William Campbell (M.R.A.S.), 1915 Sketches From Formosa (Classic Reprint) W. Campbell, 2015-08-05

Excerpt from Sketches From Formosa Some of the following Sketches appeared as an appendix to my book on the work of the early Dutch Mission in Formosa and two or three others had a very limited circulation as separate papers but all of them have been re written and many new pieces have been added for the present issue my intention being to take at least one way of marking the fiftieth year since our English Presbyterian Church began work in this important although still little known island of the Pacific On turning over the pages my young friends in the Church will have an eye mainly to those incidents which are amusing while other readers including perhaps a few who do not habitually betake themselves to the perusal of such books may find some things which are informing and of more enduring interest In any case I hope it may serve some useful purpose thus to furnish another opportunity for seeing the Missionary with his Illustrated West of England and dog collar actually off so to speak thus to submit these first hand statements regarding his methods of work his difficulties his encouragements and most important of all regarding the way in which God is pleased to use weak things of the world for the accomplishment of His own great and glorious purposes About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Sketches from Formosa William Campbell, 1915

First published in 1915 this detailed account of missionary life in Taiwan is from a man who spent more than 44 years living there providing primary source information for those interested in the early history of Taiwan Arriving as a Dutch missionary Reverend Campbell continued his work under the English Presbyterian Church when the Dutch mission was halted A Sketch of Formosa Archibald Ross Colquhoun, 1884 *Catalogue of the Asiatic Library of Dr. G. Border crossing in Education comprises a series of case studies covering a variety of cultural areas in order to reveal the density of connections and exchanges that inform educational practices policies and systems It attaches particular importance to individual and collective actors that govern these flows initiating promoting or reconfiguring transfers of policy models The contributors explore various aspects of the circulatory mechanisms that have been deployed in the field of education during the modern and contemporary period Varying the observation scales from local to international they demonstrate the multilateral character of the circulatory dynamics observed The implementation of rich and varied approaches to these complex processes offers a perspective that complements and renews our knowledge of the genesis and evolution of educational policies and systems most notably highlighting their foreign inspirations However these studies do not merely evoke borrowings and hybridization as if national borders proved porous or non existent Instead they show that the phenomena of resistance reinterpretation and rejection are also an integral part of transnational mechanisms of exchanges The book thus demonstrates the relevance of a historical approach in addressing these transnational mechanisms in the field of education and childhood policy This book was originally published as a special issue of Paedagogica Historica

Missionary Review of the World,1902

Authentic Chinese Christianity Koen De Ridder,2001 This volume intends to tackle two problems The first is the historical framework of imperialism until now widely applied by Western and Chinese scholars as an approach to the Christian evangelization movement in China The theological aspect of the missionary action is seldom taken into account nor is religion treated as an authentic human experience In this volume two authors try to place the position of the Christian mission in its broader context Scott Somers reflects on the changing image of the Japanese occupation in Taiwan based on protestant missionary sources Koen De Ridder discusses the early diplomatic contacts between China and Belgium and the position of the Belgian missionaries A second problem dealt with is that of the native Christians While Jessie Lutz attempts to sketch a profile of the Chinese Protestant evangelizers Jean Paul Wiest focuses his attention on the Roman Catholics among the Chinese Hakka minority Gary Tiedemann explains the material spiritual and political incentives for conversion among the inhabitants of North China paying special attention to the socio political profile of the converts In the contribution of Ann Heylen we return to Taiwan where we are offered a better understanding of the Protestant contribution to the study of the Min language

Finally Karel Steenbrink describes the changing religious affiliation of assimilated Chinese in Indonesia during the period 1900 1942 The Chinese Recorder ,1916 The Missionary Review of the World ,1916 The Missionary Review ,1902 Chinese Recorder and Missionary Journal ,1916
