The Vietnam War in Popular Culture Ron Milam, 2016-11-07 Covering many aspects of the Vietnam War that have not been addressed before this book supplies new perspectives from academics as well as Vietnam veterans that explore how this key conflict of the 20th century has influenced everyday life and popular culture during the war as well as for the past 50 years How did the experience of the Vietnam War change the United States not just in the 1950s through the 1970s but through to today What role do popular music and movies play in how we think of the Vietnam War How similar are the recent wars in Iraq and Afghanistan and now Syria to the Vietnam War in terms of duration cost success and failure rates and veteran issues This two volume set addresses these questions and many more examining how the Vietnam War has been represented in media music and film and how American popular culture changed because of the war Accessibly written and appropriate for students and general readers this work documents how the war that occurred on the other side of the globe in the jungles of Vietnam impacted everyday life in the United States and influenced various entertainment modes It not only covers the impact of the counterculture revolution popular music about Vietnam recorded while the war was being fought and after and films made immediately following the end of the war in the 1970s but also draws connections to more modern events and popular culture expressions such as films made in the aftermath of September 11 2001 Attention is paid to the impact of social movements like the environmental movement and the civil rights movement and their relationships to the Vietnam War The set will also highlight how the experiences and events of the Vietnam War are still impacting current generations through television shows such as Mad Men

Book Review Digest ,2001 The Visual Politics of Wars Thomas Knieper,Ibrahim Saleh,2017-05-11 This collection part of a series entitled Visual Politics of War presents some of the key approaches to war reporting and suggests trajectories for further critical research into media visualisation of conflict Ever since the Vietnam War media globalisation has made conflict a part of everyone's life in the modern world This is where war reporters play the crucial role of mediators to bring us stories covering the various dimensions of war from some of the most vulnerable places on Earth This volume will explore the visual culture of conflict specifically the war on terror that is grounded in the conceptual claim that images are central to contemporary geopolitics Resources in Education ,1994

Military Media Review ,1983 D-Day Michael Noble,2019 Relive the events of June 6 1944 through eye witness accounts that describe 20 real life stories from the D Day landings This book which presents collated photographs personal accounts and testimonies from all sides with full page illustrations dramatizing individual roles brings a key moment in history to life for young readers hearing about the event for the first time as we commemorate its 75th anniversary Meet Company Sergeant Major Stanley Hollis the only person to receive the Victoria Cross for their actions that day Lt Richard Winter among the first to be parachuted into action as depicted in Band of Brothers American journalist Martha Gellhorn the only woman known to have been present after disguising herself as a stretcher bearer As well as a host of other inspiring individuals who each played an important part in the turning point of World War II From those involved in reconnaissance planning and logistics espionage and development of new technology through to the military units involved in the invasion and landings and the subsequent phases of the invasion this authentic retelling provides a view from every angle of the action Vietnam Báo Chí Marc Phillip Yablonka, 2020-01-10 A military journalist shines a light on the unsung heroism and contributions of enlisted combat reporters in the Vietnam War in these revealing interviews Vietnam Bao Chi brings together interviews with thirty five combat correspondents who reported on the Vietnam War These brave men and women wrote the stories captured the images and filmed the television coverage of their fellow servicepeople on battlefields from the Mekong Delta to the DMZ and from the Tet Offensive in 1968 to the fall of Saigon in 1975 Here you will meet Marine Dale Dye who would go on to play an integral role in the making of the film Platoon Green Beret Jim Morris whose books including War Story recount the combat operations of Special Forces units in the Central Highlands John Del Vecchio whose classic work of fiction The 13th Valley mirrors his own existence as a combat correspondent with the 101st Airborne Division and US Navy Frogman Chip Maury renowned for his free fall and underwater photography in Vietnam Yablonka's extensive experience as a military journalist brought him into contact with many of these combat correspondents giving him a unique insight into their professions and lives This book honors these brave chroniclers in uniform who brought the Vietnam War home to us This valuable collection of profiles shines light on the all but forgotten role of American military book press in Vietnamese Publishers Weekly New York Magazine, 1996-02-19 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Author and Journalist, 1923 The Author & Journalist, 1924 Editor & Publisher, 1927 The fourth estate Chasing Hope Nicholas D. Kristof, 2024-05-14 From New York Times columnist Pulitzer Prize winner and best selling author Nicholas D Kristof an intimate and gripping memoir about a life in journalism Nick Kristof takes us behind the scenes as he risks his life to shine a light on the world's most pressing problems and blaze a trail to a better future In a time when trust in journalism is in jeopardy his honesty humility and humanity are rays of hope Adam Grant author of Hidden Potential Since 1984 Nicholas Kristof has worked almost continuously for The New York Times as a reporter foreign correspondent bureau chief and now columnist becoming one of the foremost reporters of his generation Here he recounts his event filled path from a small town farm in Oregon to every corner of the world Reporting from Hong Kong Beijing and Tokyo while traveling far afield to India Africa and Europe Kristof witnessed and wrote about century defining events the Tiananmen Square protests and massacre the Yemeni civil war the Darfur genocide in Sudan and the wave of addiction and despair that swept through his hometown and a broad swath of working class America Fully aware that coverage of atrocities generates considerably fewer page views than the coverage of politics he nevertheless continued to weaponize his pen against regimes and groups violating basic human rights raising the cost of oppression and torture Some of the risks he took while doing so make for hair raising reading Kristof writes about some of the great members of his profession and introduces us to extraordinary people he has met such as the dissident whom he helped escape from China and a Catholic nun who browbeat a warlord into releasing schoolgirls he had kidnapped These are the people the heroes who have allowed Kristof to remain optimistic Side by side with the worst of humanity you always see the best This is a candid memoir of vulnerability and courage humility and purpose mistakes and learning a singular tale of the trials tribulations and hope to be found in a life dedicated to the pursuit of truth The Publishers Weekly ,2005
