Exodus from the Door of No Return Roy G. Phillips Phd, 2008-10-13 After sixty years Dr Roy G Phillips retired founding campus president at Miami Dade College Homestead Campus returned to his native home in rural Webster Parish outside of Minden Louisiana It took him almost forty years to fulfill a dream a journey that began as a conversation with renowned author Alex Haley culminated with the collection of fascinating stories and then finished in a poignant book that tells the story of his ancestors in their trajectory from Africa to America When he retired in December 2001 Phillips turned to writing piecing together years worth of research The final product Exodus from the Door of No Return Journey of an American Family AuthorHouse was published in September 2006 and revised in October 2008 Phillips family saga mirrors the lives of what arguably could be the tale of most African Americans In the book family is the glue that binds Phillips ancestors from Slavery to Reconstruction Jim Crow Segregation the World Wars the Great Migration of black families out of the South the tumultuous civil rights period of the sixties to the present day Phillips might never have started on the journey of family discovery if it had not been for a chance meeting with Haley who had come to speak at the University of Michigan At that time Haley was in the midst of researching his book Roots and Phillips was completing his doctoral dissertation in urban secondary administration I spent half of the night talking to him about what to do he recalls He said Go and talk to the old folks in your family Get their stories Phillips painstakingly tracked down the descendants of the plantation owners James Germany McDade II who owned his great grandfather and other relatives Phillips continues to meet and correspond with the McDades in Shreveport and East Texas He also underwent DNA testing which helped him track both his paternal ancestry to the Mbute people in the Central African Republic and his maternal ancestry to the Mende people in Sierra Leone West Africa Jason'S Journey Allen L. Harrell MD,2012-03-28 The end of my journey here on earth is presently being played out but I am not afraid In my lifetime I have experienced it all love happiness sorrow and disappointment Yet I have never felt alone First in my childhood my parents were always there to love and protect me and then it was my friends at school I was abundantly blessed having Anne at my side my wife and my life's companion But even above all this I have felt the ever presence of God I've said and done many things that I regret but my God is a forgiving god and in my prayers I am ever pleading for forgiveness for offending him in any way I can only imagine the wonderment of what lies ahead for me After seeing only a few of the natural wonders of the world how much more beauty can my eyes behold For me heaven would be having my spirit set free to float throughout the universe seeing the marvels of the world that God created for all mankind But I can only imagine what heaven is really like A song set to music by Bart Millard I Can Only Imagine says it all I can only imagine what it would be like when I walk by your side I can only imagine what my eyes will see when your face is before me I can only imagine Surrounded by your glory what will my heart feel Will I dance for you Jesus or in awe be still Will I stand in your presence or to my knees will I fall Will I sing hallelujah Will I be able to speak at all I can only imagine when that day comes and I find myself standing before you I can only imagine when all I do is forever forever worship you I can only imagine I can only imagine
