Social Construction Of Lesbianism:

The Social Construction of Lesbianism Celia Kitzinger, 1987 The old model of lesbianism as a pathological affliction has largely given way to a liberal social scientific one which presents it as an alternative lifestyle a way of loving a sexual preference or a source of personal fulfilment This book argues that the shift from pathological to gay affirmative research merely substitutes one depoliticized construction of the lesbian for another The author contends that the liberal social construction instead of furthering the liberation of women represents a new development in the oppression of women in general and lesbians in particular Gay affirmative constructions are fundamentally incompatible with radical feminist theory in which lesbianism is a political statement representing the bonding of women against male supremacy Kitzinger urges researchers to reject the traditional model of science as an objective search for truths or facts but instead to examine their own rhetoric and evaluate their political commitments From publisher s description

Identities in the Lesbian World Barbara Ponse, 1978-04-04 Social Perspectives in Lesbian and Gay Studies Peter M. Nardi, Beth E. Schneider, 2013-09-13 This comprehensive reader brings a social science perspective to an area hitherto dominated by the humanities Through it students will be able to follow the story of how sociology has come to engage with gay and lesbian issues from the 1950s to the present from the earliest research on the underground worlds of gay men to the emergence of queer theory in the 1990s Bringing together classic readings and the best work of younger scholars from all parts of the English speaking world this reader will be an invaluable resource for courses at undergraduate and graduate level in all areas of the sociology of sexuality and gender Separate sections cover theoretical foundations identity and community making institutions and social change challenges for the future Each section begins with an introduction giving readers a brief guide to the readings in that section contextualises them and relates them to one another and the book ends with an afterword by Ken Plummer summing up the present state of play and looking forward to the future

Lesbians and Lesbianisms Claudette Kulkarni, 1997 Claudette Kulkarni s study of lesbianism explores lesbian experience from both a feminist and Jungian standpoint Her feminist interpretation challenges the heterosexism embedded in Jungian theory yet Kulkarni is able to demonstrate that there are links between theory and experience and common ground between Jung and feminism Using a methodology anchored in Gadamer s hermeneutics Kulkarni bridges theory and experience by grounding theory in experience rather than by trying to make experience conform to theory

The Case for Gay Rights David A. J. Richards, 2005 As Americans wrestle with debates over traditional values defense of marriage and gay rights reason often seems to take a back seat to emotion In response legal scholar Richards reflects upon the constitutional and democratic principles relating to privacy intimate life free speech tolerance and conscience that underpin these often heated debates The distillation of Richards s thirty year advocacy for the rights of gays and lesbians his book provides a reflective treatise on basic human rights that touch all of our lives He places in context two key Supreme Court cases the 1986 Bowers v Hardwick decision and the 2003 Lawrence v Texas decision which overturned it Drawing upon his own experiences as a gay man Richards interweaves personal observations with philosophical political judicial and psychological insights to make a case that gays should be entitled to the same rights and protections that every American enjoys From publisher description

Lesbian, Queer, and Bisexual Women in Heterosexual Relationships Ahoo Tabatabai, 2015-10-29 This book draws on interviews with women who left relationships with women to begin relationships with men and uncovers how the women make sense of who they are The women who leave female partners to begin relationships with male partners have the capacity to redefine their sexual identity They can essentially call themselves whatever they want. However, their capacity for such a creative process is limited. In the process of framing their decision in a way that renders their claim to a stable identity legitimate, the women communicate their understandings of notions of identity, community, and belonging. The women also show a nuanced regard for sexual categories. They stretch the boundaries of some categories while preserving and even policing the boundaries of other categories. This book is in no way an ex-gay narrative. It is entirely the voices of feminist queer women who find themselves viewed by society as heterosexual but who themselves, with two exceptions, do not identify as such. This book is a rich collection of wonderfully human stories about what it means to be true to oneself.

Lesbian Histories and Cultures Bonnie Zimmerman, 2000. To reflect this crucial fact, The Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures has been prepared in two separate volumes to assure that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered.

BOOK JACKET Lesbian and Gay Memphis Daneel Buring, 1997. This book addresses social and cultural issues both peculiarly Southern and generally American as it surveys Memphis, Tennessee, between World War II and 1990, when lesbians and gay men developed group identity and community institutions first as a defense in the closeted 1950s, then as part of the liberationist 1970s, and in the 1980s as a response to the spread of AIDS and the demands of other marginalized groups for recognition, inclusion, and power.
