International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,2004 Social Stratification Dr Paul Lambert,Ms Roxanne Connelly,Professor Robert M Blackburn,Professor Vernon Gayle,2013-02-28 Research into social stratification and social divisions has always been a central component of sociological study This volume brings together a range of thematically organised case studies comprising empirical and methodological analyses addressing the challenges of studying trends and processes in social stratification This collection has four themes The first concerns the measurement of social stratification since the problem of relating concepts measurements and operationalizations continues to cause difficulties for sociological analysis This book clarifies the appropriate deployment of existing measurement options and presents new empirical strategies of measurement and interpretation The conception of the life course and individual social biography is very popular in modern sociology The second theme of this volume exploits the contemporary expansion of micro level longitudinal data and the analytical approaches available to researchers to exploit such records It comprises chapters which exemplify innovative empirical analysis of life course processes in a longitudinal context thus offering an advance on previous sociological accounts concerned with longitudinal trends and processes The third theme of the book concerns the interrelationship between contemporary demographic institutional and socioeconomic transformations and structures of social inequality Although the role of wider social changes is rarely neglected in sociological reviews such changes continue to raise analytical challenges for any assessment of empirical differences and trends The fourth theme of the book discusses selected features of policy and political responses to social stratification This volume will be of interest to students academics and policy experts working in the field of social stratification Youth Sociology Alan France, Julia Coffey, Steven Roberts, Catherine Waite, 2020-04-09

Falling somewhere between childhood and adulthood Youth is a key period of transition It can be difficult to define and make sense of this period in one's life However it is categorised young people face a number of challenges and issues growing up in today's world From the pressures created by social media to the increasing precarity of employment the major social cultural and economic developments of our time are each impacting this period of the lifecourse in myriad ways Youth Sociology helps readers to understand how such changes factor into the experience of being young today and illuminates the realities of the world in which young people live Embedding perspectives and insights from a wide range of disciplines beyond sociology this authoritative new textbook will be incredibly useful for all students of youth A Therapist's Guide to Treating Eating Disorders in a Social Media Age Shauna Frisbie, 2020-09-08

An innovative therapeutic approach for counteracting the impact of social media on eating disorders and identity formation All humans need space to think to be and to process without constant distraction This is especially true of adolescents and young adults for whom identity formation is a consuming task Social media has generated both a place for the creation of identity and an audience But constant connection leaves little space without intrusion from others For those with body dissatisfaction and/or eating disorders living in today's world can be especially challenging and viewing images on social media and other online formats can be devastating Shauna Frisbie utilizes phototherapy techniques to view client selected images whether they be of themselves or others to help uncover underlying messages that are impacting their relationship to their bodies Integrating concepts of healing narratives neuroscience and phototherapy this book will help any therapist promote self compassion self reflection and healing in their clients Gospels and Grit Rob Breton, 2005-01-01

Examines the literary representations of work and labour in the Victorian works of Carlyle and the 20th century writings of Conrad and Orwell Sociological Analysis of Aging Joe Michael Cruz, 2013-11-12 Sociological Analysis of Aging The Gay Male Perspective is an exploratory study of the life changes homosexual and bisexual men experience as they age This unique book presents in depth qualitative interviews with gay men aged 55 and older focusing on their physical mental and social needs More than one hundred men offer first hand perceptions on the unique problems they face with regards to employment retirement housing health and well being and relationships and how they function within or without a social support system Sociological Analysis of Aging fills in the gaps in the existing social science literature on homosexuals and aging updating findings that were inconclusive when first published and or based on case studies or limited samples While standard books on aging typically deal with the impact of life events such as child rearing the empty nest syndrome and grandparenting Sociological Analysis of Aging deals with the unique realities that gay men face in addition to the universal concerns of the elderly affordable health care affordable housing and adequate coverage for medication costs The study examines what can be done to assist successful aging for sexual minorities particularly in the areas of social policy service delivery and public tolerance Sociological Analysis of Aging focuses on specific research questions Do aging gay men consider themselves to be physically healthy Do aging gay men suffer from depression Do aging gay men have access to social support networks What are the housing needs of the aging gay community present and future How involved are aging gay men with family friends church and community In addition the men interviewed were asked what if anything was left on a to do list what the best and worst aspects of aging are and what if anything they would change about the course their lives had taken Their answers make Sociological Analysis of Aging The Gay Male Perspective an essential resource for therapists counselors and social workers and for academics working in sociology psychology gerontology and gay studies
