So You Think You're Human A Brief History Of Humankind:

So You Think You're Human? Felipe Fernández-Armesto, 2005 You think you're human But what does that mean How can humanity be defined Felipe Fernandez Armesto takes us on an enlightening and provocative journey through the history of humankind to reveal the challenges to our most fundamental belief that we are and have always been human Fernandez Armesto investigates advances in artificial intelligence and genetics and asks what these mean for the future of human values human rights and the defence of human dignity The book illustrates how our concept of humankind has changed over time and how our current understanding of this has been shaken by new challenges from science and philosophy

Before Humanity Stefan Herbrechter, 2021-12-13 Before Humanity takes up the question of the post in the posthuman from the position of ancestrality Speculating about who or what comes after the human inevitably throws us back to our very beginnings The before in Before Humanity in this context takes on two meanings 1 what happened before we apparently became human which translates into a critical reading of paleo anthropology as well as evolutionary narratives of hominization 2 living through the end of a certain humanist anthropocentric notion of humanity what tasks lie before us which provokes a critical reading of the Anthropocene and current narratives of geologization In other words Before Humanity investigates conceptualizations of humanity and asks whether we have ever been human and if not what could or maybe what should we have been

The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Human Geography John A. Agnew, James S. Duncan, 2016-08-08 This volume provides an up to date authoritative synthesis of the discipline of human geography Unparalleled in scope the companion offers an indispensable overview to the field representing both historical and contemporary perspectives Edited and written by the world's leading authorities in the discipline Divided into three major sections Foundations the history of human geography from Ancient Greece to the late nineteenth century The Classics the roots of modern human geography Contemporary Approaches current issues and themes in human geography Each contemporary issue is examined by two contributors offering distinctive perspectives on the same theme

Humanity's End Nicholas Agar, 2013-08-16 An argument that achieving millennial life spans or monumental intellects will destroy values that give meaning to human lives Proposals to make us smarter than the greatest geniuses or to add thousands of years to our life spans seem fit only for the spam folder or trash can And yet this is what contemporary advocates of radical enhancement offer in all seriousness They present a variety of technologies and therapies that will expand our capacities far beyond what is currently possible for human beings In Humanity's End Nicholas Agar argues against radical enhancement describing its destructive consequences Agar examines the proposals of four prominent radical enhancers Ray Kurzweil who argues that technology will enable our escape from human biology Aubrey de Grey who calls for anti aging therapies that will achieve longevity escape velocity Nick Bostrom who defends the morality and rationality of enhancement and James Hughes who envisions a harmonious democracy of the enhanced and the unenhanced Agar argues that the outcomes of radical enhancement could be darker than the rosy futures described by these thinkers The most dramatic means of enhancing our cognitive powers could in fact kill us the radical extension of our life span could eliminate experiences of great value from our lives and a situation in which some humans are radically enhanced and others are not could lead to tyranny of posthumans over humans

Radical Evolution Joel Garreau, 2006-05-09 Taking us behind the scenes with today's foremost researchers and pioneers bestselling author Joel Garreau shows that we are at a turning point in history At this moment we are engineering the next stage of human evolution Through advances in genetic robotic information and nanotechnologies we are altering our minds our memories our metabolisms our personalities our progeny and perhaps our very souls Radical Evolution reveals that the powers of our comic book superheroes already exist or are in development in hospitals labs and research facilities around the country from the revved up reflexes and speed of Spider Man and Superman to the enhanced mental acuity and memory capabilities of an advanced species Over the next fifteen years Garreau makes clear in this New York Times Book Club premiere selection these enhancements will become part of our everyday lives Where will they lead us To heaven where technology's promise to make us smarter vanquish illness and extend our lives is the answer to our prayers Or as some argue to hell where unrestrained technology brings about the ultimate destruction of our species

The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies Linda Kalof, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies tackles the infamous animal question how can humans rethink and reconfigure their relationships with other animals Over the course of five sections and thirty chapters the contributors investigate issues and concepts central to understanding our current relationship with other animals and the potential for coexistence in an ecological community of living beings

Honest To Goodness Martin Prozesky, 2019-03-12 Honest to Goodness proposes a new Christian presence that is free of dogmatism exclusivism and biblicism It charts a way back to the spiritual and ethical revolution begun by Jesus of Nazareth one that can make a vital difference to needless evils such as bigotry environmental destruction poverty and violence The book reveals the author's experience of living under against and after apartheid insisting that a faith that does not confront this world's evils is no faith at all but a dangerous betrayal of all that is good beautiful and true Honest to Goodness unflinchingly identifies the grave moral shortcomings that are embedded in traditional Christian beliefs and practices and proposes ways of transforming them into harmony with the divine goodness that the author discerns everywhere Embracing a world of religious diversity science and creative philosophy the book describes a new way of experiencing and expressing the divine It defends faith by moving beyond both theism and atheism

Interrogating Human Origins Martin Porr, Jacqueline Matthews, 2019-12-06 Interrogating Human Origins encourages new critical engagements with the study of human origins broadening the range of approaches to bring in postcolonial theories and begin to explore the decolonisation of this complex topic The collection of chapters presented in this volume creates spaces for expansion of critical and unexpected conversations about human origins research Authors from a variety of disciplines and research backgrounds many of whom have strayed beyond their usual disciplinary boundaries to offer their unique perspectives all circle around the big questions of what it means to be and become human Embracing and encouraging diversity is a recognition of the deep complexities of human existence in the past and the present and it is vital to critical scholarship on this topic This book constitutes a starting point for increased interrogation of the important and wide ranging field of research into human origins It will be of interest to scholars across multiple disciplines and particularly to those seeking to understand our ancient past through a more diverse lens

Thinking History Globally Diego Olstein,2014-11-04 The book brings together many recent trends in writing history under a common framework thinking history globally By thinking history globally the book explains applies and exemplifies the four basic strategies of analysis the big C s comparing connecting conceptualizing and contextualizing using twelve different branches of history

Transhumanism and Posthumanism in Twenty-First Century Narrative Sonia Baelo-Allué,Mónica Calvo-Pascual,2021-05-05 Transhumanism and Posthumanism in Twenty First Century Narrative brings together fifteen scholars from five different countries to explore the different ways in which the posthuman has been addressed in contemporary culture and more specifically in key narratives written in the second decade of the 21st century by Dave Eggers William Gibson John Shirley Tom McCarthy Jeff Vandermeer Don DeLillo Margaret Atwood Cixin Liu and Helen Marshall Some of these works engage in the premises and perils of transhumanism while others explore the qualities of the post human in a variety of dystopian futures marked by the planetary influence of human action From a critical posthumanist perspective that questions anthropocentrism human exceptionalism and the centrality of the human subject in the era of the Anthropocene the scholars in this collection analyse the aesthetic choices these authors make to depict the posthuman and its aftereffects

The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Disability Adam Cureton,David Wasserman,2020 This Handbook introduces philosophers as well as other scholars in the humanities and social sciences to one of the most dynamic new areas of philosophical inquiry Disability raises some of the deepest conceptual and normative issues about human embodiment and well being dignity respect justice and equality and personal and social identity But it also raises pressing practical questions for educational health reproductive and technology policy and confronts controversial questions about the scope and direction of the human and civil rights movements The Handbook addresses these issues and more with contributions from some of the most prominent philosophers in the field The clarity it brings to these discussions demonstrates fully the continued centrality and importance of philosophical inquiry

Approaches to Global History Felipe Fernandez-Armesto,2022-12-15 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2023 This volume brings together 25 defining texts in global history These pieces cover approaches to the subject from antiquity to the present century and taken together show the development of the discipline providing a solid historiographical theoretical and methodological overview that will be invaluable for students The collection gives a unique sense of how at different times in different cultural circumstances students of the past have approached the problems of encompassing the world in a single narrative or theory This is a reader with an implicit story to unfold Felipe Fernandez Armesto tracks how a global understanding of history originated in prophetic writings how the Renaissance discovery of the world multiplied the opportunities for historians to think about history globally how scientific investigations of change came to exert influence and inspire new thinking among global historians how culture wars ensued between advocates of scientific and culturalist models and how changing contexts in the 20th century produced new thematic approaches to the world as a whole Each part is introduced setting it in context and explaining the impact of its subject matter on the discipline as well as the relations between the texts and their place in the overall development of global history

A Foot in the River Felipe Fernández-Armesto, 2015 We are a weird species Like other species we have a culture But by comparison with other species we are strangely unstable human cultures self transform diverge and multiply with bewildering speed They vary radically and rapidly from time to time and place to place And the way we live our manners morals habits experiences relationships technology values seems to be changing at an ever accelerating pace The effects can be dislocating baffling sometimes terrifying Why is this In A Foot in the River best selling historian Felipe Fernandez Armesto sifts through the evidence and offers some radical answers to these very big questions about the human species and its history and speculates on what these answers might mean for our future Combining insights from a huge range of disciplines including history biology anthropology archaeology philosophy sociology ethology zoology primatology psychology linguistics the cognitive sciences and even business studies he argues that culture is exempt from evolution Ultimately no environmental conditions no genetic legacy no predictable patterns no scientific laws determine our behaviour We can consequently make and remake our world in the freedom of unconstrained imaginations A revolutionary book which challenges scientific assumptions about culture and how and why cultural change happens A Foot in the River comes to conclusions which readers may well find by turns both daunting and also potentially hugely liberating

Animals as Religious Subjects Celia Deane-Drummond, Rebecca Artinian-Kaiser, David L. Clough, 2013-07-18 This book examines one of the most pressing cultural concerns that surfaced in the last decade the question of the place and significance of the animal This collection of essays represents the outcome of various conversations regarding animal studies and shows multidisciplinary at its very best namely a rigorous approach within one discipline in conversation with others around a common theme The contributors discuss the most relevant disciplines regarding this conversation namely philosophy anthropology religious studies theology history of religions archaeology and cultural studies The first section Thinking about Animals explores philosophical anthropological and religious perspectives raising general questions about the human perception of animals and its crucial cultural significance The second section explores the intriguing topic of the way animals have been used historically as religious symbols and in religious rituals The third section re examines some Christian theological and biblical approaches to animals in the light of current concerns The final section extends the implications of traditional views about other animals to more specific ethical theories and practices

of Life Ngaire Naffine, 2009-01-06 The perennial question posed by the philosophically inclined lawyer is What is law or perhaps What is the nature of law This book poses an associated but no less fundamental question about law which has received much less attention in the legal literature It is Who is law for Whenever people go to law they are judged for their suitability as legal persons They are given or refused rights and duties on the basis of ideas about who matters These ideas are basic to legal decision making they form the intellectual and moral underpinning of legal thought They help to determine whether law is essentially for rational human beings or whether it also speaks to and for human infants adults with impaired reasoning the comotose foetuses and even animals Are these the right kind of beings to enter legal relationships and so become legal persons Are they for example sufficiently rational or sacred or simply human Is law meant for them This book reveals and evaluates the type of thinking that goes into these fundamental legal and metaphysical determinations about who should be capable of bearing legal rights and duties It identifies and analyses four influential ways of thinking about law s person each with its own metaphysical suppositions One approach derives from rationalist philosophy a second from religion a third from evolutionary biology while the fourth is strictly legalistic and so endeavours to eschew metaphysics altogether The book offers a clear coherent and critical account of these complex moral and intellectual processes entailed in the making of legal persons

Gender, Humiliation, and Global Security Evelin Lindner, 2010-02-26 An award winning author and transdisciplinary social scientist offers a must read guide to paradigm change for creating a socially and ecologically sustainable future Gender Humiliation and Global Security Dignifying Relationships from Love Sex and Parenthood to World Affairs aims at outlining the kind of change that needs to be made if we wish to create a less crisis prone world This audacious work describes a vision for an alternative future showing how new approaches to love can dignify gender relations sex parenthood and leadership and how they can guide us to a world where all citizens can live dignified lives The book is organized in three parts Part I Gender Humiliation and Lack of Security in Times of Transition examines the nature of humiliation and how love and humiliation are influenced by large scale historical transitions such as globalization Part II Gender Humiliation and Lack of Security in the World Today looks at love sex parenthood and leadership and how they can be dignified Part III Global Security through Love and Humility in the Future explores how love can be used to inspire psychological social cultural and political strategies and to stimulate global systemic change

Conundrum Richard Bacon, 2013-06-18 Government failure is affecting everyone The single mum worried sick by a tax credit demand from HMRC to repay thousands of pounds she never received the family whose holiday was ruined because the Passport Office couldn't issue passports in time the school that couldn't open at the start of term because CRB checks were being carried out by an organisation in meltdown the farmers led to bankruptcy and even suicide by a Kafkaesque system for administering farm payments and rail operators facing an uncertain future because the Department for Transport inadvertently landed the whole rail franchising system in chaos Why is government getting it so wrong Richard Bacon and

Christopher Hope delve into the astonishing world of cock ups and catastrophes and ponder why those at the top continue to fall short     Light a Candle in My Soul: Poems and Poetic Sketches Kerry Wade,2024-10-11 What is it that touches your soul warms your heart or enlightens your mind Do you dream and do you wonder What do you seek and what comes of your thoughts The Greeks sought according to Aeschylus to tame the savageness of man and make quiet the life of the world The Earth itself is a Being radiating outwards a consciousness that no matter the vineyard in which you toil each of us can reconnect with refresh and renew ourselves and perhaps even remake the world around us In an Age of Absurdity the soul s longing has an uncommon degree of strength in the beauty of expression Your thoughts and words change the world

Environment Bruce Braun,2017-10-24 Spanning cultural and political ecology the political economy of the environment humanistic landscape interpretation cultural studies of nature and science and technology studies this volume is the definitive guide to environmental studies in Human Geography over the past 30 years The articles collected capture conceptual developments in the field for audiences within and beyond Geography and illustrate the diversity and remarkable vitality of geographical research on society environment relations
