Taking Part A Twentieth Century Life:

A Twentieth-Century Life Frances Donaldson, 2011-09-28 First published in 1992 this is the story of Frances Donaldson and a wonderfully multi faceted life As the daughter of the playwright Frederick Lonsdale she grew up in the frivolous world of 1920s cafe society yet she became a committed socialist As the wife of Lord Donaldson who was on the board of both London opera houses and was subsequently Minister for the Arts she was at the centre of cultural life in Britain Yet for many years she had been a farmer since during the Second World War alone and with no experience she was determined to make a go of it Her first two books both highly successful were about farming they were followed by a portrait of Evelyn Waugh a biography of her father and biographies of Edward VIII and P O Wodehouse whom she knew as a child Populated by characters as diverse as Waugh and Frederick Ashton Tony Crosland and Ann Fleming this delightful highly personal memoir reflects the dramatically changing times which have shaped Frances Donaldson's fascinating life A Twentieth Century Burmese Matriarch Kin Thida Oung, 2007 A Critical Introduction to Twentieth-Century American Drama: Volume 1, 1900-1940 C. Baltic Hospitality from the Middle Ages to the Twentieth Century Sari Nauman, Wojtek Jezierski, Christina Reimann, Leif Runefelt, 2022-08-15 Reflecting debate around hospitality and the Baltic Sea region this open access book taps into wider discussions about reception securitization and xenophobic attitudes towards migrants and strangers Focusing on coastal and urban areas the collection presents an overview of the responses of host communities to guests and strangers in the countries surrounding the Baltic Sea from the early eleventh century to the twentieth The chapters investigate why and how diverse categories of strangers including migrants war refugees prisoners of war merchants missionaries and vagrants were portrayed as threats to local populations or as objects of their charity shedding light on the current predicament facing many European countries Emphasizing the Baltic Sea region as a uniquely multi layered space of intercultural encounter and conflict this book demonstrates the significance of Northeastern Europe to migration history The Century of Columbus James Joseph Walsh, 1914 Anthropology's Interrogation of Philosophy from the Eighteenth to the Twentieth Century Jerome Fanning Marsden Carroll, 2017-12-06 Anthropology s Interrogation of Philosophy from the Eighteenth to the Twentieth Century presents and discusses key aspects of the German tradition of philosophical anthropology from the eighteenth to the twentieth century centering on the concept of anthropology as a study of the whole concrete man Heinrich Weber 1810 Philosophical anthropology appears during the last decades of the eighteenth century in the often practically oriented writings of men such as Ernst Platner Karl Wezel and Johann Herder and is then taken up in the twentieth century by thinkers including Max Scheler Helmut Plessner Arnold Gehlen and Hans Blumenberg In presenting this tradition the book serves two primary purposes Firstly it introduces English readers in a coherent manner to key aspects of a two hundred year tradition in German thought Secondly the book analyzes in an unprecedented manner even in German scholarship the connections between the philosophical debates associated with anthropology at the end of the eighteenth century and ongoing philosophical issues in the twentieth century Specifically author Jerome Carroll argues that late eighteenth century anthropology diverges pointedly from traditional foundational approaches to philosophy for instance rejecting philosophy s quest for absolute foundations for knowledge or a priori categories and turning to a more descriptive account of man's being in the world Notably by drawing on the epistemological ontological and methodological aspects and implications of anthropological holism this book reads the philosophical significance of classical twentieth century anthropology through the lens of eighteenth century writings on anthropology Twentieth-Century Western Philosophy of Religion 1900–2000 Eugene Thomas Long, 2012-12-06 In the fall of 1994 Hendrik Jan van Leusen an acquisitions editor from Kluwer Academic Publishers visited me in my home to discuss a proposal for a handbook in the philosophy of religion He reported that he had been talking about this with philosophers of religion at several universities and that the response to the idea had been quite favorable I suggested that given the different approaches to the philosophy of religion it might be good for him to meet with philosophers representing different philosophical traditions at an up coming meeting of the Eastern Division of the American Philosophical Association Jude Dougherty Joseph Kockelmans Robert Neville William Rowe and Merold Westphal kindly agreed to attend that meeting They made many substantial and helpful suggestions and a summary of the discussions was sent to van Leusen Some months later he wrote to inquire whether I might consider editing the series and writing the first volume which was to provide a historical map of twentieth century western philosophy of religion Although I could imagine myself editing the series I was initially reluctant to under take the task of writing a volume that would take me across the lines of many different philosophical traditions By coincidence I had been asked some months earlier to contribute an essay on the philosophy of religion for a conference being held at the Catholic University of America on the general topic One Hundred Years of Philosophy Twentieth Century Romania Kurt Treptow, 2023-11-21 The studies included in this volume reflect on the history and culture of Romania during the twentieth century a critical century for the country that saw such realizations as the achievement of national unity as well as the horrors of two world wars and the installation of a brutal communist dictatorship ending in the overthrow of the totalitarian regime and the hopes for a freer and more prosperous future These papers written in English and Romanian were presented at the Eighth International Conference of the Center for Romanian Studies held in Iasi Romania on 24 25 June 2002 on the theme Twentieth Century Romania A Retrospective Studies include Dumitru Sandru Arestarile Operate n 1945 n Rom nia Dupa Instaurarea Guvernului Petru Groza Matthew H Ciscel Cei de la
