Ghosh,1984-05-10 Product information not available Health, Food, and Nutrition in Third World Development Pradip K. Ghosh,1984-08-14 The development of effective health food and nutrition policies are essential to the rapid economic and social development of Third World countries The essays in this volume cover basic issues such as development of the food supply health care programs the human environment nutrition and malnutrition the politics of food scarcity and the impact of health and nutrition on the economy Developing Africa Pradip K. Ghosh,1984-12-21 The countries of the African continent suffer from numerous and severe economic maladies that inhibit their chances for effective economic growth The problem confronting Africa s policy makers is how to combine overall economic growth with a more equitable distribution of income and economic assistance This resource book examines the experiences of the African countries in implementing development programs and policies during the 1970s and offers some conclusions and suggestions for further study To assist those directly involved or interested in the formulation and implementation of economic development policies the editor has provided statistical information and a descriptive bibliography for further research Economic Integration and Third World Development Pradip K. Ghosh,1984-10-24 Although not previously well documented many instances of regional economic integration occur among Third World countries Joint industrial planning monetary integration trade expansion and investment planning are among the many facets of economic integration discussed in this volume Integration schemes most likely to contribute to development are difficult to achieve because ultimate success depends on the willingness and ability of the nations involved to negotiate conditions that contribute to the development of the region as a whole and that assure an acceptable distribution of benefits within the region The variety of theories and practical examples of regional integration plans detailed here document the complexity of integrated planning and the difficulties in achieving the desired results This work defines and explores the many factors necessary for understanding the difficulties involved in economic integration and cooperation among developing countries

Technology Policy and Development Pradip K. Ghosh, 1984-05-10 For the developing countries to take advantage of the accumulated and growing body of scientific and technological information they must develop competence in choosing technology through an institutionalized technology policy Third World experiences in developing and implementing technology policies are documented and analyzed in this volume Issues such as the values shaping technology selection of appropriate technology technology transfer technological self reliance planning and development control are discussed in detail Ideas for future policy development are evaluated Multi-National Corporations and Third World Development Pradip K. Ghosh, 1984-09-25 Articles on the influence of multinational enterprise on economic and social development in the developing countries examines the effects of MNEs on economic growth industrial restructuring employment creation technological change consumption patterns etc discusses their role in world trade and the New International Economic Order reviews patterns of government policy incl Economic policy towards MNEs in the developing countries includes a directory of information sources and an annotated bibliography Graphs references statistical tables Energy Policy and Third World Development Pradip K.
