

The background image is a landscape photograph. It shows a winding asphalt road that curves from the lower right towards the upper right. The road is flanked by dry, golden-brown grass and shrubs. In the distance, there are rolling hills or mountains under a sky with soft, orange and yellow light, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall tone is warm and inspirational.

curiosity and alienation from her peers and abuse from misfit children who torture her because it makes them feel better about themselves As a result Prudy isolates herself from everyone and refuses to let anybody get close to her After having been the subject of unspeakable violence as a teenager she is forced to evaluate her life Through the help of her high school English teacher and an incredible therapist she finally learns to trust and let people penetrate the walls she has put up around herself But after a heartbreaking sudden and shocking loss she puts the fortifications back up and entrenches herself inside them It isn't until she meets Tom who refuses to be daunted by her defensiveness toward him that she is finally able to let someone in again The rest of the story is about her life as an adult the trials and triumphs that are unique to her It is a beautiful and tender account of one woman's journey through self discovery continued reevaluation and the reinvention of herself

Blame it On the Moon Livia Quinn, 2015-07-15 It's the height of the Para moon and Sheriff Jack Lang is up to his six in alligators Who is he kidding Alligators he could handle but supernatural bad guys Ragtag doesn't begin to describe his band of temporary heroes who show up at dawn to fight. If he has to go to war with this group, he has no doubt the battle to save the town, his daughter, his girlfriend, and the Paramortals ends before it begins. With his girlfriend Storm Witch Tempe Pomeroy and the other Paramortals ill or incapacitated, the sudden appearance of unidentified beings bent on destruction rocks his former ideal of this quaint town even further. At the height of the Para moon, Jack must keep the town of Destiny out of the hands of their enemies and ensure that the humans remain in the dark. It's only twenty-four hours. If worse comes to worse, he has a dragon on his side and a few surprises up his sleeve. But in Destiny, things ever go as planned. The Destiny Paramortals is a quirky paranormal romance mystery series in a world of dragons, storm witches, tempestaeries, shifters, vampires, and fae protecting mankind while searching for their fated mates in the paramortal urban fantasy world. The books are NOT standalones; the series is about the growth of the recurring characters through the series. Fans of the Destiny Paramortals say, "This is my new favorite series. Oh my God, I loved this book. Run, don't walk, to the buy button. Tempest is one of the best paranormal heroines I've ever read. Loving this series. This was a great book. I didn't want it to end." Markovitch, 2020-05-17. The Book of Love is a twisted fairytale about a young girl growing up in America searching for the truth in a world of falsehoods only to discover her real identity. The Broken Wings Kahlil Gibran, 2021-11-15. The Broken Wings Kahlil Gibran. A novel written by Kahlil Gibran and first published in Arabic in 1912. It is a tale of tragic love set in turn of the century Beirut. A young woman, Selma Karamy, is betrothed to a prominent religious man's nephew. The protagonist, a young man, falls in love with this woman. They begin to meet in secret, however, they are discovered, and Selma is forbidden to leave her house, breaking their hopes and hearts. The book highlights many of the social issues of the time in the Eastern Mediterranean, including religious corruption, the rights of women, and lack thereof, and the weighing up of wealth and happiness. Story Katie Egan Cunningham, 2015. Stories surround us, support us, and sustain us. We see and hear them when walking down the street, on our digital newsfeeds, in our interactions with one another, in the ways our students play, and in literature, poetry, music, images, multimedia, and dramatic works. While acknowledging the importance of teaching students strategies to read different kinds of text, to write across genres, and to speak and listen with purpose, Katie Egan Cunningham reminds us that when we bridge strategy with the power of story, we deepen literacy learning and foster authentic engagement. Story Still: The Heart of Literacy Learning compels us to ask crucial questions: Why do stories matter? Whose stories count? Where do stories live? How do stories come alive? How do we build stories? How do we talk about stories? And why does this work take courage? Katie shares her story as a classroom teacher, literacy specialist, staff developer, and professor. She shows teachers how to create classrooms of caring and inquisitive readers, writers, and storytellers. Katie explains specific ways to build a classroom library that reflects our diverse society through rich purposeful and varied texts She also provides numerous examples of multigenre and multimodal stories from children s and young adult literature poetry songs and multimedia The practical toolkit at the end of each chapter demonstrates how to make stories come alive in any classroom
