The New Historicism Harold

Veeser, 2013-12-19 Following Clifford Geertz and other cultural anthropologists the New Historicist critics have evolved a method for describing culture in action Their thick descriptions seize upon an event or anecdote colonist John Rolfe s conversation with Pocohontas s father a note found among Nietzsche s papers to the effect that I have lost my umbrella and re read it to reveal through the analysis of tiny particulars the motive forces controlling a whole society Contributors Stephen J Greenblatt Louis A Montrose Catherine Gallagher Elizabeth Fox Genovese Gerald Graff Jean Franco Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Frank Lentricchia Vincent Pecora Jane Marcus Jon Klancher Jonathan Arac Hayden White Stanley Fish Judith Newton Joel Fineman John Schaffer Richard Terdiman Donald Pease Brooks Thomas Affectual Erasure Cynthia Margarita Tompkins, 2018-08-23 Affectual Erasure examines how Argentine cinema has represented Indigenous peoples throughout a period spanning roughly a century Cynthia Margarita Tompkins interrelates her discussion of films with the ethnographic context of the Indigenous peoples represented and an analysis of the affective dimensions at play These emotions underscore the inherent violence of generic conventions as well as the continued political violence preventing Indigenous peoples from access to their ancestral lands and cultural mores Tompkins explores a broad range of movies beginning in the silent period and includes both feature films and documentaries underscored by archival and contemporary film stills She traces the initial erotic projection moving through melodrama to the conventions of the Western into the 1960s focus on decolonization superseded by allegorical renditions and the promise of self expression in late twentieth century documentaries Each section includes an introduction to the sociohistorical events of the period and their impact on film production Analyzed chronologically the films evidence different stages in the projection of the hegemonic Argentine imaginary which fails to envision the daily life of Indigenous peoples prior to conquest or in colonial times and remains in denial of their existence in Cultural Amnesia Clive James, 2007 Containing more than 100 original essays organized by quotations the present James illuminates rescues or occasionally destroys the careers of many of the greatest thinkers humanists musicians artists and philosophers of the 20th century 110 photographs Sites of Disquiet Ilka Kressner,2013-08-15 Some of the most important writers of the twentieth century including Borges Cort zar Rulfo and Garc a M rquez have explored ambiguous sites of a disquieting nature Their characters face merging perspectives deferral darkness or emptiness Such a space is neither a site of projection as utopia or dystopia nor a neutral setting as the topos For the characters it is real and active at once elusive and transforming Despite the challenges of visualizing such slippery spaces filmic experimentations in Spanish American cinema since the 1960s have sought to adapt these texts to the screen Ilka Kressner's Sites of Disquiet examines these representations of alternative dimensions in Spanish American short narratives and their transformations to the cinematic screen The study is informed by contemporary critical approaches to spatiality especially the concepts of atopos non space spaces of mobility sites of diff rance of a self effacing presence and sonic spaces Kressner's comparative study of textual and cinematic constructions of non spaces highlights the potential and limits of inter arts adaptation Film not only portrays the sites in ways that are intrinsic to the medium but during the cinematic translation it further develops the textual presentations of space Text and film illuminate each other in their renderings of echoes gaps absences and radical openness. The shared focus of the two media on precarious spaces highlights their awareness of the physical and situational conditions in the works. Therefore it vindicates the import of space and dwelling and the often underestimated impact of surroundings on the human body and mind Despite their heterogeneity the artistic elaborations of these ambivalent atopoi all share a liberating impulse they assert creative and open ended interactions with space where volatility ceases to be a negative term

DeVries, 2013-09-05 A History of Ecology and Environmentalism in Spanish American Literature undertakes a comprehensive ecocritical examination of the region's literature from the foundational texts of the nineteenth century to the most recent fiction The book begins with a consideration of the way in which Argentine Domingo Faustino Sarmiento's views of nature through the lens of the categories of civilization and barbarity from Facundo 1845 are systematically challenged and revised in the rest of the century Subsequently this book develops the argument that a vital part of the cultural critique and aesthetic innovations of Spanish American modernismo involve an ecological challenge to deepening discourses of untamed development from Europe and the United States In other chapters many of the well established titles of regional and indigenista literature are contrasted to counter traditions within those genres that express aspects of environmental justice deep ecology the relational role of emotion in nature protectionism and conservationism even the rights of non human nature Finally the concluding chapters find that the articulation of ecological advocacy in recent fiction is both more explicit than what came before but also impacts the formal elements of literature in unique ways Textual conventions such as language imagery focalization narrative sequence metafiction satire and parody represent innovations of form that proceed directly from the ethical advocacy of environmentalism The book concludes with comments about what must follow as a result of the analysis including the revision of canon the development of literary criticism from novel approaches such as critical animal studies and the advent of a critical dialogue within the bounds of Spanish American environmentalist literature A History of Ecology and Environmentalism in Spanish American Literature attempts to develop a sense of the way in which ecological ideas have developed over time in the literature particularly the way in which many Spanish American texts anticipate several of the ecological discourses that have recently become so central to global culture current environmentalist thought and the future of humankind
