Smugglers Secessionists Loyal Citizens On The Ghana Togo Frontier Western African Studies:

Smugglers, Secessionists & Loyal Citizens on the Ghana-Toga Frontier Paul Nugent, 2002 Smugglers, Secessionists & Loyal Citizens on the Ghana-Toga Frontier Paul Nugent, 2002 Securitisin Decolonisation Julius Heise, 2024-05-23 With the right to petition the United Nations the Ewe and Togoland unification movement enjoyed a privilege unmatched by other dependent peoples Using language conveying insecurity the movement seized the international spotlight ensuring that the topic of unification dominated the UN Trusteeship System for over a decade Yet its vociferous securitisations fell silent due to colonial distortion leaving unification unfulfilled thus allowing the seeds of secessionist conflict to grow At the intersection of postcolonial theory and security studies Julius Heise presents a theory driven history of Togoland s path to independence offering a crucial lesson for international statebuilding efforts Smugglers and States Max Gallien, 2024-02-27 Winner 2025 Theodore J Lowi First Book Award International Political Science Association American Political Science Association Smuggling is typically thought of as furtive and hidden taking place under the radar and beyond the reach of the state But in many cases governments tacitly permit illicit cross border commerce or even devise informal arrangements to regulate it Drawing on extensive fieldwork in the borderlands of Tunisia and Morocco Max Gallien explains why states have long tolerated illegal trade across their borders and develops new ways to understand the political economy of smuggling This book examines the rules and agreements that govern smuggling in North Africa tracing the involvement of states in these practices and their consequences for borderland communities Gallien demonstrates that contrary to common assumptions about the effects of informal economies smuggling can promote both state and social stability States not only turn a blind eye to smuggling they rely on it to secure political acquiescence and maintain order because it provides income for otherwise neglected border communities More recently however the securitization of borders wars political change and the pandemic have put these arrangements under pressure Gallien explores the renegotiation of the role of smuggling showing how stability turns into vulnerability and why some groups have been able to thrive while others have been pushed further to the margins With both rich empirical detail and novel theoretical contributions Smugglers and States offers important insights into security and stability in North Africa and the prospects for economic inclusion in a context where many livelihoods exist outside of the law Slavery and Reform in West Africa Trevor R. Getz, 2004-04-20 A series of transformations reforms and attempted abolitions of slavery form a core narrative of nineteenth century coastal West Africa As the region s role in Atlantic commercial networks underwent a gradual transition from principally that of slave exporter to producer of legitimate goods and dependent markets institutions of slavery became battlegrounds in which European abolitionism pragmatic colonialism and indigenous agency clashed In Slavery and Reform in West Africa Trevor Getz demonstrates that it was largely on the anvil of this issue that French and British policy in West Africa was forged With distant metropolises unable to intervene in daily affairs local European administrators striving to balance abolitionist pressures against the resistance of politically and economically powerful local slave owners sought ways to satisfy the latter while placating or duping the former. The result was an alliance between colonial officials, company agents and slave owning elites that effectively slowed, sidetracked or undermined serious attempts to reform slave holding. Although slavery was outlawed in both regions in only a few isolated instances did large scale emancipations occur. Under the surface however slaves used the threat of self liberation to reach accommodations that transformed the master slave relationship. By comparing the strategies of colonial administrators, slave owners and slaves across these two regions and throughout the nineteenth century, Slavery and Reform in West Africa reveals not only the causes of the astounding success of slave owners but also the factors that could and in some cases did lead to slave liberations. These findings have serious implications for the wider study of slavery and emancipation and for the history of Africa generally.

Boundaries, Communities and State-Making in West Africa

Paul Nugent, 2019-06-06 By examining three centuries of history, this book shows how vital border regions have been in shaping states and social contracts.

Violence on the Margins Timothy Raeymaekers, 2013-08-27 This survey of various African and Asian conflicts examines people's experiences on territorial borders and the ways they affect political configurations. By focusing on individuals, routines and daily life, these contributions treat borderland dynamics as actual political units with their own actions and outcomes.

Administration and Taxation in Former Portuguese Africa

Philip J. Havik, Alexander Keese, Maciel Santos, 2015-06-18 This book addresses a notable gap in the knowledge of Portuguese colonial administration and the policies implemented in the main territories of its third African empire: Angola, Mozambique and Guinea. In recent years, the question of colonial taxation has become a topic in the academic debate on colonial empires and has led to a comparative long term focus on its impact in African societies. Given that former Portuguese colonies in Africa have been largely absent from this debate, this book

Ethnicity and the Making of History in Northern Ghana

Carola Lentz, 2006-07-04 Drawing on two decades of research, this social and political history of North Western Ghana traces the creation of new ethnic and territorial boundaries, categories and forms of self understanding and represents a major contribution to debates on ethnicity, colonialism and the production of history. It explores the creation and redefinition of ethnic distinctions and commonalities by African and European actors, showing that ethnicity's power derives from a contradiction while ethnic identities purport to be non negotiable, creating permanent bonds, stability and security, the boundaries of the communities created and the associated traits and practices are malleable and adaptable to specific interests and contexts.

The Fruits of Freedom in British Togoland

Katharine Alexandra Collier Skinner, 2015-06-17 The Fruits of Freedom in British Togoland examines the history and politics behind the failed project of Togoland reunification, in which the United Nations trust territory of British Togoland was to be separated from the Gold Coast to join with French Togoland in a new independent African state.

A Guide to Spatial History

Konrad Lawson, Riccardo Bavaj, Bernhard Struck, 2022-01-07 This guide provides an overview of the thematic areas, analytical aspects and avenues of research which together form a broader conversation around doing spatial history Spatial history is not a field with clearly delineated boundaries For the most part it lacks a distinct unambiguous scholarly identity It can only be thought of in relation to other typically more established fields Indeed one of the most valuable utilities of spatial history is its capacity to facilitate conversations across those fields Consequently it must be discussed in relation to a variety of historiographical contexts Each of these have their own intellectual genealogies institutional settings and conceptual path dependencies With this in mind this guide surveys the following areas territoriality infrastructure and borders nature environment and landscape city and home social space and political protest spaces of knowledge spatial imaginaries cartographic representations and historical GIS research

Border Jumping and Migration Control in Southern Africa Francis Musoni,2020-04-07 With the end of apartheid rule in South Africa and the ongoing economic crisis in Zimbabwe the border between these Southern African countries has become one of the busiest inland ports of entry in the world As border crossers wait for clearance crime violence and illegal entries have become rampant Francis Musoni observes that border jumping has become a way of life for many of those who live on both sides of the Limpopo River and he explores the reasons for this including searches for better paying jobs and access to food and clothing at affordable prices Musoni sets these actions into a framework of illegality He considers how countries have failed to secure their borders why passports are denied to travelers and how border jumping has become a phenomenon with a long history especially in Africa Musoni emphasizes cross border travelers active participation in the making of this history and how clandestine mobility has presented opportunity and creative possibilities for those who are willing to take the risk

The Borderlands of South Sudan C. Vaughan,M. Schomerus,L. de Vries, Lotje de Vries,2013-12-10 Moving beyond the current fixation on state construction the interdisciplinary work gathered here explores regulatory authority in South Sudan s borderlands from both contemporary and historical perspectives Taken together these studies show how emerging governance practices challenge the bounded categorizations of state and non state

Land, Mobility, and Belonging in West Africa Carola Lentz,2013-07-05 An ethnographic study of issues of land rights property regimes and ethnicity in West Africa Focusing on an area of the savannah in northern Ghana and southwestern Burkina Faso Land Mobility and Belonging in West Africa explores how rural populations have secured contested and negotiated access to land and how they have organized their communities despite being constantly on the move as farmers or migrant laborers Carola Lentz seeks to understand how those who claim native status hold sway over others who are perceived to have come later As conflicts over land agriculture and labor have multiplied in Africa Lentz shows how politics and power play decisive roles in determining access to scarce resources and in changing notions of who belongs and who is a stranger Illuminates the distinctive historical trajectory of land claims authority and belonging among the Dagara and Sisala peoples of the Black Volta region and locates this specific case history

within broader debates over transformation in access use and control over land in colonial and postcolonial Africa Sara Berry Johns Hopkins University Important in the sense that it constitutes a detailed historical study of how complex narratives of belonging and notions of property interlock It is academic work of the first order Christian Lund Roskilde University The Routledge Handbook of Smuggling Max Gallien, Florian Weigand, 2021-12-21 The Routledge Handbook of Smuggling offers a comprehensive survey of interdisciplinary research related to smuggling reflecting on key themes and charting current and future trends Divided into six parts and spanning over 30 chapters the volume covers themes such as mobility borders violent conflict and state politics as well as looks at the smuggling of specific goods from rice and gasoline to wildlife weapons and cocaine Chapters engage with some of the most contentious academic and policy debates of the twenty first century including the historical creation of borders re bordering the criminalisation of migration and the politics of selective toleration of smuggling As it maps a field that contains unique methodological ethical and risk related challenges the book takes stock not only of the state of our shared knowledge but also reflects on how this has been produced pointing to blind spots and providing an informed vision of the future of the field Bringing together established and emerging scholars from around the world The Routledge Handbook of Smuggling is an indispensable resource for students and researchers of conflict studies borderland studies criminology political science global development anthropology sociology and geography

A Companion to Border Studies Thomas M. cross border cooperation security and controls migration and population displacements hybridity and transnationalism A Companion to Border Studies brings together these disciplines and viewpoints through the writing of an international collection of preeminent border scholars Drawing on research from Africa Asia the Middle East Europe and the Americas the contributors argue that the future of Border Studies lies within such diverse collaborations which approach comparatively the features of borders worldwide

Mobility Makes States Darshan Vigneswaran, Joel Quirk, 2015-05-05 In Mobility Makes States political scientists historians sociologists and anthropologists examine the role of mobility in shaping how states are formed and how they behave Focusing on links between power and migration across sub Saharan Africa the book explores how and why states have sought to harness movements towards their own ends

Asymmetric Neighbors and International Relations Ian Roberge, Nara Park, Thomas R. Klassen, 2023-06-09 With a range of case studies from every continent the contributors to this book analyze the challenges that arise for states living with much larger neighbors and the policies they develop to account for this asymmetry Bringing together the perspectives of bilateral relations and the study of small states this book analyzes a range of scenarios where one or more smaller countries must manage relations with a much larger neighbor or neighbors from the perspective of the smaller countries Each case presents different priorities depending on the relationship between the states concerned while highlighting the commonalities across the various scenarios The range of cases and contributors is wide and diverse with examples including Togo's relationship with Ghana Mongolia's with China and Colombia's with Brazil as well as more widely known examples such as Canada and the United States or Australia and New Zealand A valuable resource for scholars and students of international relations and public policy of small and medium sized states

Dreamland Carly Goodman, 2023-03-13 In a world of border walls and obstacles to migration a lottery where winners can gain permanent residency in the United States sounds too good to be true Just as unlikely is the idea that the United States would make such visas available to foster diversity within a country where systemic racism endures But in 1990 the United States Diversity Visa Lottery was created to do just that Dreamland tells the surprising story of this unlikely government program and its role in American life as well as the global story of migration Historian Carly Goodman takes readers from Washington D C where proponents deployed a colorblind narrative about our nation of immigrants to secure visas for white immigrants to the African countries where it flourished and fostered dreams of going to America From the post office to the internet aspiring emigrants visa agents and others embraced the lottery and tried their luck in a time of austerity and limits Rising African immigration to the United States has enriched American life created opportunities for mobility and nourished imagined possibilities But the promise of the American dream has been threatened by the United States embrace of anti immigrant policies and persistent anti Black racism
