Take Out Hunger Two Case Studies Of Rural Development In Basutoland:

Take Out Hunger S. Wallman, 2021-01-07 Development schemes are common throughout the third world Many fail but the reasons for failure or success are only too often not adequately studied In this monograph two schemes started in Basutoland now Lesotho are intensively analysed and compared the first which was abandoned in 1961 primarily by means of documentary material the second which was and still is successful in at least part of the area mainly through observation and field research The analysis reveals the factors making for success or failure particularly in the fields of politics economics and communication The relevance of the study extends beyond Lesotho and even Africa the analysis dealing with problems common to introduced social change and development in any part of the world Lesotho John E. Bardill, 2019-03-04 In this book the authors outline the features that make Lesotho unique tracing its history and discussing the peculiar structure of Lesotho's labor reserve economy and the effects it has on development politics society and culture The Roots of Rural Poverty in Central and Southern Africa Robin H. Palmer, Neil Parsons, 1977-01-01 Historical Dictionary of Lesotho John Aerni-Flessner, Charles Fogelman, Nthabiseng Mokoena-Mokhali, 2023-11-30 Lesotho's history has long been defined by its enclave status within South Africa but it is a hard fought and hard won status that helps unite Basotho through the shared history of struggle against colonial rule in the region Since the end of apartheid in 1994 Lesotho's status as a separate entity has been called into question though the fierce national pride built through centuries of resistance to outside rule has mitigated against any serious discussions of incorporating Lesotho into South Africa Still the political instability and lack of a flourishing domestic economy have made life difficult for the majority of Basotho and could call into question the viability and legitimacy of the state in the eyes of its citizens if it cannot enact significant reforms in the coming decades Historical Dictionary of Lesotho Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lesotho Anti-Politics Machine James Ferguson, 1994-02-01 Development it is generally assumed is good and necessary and in its name the West has intervened implementing all manner of projects in the impoverished regions of the world When these projects fail as they do with astonishing regularity they nonetheless produce a host of regular and unacknowledged effects including the expansion of bureaucratic state power and the translation of the political realities of poverty and powerlessness into technical problems awaiting solution by development agencies and experts It is the political intelligibility of these effects along with the process that produces them that this book seeks to illuminate through a detailed case study of the workings of the development industry in one country Lesotho and in one development project Using an anthropological approach grounded in the work of Foucault James Ferguson analyzes the institutional framework within which such projects are crafted and the nature of development discourse revealing how it is that despite all the expertise that goes into formulating development projects they nonetheless often demonstrate a startling ignorance of the historical and political realities of the locale they are intended to help In a close examination of the attempted implementation of the Thaba Tseka project in Lesotho Ferguson shows how such a misguided approach plays out how in fact the development apparatus in Lesotho acts as an anti politics machine everywhere whisking political realities out of sight and all the while performing almost unnoticed its own pre eminently political operation of strengthening the state presence in the local region James Ferguson is an associate professor of anthropology at the University of California at Irvine

Transforming Southern African Agriculture Ann Willcox Seidman,1992 Perceptions of Development Sandra Wallman,1977-10-06 Collection of case studies dealing with the Motivation to maintain quality of life through the de emphasis of economic development covers the sociological aspects and psychological aspects of the retention of traditional culture and life style in face of economic growth and modernization References and statistical tables Migration and Development Gabriele Winai-Ström,1986 Focuses on the period from 1970 to 1980 The Anti-Politics Machine James Ferguson,1990-06-14 Attributes Canadian withdrawal from the Thaba Tseka rural development project largely to problems accompanying the expansion of state power etatization Includes an introductory literature survey on development planning and evaluation in general Choice and Change John Davis,2021-01-07 This volume in honour of Professor Mair reflects the range of her interests and those of the Department in which she taught in many areas of social anthropology for it reports on research in Africa Asia and the Mediterranean on the tensions between tradition and modernity between the individual and society deviance and conformity stability and conflict The ambiguities of social change and the choices thus presented to individuals are examined in all the essays and issues of modern politics and development dominate most of them
