Slow Dancing Through Time:

Slow Dancing Through Time Gardner R. Dozois, Jack Dann, 1990 A provocative collection of science fiction fantasy stories by Hugo Nebula Award winner Gardner Dozois In collaboration with authors Dann Swanwick Haldeman Casper the stories involve vampires in the death camps of WW II selling computers to fairies trolls a rain of dinosaurs in Manhattan more

Slow Dancing Through Time Gardner Dozois, 2014-09-30 Here are the short story collaborations of legendary editor and multiple Nebula Award winning author Gardner Dozois with some of the greatest writers of modern science fiction Each story is followed by an essay by the collaborator discussing Dozois and his influence on science fiction and beyond Includes collaborative stories and appreciations by Michael Bishop Pat Cadigan Michael Swanwick Jack Dann Jack C Haldeman II Susan Casper At the publisher's request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management Slow Dancing Through the Final Years Bobbi Hart, 2004-07 SLOW DANCING THROUGH THE FINAL YEARS is a feel good story about the joys of leading a loved one through the many stages of a degenerative illness such as Alzheimer's Muscular Dystrophy Parkinson's or a stroke It is a chronicle advancing the idea that caring is joy that slow good byes are not all bad and that life's greatest reward is the giving of one's best love It is an inspirational self help guide offering pathways of discovering one's own personal growth in the process of caring for a loved one with an illness that chips away at their life little by little each day This story is about a mother who had a twenty year walk with Alzheimer's The author her daughter imparts her very happy and active life during her years of part time care for her mother and offers her method of segregating time for each of her life's demands The underlying theme is Make lemonade with lemons SLOW DANCING offers enlightened options for the caregiver to investigate and choices to consider For many it seems like a long dark tunnel but this book offers them encouragement and a glimpse of the bright light at the end of the tunnel Slow Dancing with the Devil Susan Bartz Herrick, 2024-02-08 Susan Herrick's memoir follows the story of her beloved son and only child Luke through his struggle with opioid addiction recovery and sobriety and untimely and heartbreaking death Luke suffered a near fatal car accident that left him partially paralyzed and addicted to Oxycontin the very drug that helped save his life Susan turned to the streets to obtain Suboxone a legal but medically restricted opioid blocker in an attempt to save her son's life Remembering this she writes The day I became my son's drug dealer we both died in a way This poignant and compelling memoir exposes the rampant prescribing of Oxycontin upwards of 600mg daily in cases like Luke's and the role overprescribing plays in the disease of Substance Use Disorder SUD Through Luke's story the author addresses failed public policies misguided medical practices societal stigmas and enabling tendencies of loved ones that hinder recovery for those afflicted with SUD Slow Dancing with Fire Brahma Yassky, 2022-05-03 As an emerging young painter in New York City Brahma Yassky lived her dream working full time as an artist and supporting herself with her work attending art openings and going to clubs and painting scenery in theaters In 1982 a flame shot up from her stove and burned 55% of her body In Slow Dancing with Fire

Yassky chronicles the day she was burned the three months she spent in the burn unit enduring an arduous healing process and the next full year of physical and occupational therapy She feared she might never paint again or have an independent life Would any man ever find her attractive enough to want a relationship Over time Yassky s resilient spirit guided her to build a new life She earned credentials as an art therapist and helped others heal from their traumas by engaging with the creative process She adopted a daily practice of swimming both as a meditation and a way to loosen scar contractions The New York City Department of Health commissioned her to create a mural on the outside of a building in the South Bronx and posters for every subway car She joined the Guerrilla Girls a women s artist activist collective whose mission was to fight racism and sexism in the art world She wrote and directed a film about the day she was burned casting an actress to play herself thus objectifying the experience and eliminating her personal identity as a burn victim And finally she married a man she never would have dated before the fire because his greatest attributes were kindness and nurturance not coolness and worldly success Her story encourages the belief that building a resilient spirit and healing our wounds and traumas are not only possible but exhilarating
