FINALIST FOR THE 2022 NATIONAL BOOK AWARD A new masterwork of satire lore and living memory from the leading voice of French Rwandan literature Mukasonga breathes upon a vanished world and brings it to life in all its sparkling multifariousness J M Coetzee In four beautifully woven parts Mukasonga spins a marvelous recounting of the clash between ancient Rwandan beliefs and the missionaries determined to replace them with European Christianity When a rogue priest is defrocked for fusing the gospels with the martyrdom of Kibogo a fierce clash of cults ensues Swirling with the heady smell of wet earth and flashes of acerbic humor Mukasonga brings to life the vital mythologies that imbue the Rwandan spirit In doing so she gives us a tale of disarming simplicity and profound universal truth Kibogo s story is reserved for the evening s end when women sit around a fire drinking honeyed brew when just a few are able to stave off sleep With heads nodding drifting into the mist of a dream one faithful storyteller will weave the old legends of the hillside stories which church missionaries have done everything in their power to expunge To some Kibogo s tale is founding myth celestial marvel magic incantation bottomless source of hope To white priests spritzing holy water on shriveled drought ridden trees it looms like red fog over the village forbidden satanic a witchdoctor s hoax All debate the twisted roots of this story but deep down all secretly wonder can Kibogo really summon the rain Teaching Classics with Technology,2019-06-13 The impact of ICT on the teaching of classical languages literature and culture has not until now been extensively described and evaluated Nevertheless educational technology has made a huge difference to the ways in which Classics is taught at junior senior and college level The book brings together twenty major approaches to the use of technology in the classroom and presents them for a wide international audience It thus forms a record of current and developing practice promotes further discussion and use among practitioners teachers learners and trainers and offers suggestions for changes in pedagogical practices in the teaching of Classics for the better The many examples of practice from both UK and US perspectives are applicable to countries throughout the world where Classics is being taught The more traditional curricula of high school education in the UK and Europe are drawing more and more on edutech whereas educational jurisdictions in the US are increasingly expecting high school students to use ICT in all lessons with some actively dissuading schools from using traditional printed textbooks This book presents school teachers with a vital resource as they adapt to this use of educational technology in Classics teaching This is no less pertinent at university level in the UK and US where pedagogy tends to follow traditionalist paradigms this book offers lecturers frameworks for understanding and assimilating the models of teaching and learning which are prevalent in schools and experienced by their students Teaching Latin: Contexts, Theories, Practices Steven Hunt,2022-03-10 Building on and updating some of the issues addressed in Starting to Teach Latin Steven Hunt provides a guide for novice and more experienced teachers of Latin in schools and colleges who work with adapted and original Latin prose texts from beginners to advanced levels It draws extensively on up to date theories of second language development and on multiple examples of the practices of real teachers and students Hunt starts with a detailed look at deductive inductive and active teaching methods which support teachers in making the best choices for their students needs and for their own personal preferences but goes on to organise the book around the principles of listening reading speaking and writing Latin It is designed to be informative experimental and occasionally provocative The book closes with two chapters of particular contemporary interest Access Diversity and Inclusion investigates how the subject community is meeting the challenge of teaching Latin more equitably in today s schools and The Future offers some thoughts on lessons that have been learnt from the experiences of online teaching practices during the Covid 19 lockdowns Practical examples extensive references and a companion website at www.stevenhuntclassics.com are included Teachers of Latin will find this book an invaluable tool inside and outside of the classroom Latin for Common Entrance Three Answers N.
