Challenges in World Politics Alina Isakova, Malte Neuwinger, Robin Schulze Waltrup, Oday Uraiqat, 2024-06-24 This interdisciplinary book investigates the problematization of global challenges in world politics by analyzing what they are and how they come to be. Offering a conceptual framework including four modes of construction: universalizing, bundling, upscaling, and creating urgency, this book provides a heuristic method for understanding how the process of rendering an issue a global challenge unfolds. It examines the role of the global challenges discourse, which may either reinforce or challenge the dominant orders of world politics, such as the capitalist market-based system and the liberal international order. As a consequence, the global challenges discourse facilitates the emergence of new actors and policy fields. The book will be of interest to students, academics, and practitioners of global governance, international organizations, and more broadly, international political economy and international relations.

Population Ageing and Its Challenges to Social Policy R. Schoenmaeckers, Irena Kotowska, Council of Europe. Directorate General III--Social Cohesion, 2005-01-01 This publication examines the demographic challenges posed by population ageing trends and the policy implications in relation to health, employment, public expenditure, and social relationships. It contains two reports prepared for the European Population Conference held in Strasbourg in April 2005.

Diversity and Aging in the Social Environment Sherry M. Cummings, Colleen Galambos, 2016-05-06 Today, nearly one of every eight Americans is 65 or older, and by 2030, over 20% of the population will be in this age group. Are you prepared to work with this vastly diverse and rapidly growing population? This single source is designed to help social service professionals provide effective services to America's vastly diverse and rapidly growing elderly population. Diversity and Aging in the Social Environment explores the impact of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, and geographic location on elders' strengths, challenges, needs, and resources to provide you with a more complete understanding of the issues elders face. In order to be more responsive to older adults, social workers and other human service professionals need to enhance their knowledge of the aging population and the factors that impact the way seniors interact with society, organizations, community resources, neighborhoods, support networks, kinship groups, family, and friends. Diversity and Aging in the Social Environment examines differences in race, ethnicity, geographical location, sexual orientation, religion, and health status to help current and future human service professionals provide culturally competent services to the diverse range of elderly people they serve. In addition, it addresses the wide disparity that exists for older Americans in terms of income and assets, number of chronic conditions, functional and cognitive impairment, housing arrangements, and access to health care. This book provides a context for the examination of diversity issues among older adults by describing and discussing several theoretical perspectives on aging that highlight important aspects of diversity. Next, you will find thoughtful examinations of issues and challenges faced by lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender elders, and the strengths they bring into later life. The impact of gender, race, and sexual orientation on prevalence rates, risk factors, methods of disease contraction, and mortality rates among older adults with HIV/AIDS, along with a discussion of the psychosocial issues they face, diverse characteristics of custodial grandparents and the influence of the caregivers gender race age and geographic location on methods of care and available caregiver support differences in caregiver characteristics service utilization caregiver strain and coping mechanisms among several racial ethnic groups of adults who care for elderly disabled and ill persons cultural religious factors that influence interactions between health care personnel and Japanese American elders the relationship between acculturation and depressive symptoms among Mexican American couples life challenges facing Jewish and African American elders with a look at each group's coping mechanisms differences in religious spiritual coping skills among Native American African American and white elders psychological well being and religiosity among a diverse group of rural elders
