

The background of the entire cover is a painting. It depicts a young child with light-colored hair, seen from the back, sitting in a bathtub. The child's arms are outstretched, and they appear to be playing with the water. The water is rendered with dynamic, swirling brushstrokes in shades of blue, green, and yellow. Above the child, a large, stylized sunburst or starburst shape is painted in a dark blue color, with rays extending outwards. The overall style is expressive and somewhat abstract, with visible brushwork throughout.

Skellig A Play:

Two Plays David Almond, 2010-04-21 David Almond turns his talents to drama in these two plays Skellig is the dramatization of his highly acclaimed novel What has Michael found in the derelict garage What is this creature that lies in the darkness Is it human or a strange beast never seen before And what will happen in the world when he carries it out into the light Wild Girl Wild Boy is an original play produced in London by the Pop Up Theatre company Young Elaine has recently lost her father and now she spends her days dreaming in the family's garden skipping school unable to read or write One day Elaine conjures up a Wild Boy from spells and fairy seed No one else can see him and Elaine disappears into a world of fantasy where she and Wild Boy remember the teachings of her father Will her mother ever come to understand These two plays introduce a new talent from the remarkable David Almond

David Almond Don Latham, 2006 David Almond's six books have been praised for their lyrical prose their evocative use of magical realism and their sensitive male and strong female characters His work has garnered several prestigious literary awards including the Carnegie Medal the Whitbread Children's Book of the Year Award and the Michael L Printz Award Clearly Almond is a significant talent in the world of young adult literature who has in a short time gained an impressive amount of recognition but to date little critical commentary devoted to Almond's works has appeared Given the high regard accorded Almond's work and his regular output over the last five years it is appropriate that this book length critical study of his works is published David Almond Memory and Magic discusses how Almond's major themes relate specifically to the development of selfhood in his adolescent characters and explores the four major themes that are evident in all of his works magical realism death memory and imagination A chronology extensive bibliography afterword and index round out this text that serves as a resource for scholars and students of young adult fiction as well as teachers and librarians who work with young adults ultimately helping to foster among young people a deeper appreciation for Almond's work as a literary artist

David Almond Rosemary Johnston, 2017-12-15 David Almond is one of the most exciting and innovative authors writing for children and young people today Since the publication of his award winning first book Skellig 1998 his novels have pushed the boundaries of children's literature and magical realism This vibrant collection of original essays by leading international children's literature scholars and researchers provides a theoretically informed overview of Almond's novels and fresh analysis of individual texts Exploring broad themes such as philosophy theology and cognitive science the volume also introduces new concepts such as mystical realism literary Catholicism and radical landscape

Clay David Almond, 2014-02-06 With fascination Davie and his friend Geordie watch the arrival of a new boy Stephen Rose in their town He seems to have come from nowhere and when he arrives to live with his distant aunt the local Crazy Mary no one envies his new home But perhaps he's the answer to Davie and Geordie's prayers a secret weapon in their war against monstrous Mouldy and his gang Intrigued Davie and Geordie befriend Stephen But they are heading innocently down a path that brings with it a monster of an entirely unexpected nature

Their encounter with the mysterious Stephen is as incredible as it is menacing and as the true story of Stephen's past slowly emerges Davie's life is changed for ever A stunning novel from the author of the modern children's classic Skellig winner of the Carnegie Medal and the Whitbread Children's Book Award David Almond is also winner of the 2010 Hans Christian Andersen award     Kit's Wilderness David Almond,2014-02-06 Kit has just moved to Stoneygate with his family to live with his ageing grandfather who is gradually succumbing to Alzheimer's Disease Stoneygate is an insular place scarred by its mining history by the danger and death it has brought them Where the coal mine used to be there is now a wilderness Here Kit meets Askew a surly and threatening figure who masterminds the game called Death a frightening ritual of hypnotism and Kit makes friends with Allie the clever school troublemaker As Kit struggles to adjust to his new life and the gradual failing of his beloved grandfather these two friendships pull him towards a terrifying resolution Haunted by ghosts of the past Kit must confront death and ultimately life A stunning novel from the author of the modern children's classic Skellig winner of the Carnegie Medal and the Whitbread Children's Book Award David Almond is also winner of the 2010 Hans Christian Andersen award     Jackdaw Summer David Almond,2014-02-06 Every summer Liam and Max roam the wild countryside of Northumberland but this year things are different One hot summer's day a jackdaw leads the two boys into an ancient farm house where they find a baby wrapped in a blanket with a scribbled note pinned to it PLEASE LOOK AFTER HER RITE THIS IS A CHILDE OF GOD And so begins Jackdaw Summer A summer when friendships are tested A summer when lines between good and bad are blurred A summer that Liam will never forget A stunning novel from the author of the modern children's classic Skellig winner of the Carnegie Medal and the Whitbread Children's Book Award David Almond is also winner of the 2010 Hans Christian Andersen award     Heaven Eyes David Almond,2014-02-06 Erin January and Mouse live in a children's home Whitegates They often dream of escape and frequently journey into the outside world Running away is something they know all about But this time January builds a raft and the three of them head precariously down river Towards the Black Middens This time they might never come back When they stumble across a disused factory and its strange inhabitants Grampa and Heaven Eyes they wonder if they'll even have the choice Heaven Eyes is the girl who should have drowned at sea The mysterious girl desperately searching for her family hoping that these three might be the family she has lost She has a secret history only Grampa knows And does he trust these three invaders enough to tell them Erin feels a sisterly responsibility for Heaven Eyes Mouse longs to belong anywhere and anyhow but January thinks Grampa's a murderer Whatever happens all three have a part to play A stunning novel from the author of the modern children's classic Skellig winner of the Carnegie Medal and the Whitbread Children's Book Award David Almond is also winner of the 2010 Hans Christian Andersen award     Skellig David Almond,2020-06-17 Man bird or angel Who or what is Skellig Michael was looking forward to moving house It was all going to be wonderful But now his baby sister's ill his parents are frantic and Doctor Death has come to call Michael feels helpless Then he steps into the crumbling garage What is this thing beneath the spider webs and dead flies A human being or a strange kind of beast never seen before The only person Michael can confide in is Mina Together they carry the creature into the light and Michael s world changes for ever David Almond s own adaptation of his renowned novel winner of The Carnegie Medal The Whitbread Children s Book Award and a string of prizes around the world A timeless classic published in over 40 languages it touches the minds hearts and souls of people of all ages The story has become a movie an opera a radio play and this stage play first produced at the Young Vic and directed by Trevor Nunn
