Tobacco in Global Perspective, 1780-1960 Alexander van Wickeren,Jean Stubbs,William Gervase

Clarence-Smith,2024-12-24 This edited collection provides an in depth analysis of the imperial colonial and postcolonial history of tobacco from 1780 to 1960 which was one of the major periods of change in the global tobacco economy It brings together case studies from known and lesser known tobacco regions of the world to interrogate tobacco s second globalisation a concept little employed by historians thus far but one which encapsulates tobacco s central role in Europe s imperial expansion beyond the Atlantic and the social political and cultural transformations of global capitalism taking place during the period The collection fills a gap in the study of commodities of empire which has examined tobacco primarily for the early modern Atlantic world or for single empires during the later period It invites comparison across borders encompassing political economic and sociocultural history and with a particular emphasis on trade knowledge and labour juxtaposes micro histories with a macro historical perspective Together the studies in the volume testify to the importance of tobacco in new places and among new players challenging the confines of national and imperial historiographical frameworks They demonstrate the rising dominance of new powerful forces including transnational corporations but also a wide range of actors in conflict and negotiation within territorial and imperial confines By systematically taking into account the agency in Europe s apparent peripheries and the Global South they critique a simple assumption of the dominance of the West Chapter 11 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com Forces of Habit David T. COURTWRIGHT,2009-06-30 A global history of the acquisition of progressively more potent means of altering ordinary waking consciousness this book is the first to provide the big picture of the discovery interchange and exploitation of the planet s psychoactive resources from tea and kola to opiates and amphetamines The Freedom to Smoke Jarrett Rudy,2005 A social and cultural history of the rise of the cigarette and the way smoking rituals in Montreal were shaped by gender class and race Tobacco Use and Ethnicity Peter Myers,2018-10-24 Learn how ethnic factors affect tobacco use The addiction to smoking is remarkably resistant to intervention bringing with it a multitude of health issues among users that can at times co occur with psychiatric disorders Ethnicity is increasingly recognized as often playing an important role in the prevalence of tobacco use Tobacco Use and Ethnicity explores the various factors that impact tobacco use among ethnic groups and provides practical culturally competent approaches to treatment Chapters consider multiple variables that lead to use among certain groups such as Asian American and Pacific Island youth American Indian and Alaskan Native youth and low income African Americans Tobacco Use and Ethnicity is a unique source that comprehensively reveals the intersection between nicotine and culture constructing culturally informed and culturally competent approaches to tobacco prevention and cessation treatment This volume is based on first hand participant observation and addresses risk and protective factors in a wide variety of populations served by public health workers and educators The book is extensively referenced and includes figures and tables to clearly present research Topics discussed in Tobacco Use and Ethnicity include target marketing of a tobacco product to African American youth how ethnicity and youth culture impact potential smokers the role of parental relationships the impact of peer and parental smoking status employment gender and income in British Columbia the risk factor of acculturative stress on Asian American and Pacific Island youth protective factors of American Indian and Alaskan Native youth common factors associated between poverty and African American tobacco use and more Tobacco Use and Ethnicity is an invaluable resource for public health professionals addictions counselors public health educators and students The Archaeology of the Logging Industry John G.

Franzen,2020-08-18 In this book John Franzen surveys archaeological studies of logging sites across the nation from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries explaining how material evidence found at these locations illustrates key aspects of the American experience during this era Anthropology of Tobacco Andrew Russell,2019-03-04 Tobacco has become one of the most widely used and traded commodities on the planet Reflecting contemporary anthropological interest in material culture studies Anthropology of Tobacco makes the plant the centre of its own contentious global story in which instead of a passive commodity tobacco becomes a powerful player in a global adventure involving people corporations and public health Bringing together a range of perspectives from the social and natural sciences as well as the arts and humanities Anthropology of Tobacco weaves stories together from a range of historical cross cultural and literary sources and empirical research These combine with contemporary anthropological theories of agency and cross species relationships to offer fresh perspectives on how an apparently humble plant has progressed to world domination and the consequences of it having done so It also considers what needs to happen if as some public health advocates would have it we are seriously to imagine a world without tobacco This book presents students scholars and practitioners in anthropology public health and social policy with unique and multiple perspectives on tobacco human relations Smoking, Culture and Economy in The Middle East Relli Shechter,2006-04-28 In this original and thought provoking book Relli Shechter examines the emergence of modern markets in the complex social environment of the Middle East Focusing on the tobacco market in Egypt he looks at how markets interact with the society politics and culture of the region The history of Egypt s smoking habits from the water pipe to the Marlboro closely mirrors wider socio economic developments in the country Shechter begins his story by looking at the entrepreneurial Ottoman elite who produced luxury cigarettes for export worldwide He then looks at the role of tobacco products in forming class consciousness in the domestic market based on the idea that you are what you smoke Finally he looks at the politics of smoking in the context of contemporary economic globalisation Shechter engages energetically with cutting edge social and economic theories in telling the story of Egypt s tobacco markets The result is a fascinating book which contains a wealth of newly uncovered material Smoking Culture and Economy in the Middle East will stimulate and inform anyone interested in political economy social change and the Middle East region
