a secondary service of non core and increasingly outsourced organizational functions An in depth appreciation of FM is provided that assesses the people practices and processes of the service in a study that also highlights the characteristic liminality of the sector s professional activities Emphasis is placed on illuminating the storytelling nature of the service using primarily the genre of fairytales to identify representational archetypes including queen shadow sage trickster adventurer and eternal child within FM s storied space In the process three central characters essentially modes of FM delivery are identified the professional consultant the external service provider and the in house function with these forming the structural basis of fairytales explaining the culture and symbolism of FM as a business service The authors conclude by extrapolating findings from the study to inform a discussion of the contributions of folkloric analysis to organization theory explicitly and our understanding of business and management practice more widely fairy tales are fundamentally fantastic but that doesn't mean that they are beyond reproach in their depiction of real issues and identities Shrapnel Magazine As Leduc takes us through these fairy tales and the space they occupy in the narratives that we construct she slowly unfolds a call to action the claiming of space for disability in storytelling The Globe and Mail A provocative beginning to a thoughtful and wide ranging book one which explores some of the most primal stories readers have encountered and prompts them to ponder the subtext situated there all along LitHub a poignant and informative account of how the stories we tell shape our collective understanding of one another BookMarks What happens when we allow disabled writers to tell stories of disability within fairytales and in magical and supernatural settings It is a reimagining of the fairytale canon we need Leduc dares to dream of a world that most stories envision is unattainable Bitch Media

Love, Power, and Gender in Seventeenth-Century

French Fairy Tales Bronwyn Reddan,2020-12 Love is a key ingredient in the stereotypical fairy tale ending in which everyone lives happily ever after This romantic formula continues to influence contemporary ideas about love and marriage but it ignores the history of love as an emotion that shapes and is shaped by hierarchies of power including gender class education and social status This interdisciplinary study questions the idealization of love as the ultimate happy ending by showing how the conteuses the women writers who dominated the first French fairy tale vogue in the 1690s used the fairy tale genre to critique the power dynamics of courtship and marriage Their tales do not sit comfortably in the fairy tale canon as they explore the good the bad and the ugly effects of love and marriage on the lives of their heroines Bronwyn Reddan argues that the conteuses scripts for love emphasize the importance of gender in determining the right way to love in seventeenth century France Their version of fairy tale love is historical and contingent rather than universal and timeless This conversation about love compels revision of the happily ever after narrative and offers incisive commentary on the gendered scripts for the performance of love in courtship and marriage in seventeenth century France 'Dying' to be White Purnima Mehta Bhatt,2024-08-12 This book examines the phenomenon of colorism in India and the Global South and critically analyses the obsession with fair skin and its association with social capital or mobility Exploring the prevalence of colorism in India China Japan Vietnam South Africa Brazil Argentina Kenya and Australia it traces its roots in history scriptures travel narratives contemporary media and popular culture How much did colonialism and European imperialism contribute to the desire to be white How have globalization and the spread of consumer culture and Western ideals of beauty helped exacerbate these issues The author discusses these questions while looking at the aspirations for beauty and modernity among these societies and the growing popularity of the use of creams lotions and other methods to whiten the skin as a means to assimilate emulate the West and gain better prospects and life Lucid and topical this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of race and colorism sociology social history social anthropology cultural studies consumer economics Asian studies and South Asian studies Girl Culture Claudia Mitchell,Jacqueline Reid-Walsh,2007-12-30 Never before has so much popular culture been produced about what it means to be a girl in today s society From the first appearance of Nancy Drew in 1930 to Seventeen magazine in 1944 to the emergence of Bratz dolls in 2001 girl culture has been increasingly linked to popular culture and an escalating of commodities directed towards girls of all ages Editors Claudia A Mitchell and Jacqueline Reid Walsh investigate the increasingly complex relationships struggles obsessions and idols of American tween and teen girls who are growing up faster today than ever before From pre school to high school and beyond Girl Culture tackles numerous hot button issues including the recent barrage of advertising geared toward very young girls emphasizing sexuality and extreme thinness Nothing is off limits body image peer pressure cliques gangs and plastic surgery are among the over 250 in depth entries highlighted Comprehensive in its coverage of the twenty and twenty first century trendsetters fashion literature film in group rituals and hot button issues that shape and are shaped by girl culture this two volume resource offers a wealth of information to help students educators and interested readers better understand the ongoing interplay between girls and mainstream culture Encyclopedia of Television Subjects, Themes and Settings Vincent Terrace,2024-10-17 Over the course of 80 years television has produced countless programs many of which fit a particular profile Did you know for example some programs are devoted to ghosts genies angels and even mermaids Color broadcasting was first tested in 1941 Live models were used to advertise lingerie as early as 1950 Or that nudity although accidental occurred on TV long before cable was even thought possible These are just a few of the many
