Sarah McFarland Taylor, 2009-09-15 Green sisters environmentally active Catholic nuns work to heal the earth as they cultivate new forms of religious culture Inviting us into their world Taylor offers a firsthand understanding of the experiences of women whose lives bring together orthodoxy and activism and whose lifestyle provides a compelling view of sustainable living The Twin Sister Planets Venus and Earth Robert J. Malcuit, 2015 This book explains how it came to be that Venus and Earth while very similar in chemical composition zonation size and heliocentric distance from the Sun are very different in surface environmental conditions It is argued here that these differences can be accounted for by planetoid capture processes and the subsequent evolution of the planet satellite system Venus captured a one half moon mass planetoid early in its history in the retrograde direction and underwent its fatal attraction scenario with its satellite Adonis Earth on the other hand captured a moon mass planetoid Luna early in its history in prograde orbit and underwent a benign estrangement scenario with its captured satellite National Program of Inspection of Dams United States. Army. Corps of Engineers, 1975 Medicine Wheel Trilogy Grandmother Puddingstone, 2019-04-15 Medicine Wheel Trilogy by Grandmother Puddingstone Mayakovsky Edward James Brown, 2015-03-08 An absorbing portrait of an extraordinary man an analysis of the work of a great Russian poet and the evocation of a crucial period in Russian cultural history all are combined in Edward J Brown's literary biography of Vladimir Mayakovsky It is the only book to reveal the whole Mayakovsky not just aspects of his tortured personality or artistic work and will be immediately recognized as definitive Mayakovsky contributed to the cultural life of Soviet Russia not only as a lyric poet but as a playwright graphic artist and satirist of the conventional art forms of his day By examining his art in terms of his life Edward Brown shows how intensely personal it was and how bound up in the literary and political history of his time The intellectual turmoil of the period is skillfully re created especially the nature ambience and personalities of Russian futurism Above all the book reveals the man a committed Bolshevik and a dedicated artist but also a hypochondriac compulsive gambler and eventual suicide Originally published in 1973 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton religion is told by a future observer whose knowledge of history is incomplete Without sanctioned access to historical accounts the storyteller has pieced together an explanation of man's predicament that seems plausible to him His problem is that he cannot accomplish in his own life the virtues that he admires in the subject of his story In his partial understanding he looks back longingly to a time he feels to be simpler than the complex world he lives in The storyteller is a member of the crew who man a lunar based laser The subject of his narrative Colonel Smith was a member of the pioneering crew who laid the foundation for the establishment of that base In Colonel Smith's day a world now past satellite technology became obsolete The need for a moon based laser became desperate in the pursuit of peace and security Through a series of mishaps Colonel Smith is marooned alone on the moon and must endure a year of solitude It is during that time that he is able to rethink and ultimately to redirect his life When at last he is rescued he returns to an Earth that will be profoundly affected by the work he helped to begin on the moon In a world of tightening alternatives man has not lost his battle with technology but rather has surrendered to it It is the storyteller's lament that man has given up without a struggle Should the story of the teller and of his subject seem ill fated and harshness and gloom seem to hang over the tragedy of their lives it is only because the message of hope has been missed The door has been opened and we have stepped through but the door has not closed behind us We might yet step back through close that door from the other side and find another opened to us Amazing grace
