Green, 2002-07-23 There is no available information at this time So, You Want to Build a House? Les Abbott, So You Want to Build a House Don Lohnes, 2014-09-30 For starters this book is not a technical manual it is a guide of what to consider prior to making the first steps towards achieving your goal of a comfortable living space for you and your family It looks at the issues of the site or location of your home in some detail and provides samples of what to consider for the location slope soil type and other issues that may have an effect on the cost of construction It describes how to select your architect or home designer and how to prepare a space program It briefly describes building codes and regulations It discusses what to look for in preparing your excavation for your foundation and takes a look at various types of floor and wall construction methods It describes several roofing options and looks at options for windows and doors electrical and mechanical installations plus interior finishes It also briefly discusses landscaping options and describes what to consider in securing financing for your home and the items that financial institutions may require It provides a sample schedule of a typical home construction process So You Want to Live the Slow Life? A Guide to Life in the Beastly Wilds, Vol. 4

Fuurou, 2024-08-31 A Wedding In The Wilds Mikura and Tokatechi are gradually ticking off all the items on their wedding checklist Beastfolk weddings are more relaxed than human ones a bit like a big gathering party where two families unite as one There aren't too many preparations left so once the dress is ready the couple can start a new chapter in their lives and relationship Though the wedding is just around the corner life in the Beastly Wilds is slow and leisurely like always unless you're a good cook who's got hungry mouths to feed Mikura perseveres in the kitchen making preserves and whipping up delicious food to satisfy his beastfolk companions Not to mention that as one of the cooks for the wedding he ll have to feed way more than just two gluttons It s going to be an uphill battle The House of the Black Ring Fred Lewis

Pattee,2015-06-29 Fred Lewis Pattee long regarded as the father of American literary study also wrote fiction Originally published in 1905 by Henry Holt The House of the Black Ring was Pattee s second novel a local color romance set in the mountains of Central Pennsylvania The book s plot is driven by family feud forbidden love and a touch of the supernatural This new edition makes this novel accessible to new generations of modern day readers General readers will find in The House of the Black Ring a thriller that preserves details of rural life and language during the late nineteenth century Scholars will read it as an expression of cultural anxiety and change in the decades after the Civil War An introduction by poet and essayist Julia Spicher Kasdorf situates the novel within the context of social and literary history as well as Pattee s own biography and provides a compelling argument for its importance not only as a literary artifact or record of local customs but also as a reflection of Pattee s own story intertwined with the history of Penn State at the turn of the twentieth century Joshua Brown draws on his expertise in Pennsylvania German ethno linguistics to interpret the dialect writing and to give readers a clearer view of the customs and regionalisms depicted in the book African Market Women Gracia C.

Clark,2010-03-08 A wonderfully evocative compilation of seven life histories from Kumasi Ghana of women Gracia Clark encountered in the course of a lifetime of fieldwork African Studies Review In these lively life stories women market traders from Ghana comment on changing social and economic times and on reasons for their prosperity or decline in fortunes Gracia Clark shows that market women are intimately connected with economic policy on a global scale Many work at the intersection of sophisticated networks of transnational commerce and migration They have dramatic memories of independence and the growth of their new nation including political rivalries price controls and violent raids on the market The experiences of these women give substance to their reflections on globalization capital accumulation colonialism technological change environmental degradation teenage pregnancy marriage children changing gender roles and spirituality Clark s commentary illuminates the complex historical and cultural setting of these deeply revealing lives Shows in direct speech how family kinship marriage and age generation work together in a daily life which is shaped by political demographic cultural and wholly accidental change in people s circumstances Jane Guyer Johns Hopkins University Overall this is an excellent book it will be useful in undergraduate teaching and makes an important contribution to our understanding of the richness and variety of women s lives in West Africa Journal of Africa Clark offers intriguing insights into the lives of seven Akan women traders Recommended Choice So You Want to Be a Leader Philip Crisp,2018-11-01

We ask much of our leaders and blame them for any failure to order the world to our liking Yet many of us are reluctant to engage preferring to disparage leaders as a class apart a quarrelsome lot and overpaid to boot the useful butt of barbecue humour Will we engage better with the next generation of leaders Will they conduct a kinder gentler national conversation In this book 36 Australian voices both early achievers and the venerable from across the political and social landscape offer fresh ideas and timeless wisdom for people entering public life Whether you are a budding politician advisor lobbyist advocate local councillor NGO leader social activist blogger philanthropist sporting administrator or the representative of an industry the arts a profession or a trade you are in public life This book will deepen your understanding of what you must know do say and be to succeed Philip Crisp has done us all an enormous favour by assembling not only a first class and diverse group of leaders but ones who are willing to be frank confronting and not merely offering the usual leadership platitudes Simon McKeon AO Australian of the Year 2011 a must read for any aspiring leader a treasure trove of invaluable insights into effective leadership Laurie Wilson President National Press Club a most timely and comprehensive analysis of leadership and the making of good leaders Compulsory reading Anne Henderson AM political historian So You Want to Build a House J.
