Small Arms Survey 2003 Development Denied:

Small Arms Survey 2003, 2003 This title includes information and analysis on global small arms production stockpiles and legal and illicit transfers and a review of international regional and national measures to address the issue of small arms proliferation Small Arms Survey 2003 Graduate Institute of International Studies (Geneva, Switzerland), 2003 The Small Arms Survey is now recognized as the principle international source of impartial and reliable information on all aspects of small arms Its blend of information and analysis makes it an indispensable resource for policy makers officials and non governmental organizations Controlling Small Arms Peter Batchelor, Kai Michael Kenkel, 2013-11-20 This edited volume takes stock of the state of research and policy on the issue of Small Arms and Light Weapons SALW ten years after the UN first agreed to deal with the problem The end of the Cold War originated a series of phenomena that would subsequently come to dominate the political agenda Perhaps most symptomatic of the ensuing environment is the marked escalation in the scale and dynamics of armed violence driven by the proliferation of SALW Events in Rwanda Somalia and Bosnia seared into global consciousness the devastating effects of this phenomenon and of the necessity to engage actively in its limitation and prevention This edited volume explores and outlines the research and policy on the SALW issue at this critical juncture In addition to providing a detailed telling of the genesis and evolution of SALW research and advocacy the volume features a series of essays from leading scholars in the field on both advances in research and action on SALW It reflects on what has been achieved in terms of cumulative advances in data methodology and analysis and looks at the ways in which these developments have helped to inform policy making at national regional and international levels Alongside situating and integrating past and present advances in advocacy and international action Controlling Small Arms also outlines future directions for research and action This book will be of much interest to students of small arms peace and conflict studies peacebuilding security studies and IR Small Arms Survey 2014 Small Arms Survey, Geneva, 2014-07-03 The Small Arms Survey 2014 considers the multiple roles of women in the context of armed violence security and the small arms agenda The volume s thematic section comprises one chapter on violence against women and girls with a focus on post conflict Liberia and Nepal and another on the recent convergence of the small arms agenda with that of women peace and security Complementing these chapters are illustrated testimonies of women with experience as soldiers rebels and security personnel The weapons and markets section assesses the potential impact of the Arms Trade Treaty presents the 2014 Transparency Barometer and an update on the authorised small arms trade and analyses recent ammunition explosions in the Republic of the Congo Additionally it examines ammunition circulating in Africa and the Middle East maps the sources of insurgent weapons in Sudan and South Sudan and evaluates crime gun records in the United States Small Arms Survey 2007 Small Arms Survey, Graduate Institute of International Studies (Geneva, Switzerland), 2007-09-06 The Small Arms Survey 2007 features a special focus on the complex issue of urban violence Conflict, Education and People's War in

Nepal Sanjeev Rai, 2018-02-19 This book presents an overview of the democracy movement and the history of education in Nepal. It shows how schools became the battleground for the state and the Maoists as well as captures emerging trends in the field, challenges for the state and negotiations with political commitments. It looks at the factors that contributed to the conflict and studies the politics of the region alongside gender and identity dynamics. One of the first studies on the subject, the book highlights how conflict and education are intrinsically linked in Nepal. It illustrates how schools became the centre of attention between warring groups and how they were used for political meetings and recruitment of fighters during the political transitions in a contested terrain in South Asia. It brings to the fore incidents of abduction and killing of teachers and students and the use of children as porters for arms and ammunitions. Drawing extensively on both primary and secondary sources and qualitative analyses, the book provides the key to a complex web of relationships among the stakeholders during conflict and also models of education in post conflict situations. This book will interest scholars and researchers in education, politics, peace and conflict studies, sociology, development studies, social work, strategic and security studies, contemporary history, international relations and Nepal and South Asian studies. Human Security and International Law Barbara von Tigerstrom, 2007-12-12 The concept of human security has influenced discourse and practice and has been the subject of vigorous debate. Despite its relevance to central questions of international law, human security has until recently received little attention from international lawyers. This book has two related goals: to evaluate human security as a concept that could be used in the analysis of international law and to determine what insights about a human security approach might be gained by considering it from the perspective of international law. The first part of the book examines the evolution and meanings of the concept and its links with existing theories and principles of international law. The second part explores the ways in which human security has been and could be used in relation to the diverse topics of humanitarian intervention, internally displaced persons, small arms control and global public health. The analysis sheds new light on debates about the concept's potential and limitations. Afghanistan, Arms and Conflict Michael Vinay Bhatia, Mark Sedra, 2008-05-05 This is the first book to provide a comprehensive assessment of small arms and security related issues in post 9/11 Afghanistan. It includes case studies which reveal the findings of in depth field research on hitherto neglected regions of the country and provides a distinctive balance of thematic analysis, conceptual models and empirical research. Exploring various facets of armed violence and measures to tackle it, the volume provides significant insight into broader issues such as the efficacy of international assistance, the shadow economy, warlordism and the Taliban led insurgency. In an effort to deconstruct and demystify Afghanistan's alleged gun culture, it also explores some of the prevailing obstacles and opportunities facing the country in its transition period. In so doing, the book offers valuable lessons to the state builders of Afghanistan as well as those of other countries and regions struggling to emerge from periods of transition. This book will be of much interest to all students of Afghanistan, small arms, insurgency, Asian Studies and conflict studies in general. Charting Transformation through

Security T. Haastrup, 2013-10-04 This book analyses security cooperation in the domain of inter regionalism addressing the emergence of the African Union as a regional actor and its impact on EU Africa relations It explores the transformative potential of security cooperation for equality partnership and local ownership in EU Africa relations Victims as Security Threats Edward O. Mogire, 2011 Refugees as a security threat Refugee militarisation Refugees and inter state conflict Refugees and violent conflict in host states Refugees and crime Refugees and the problem of illicit small arms and light weapons SALW Refugees and the terrorist threat Security and refugee policies in East Africa
