at a time when society has grown used to arguments rooted in binaries colonised and coloniser race and class sex and gender poverty and wealth patriotism and terrorism etc The editors of Manning the Nation recognise that concepts of manhood can be used to repress or liberate and will depend on historical and political imperatives they seek to introduce a more nuanced perspective to the interconnectivity of patriarchy masculinity the nation and its image The essays in this volume come from well respected academics working in a variety of fields The ideals and concepts of manhood are examined as they are reflected in important Zimbabwean literary texts However if literature provides a rich vein for the analysis of masculinities what makes this collection so interesting is the interplay of literary analysis with chapters that provide a critical examination of the ways in which ideals of manhood have been employed in for example leadership and the nation as a justification for violent engagement in the field of AIDS and HIV etc Manning the Nation Father figures in Zimbabwean literature and society sets the stage for a fresh and engaging discourse essential at a time when new paradigms are needed How Compassion can Transform our Politics, Economy, and Society Matt Hawkins,Jennifer Nadel,2021-11-29 How Compassion can Transform our Politics Economy and Society draws together experts across disciplines ranging from psychology to climate science philosophy to economics history to business to explore the power of compassion to transform politics our society and our economy The book shows that compassion can be used as the basis of a new political economic and social philosophy as well as a practical tool to address climate breakdown inequality homelessness and more Crucially it also provides a detailed plan for its execution It marks the first time that the study of compassion has been applied across multiple disciplines The book provides a template for the study of compassion on an interdisciplinary basis and will appeal to academics professionals and the general reader searching for a fresh and inspiring approach to the seemingly intractable problems facing the world
