Criminalization of Activism Valeria Weis, 2021-12-22 Criminalization of Activism draws on a multiplicity of perspectives and case studies from the Global South and the Global North to show how protest has been subject to processes of criminalization over time Contributors include scholars and activists from different disciplinary backgrounds with a balance between authors from the Global North and the Global South An introduction frames the topic within critical criminology while also highlighting the possible disciplinary approaches and definitions of criminalization of resistance activism The editor also investigates the particularities of the current times in comparison to dynamics of criminalization in prior stages of capitalism Bringing together a range of criminalization themes into a single volume compromising historical criminology Indigenous studies gender studies critical criminology southern criminology and green criminology it will be of great interest to scholars and students of criminology social movement theory and social sciences as well as those involved in activism and with a stand against criminalization Drug Problems Richard Isralowitz, Richard Rawson, Mohamed Afifi, 2002-01-30 Substance abuse and its social consequences are a major public concern for communities throughout the world The motivations and consequences are deeply imbedded within the social and political structures of all countries whether they be well established democracies or developing nations Every culture shapes the meaning of and responses to substances such as marijuana and heroin over time and across locations but the broader drug issue has become universal As the sphere of the problem expands the experiences and solutions of each nation become more relevant to other countries International concern over substance abuse has intensified as a result of the rise in production use and trafficking of illicit drugs all over the world Therefore the practical knowledge of policy development and abuse prevention and treatment strategies in the Middle East have increasing relevance for the rest of the world Education, Engagement, and Youth Crime Cassandra Thoars, David Moltow, 2024-06-17 This book presents insights into how affective educational experiences may be associated with youth criminal behaviour and the pathway to recidivism It explores the perspectives and lived school experiences of five young adult male prison inmates including while they were incarcerated as youths Through these case studies the book explores the relationship between affective engagement in education and recidivism This book shows that participants were affectively disengaged from education prior to their initial incarceration in a youth detention facility and that their disaffection before during and after youth incarceration both generated and impacted on their cognitive and behavioural disengagement from education Moreover a range of additional factors not directly causally related to their schooling were shown to have had a significant effect on their engagement in education The book considers a number of key findings First the foundational role that a sense of belonging plays in how young people experience education and its relation to crime Second the importance of individualized transition plans for youth at risk and youth offenders before during and after incarceration Third the extent to which successful transition from youth offending and recidivism hinges on interagency collaboration This book will be beneficial to teacher educators education researchers criminologists and sociologists

Women and Children as Victims and Offenders: Background, Prevention, Reintegration Helmut Kury, Sławomir Redo, Evelyn Shea, 2016-06-01 This work compiles experiences and lessons learned in meeting the unique needs of women and children regarding crime prevention and criminal justice in particular the treatment and social reintegration of offenders and serves as a cross disciplinary work for academic and policy making analyses and follow up in developing and developed countries Furthermore it argues for a more humane and effective approach to countering delinquency and crime among future generations In a world where development positively depends on the rule of law and the related investment security two global trends may chart the course of development urbanization and education Urbanization will globalize the concepts of justice and fairness education will be dominated by the urban mindset and digital service economy just as a culture of lawfulness will This work looks at crime prevention education as an investment in the sustainable quality of life of succeeding generations and at those who pursue such crime prevention as the providers of much needed skills in the educational portfolio Adopting a reformist approach this work collects articles with findings and recommendations that may be relevant to domestic and international policymaking including the United Nations Studies and their educational value for the welfare of coming generations The books address the relevant United Nations ideas by combining them with academic approaches Guided by the Editors respective fields of expertise and in full recognition of academic freedom and organized scepticism it includes contributions by lawyers criminologists sociologists and other eminent experts seeking to bridge the gap between academic and policy perspectives as appropriate against the international background including the United Nations developments The first volume opens with a foreword by Marta Santos Pais the United Nations Special Representative of the Secretary General on Violence against Children and a general introduction by the editors Part I provides an overview of United Nations principles for crime prevention and the treatment of women and children Part II concentrates on education and the social learning of children and adolescents The importance of quality education is stressed as is its impact on the behaviour of children of all ages It also includes a discussion of the factors that still hinder access to good schooling in many parts of the world Part III presents international research findings on children juveniles and women both as victims and offenders Statistics show overwhelmingly that these groups are more often victims than offenders Thirty Three Years to Conception, A Voice from the Street, 2018 Edition Evelyn Nona Pollock,2018-01-19 A compelling true story that takes you inside the mind of an addict from age 15 to age 33 Thirty Three Years to Conception describes a life and death struggle with inner demons and the harsh reality of life on the streets of Toronto Daniel s story shines a light on society s potential for kindness and cruelty as manifested through the treatment of the disadvantaged This is a book for parents youth educators mental health workers legislators lawyers police and anyone else who deals with addictions PISA 2012 Results: Ready to Learn (Volume III) Students' Engagement, Drive and Self-Beliefs OECD,2013-12-03 This third volume of PISA 2012 results explores students engagement with and at school their drive and motivation to succeed and the beliefs they hold about themselves as mathematics learners Doing Narrative Therapy Jill Freedman,Jill, M.
