Taking Care Supporting Older People And Their Families:

Supporting Family Carers of Older People in Europe - The National Background Report for Malta Joseph Troisi, Marvin Formosa, 2005 Malta has an extensive formal care provision In the field of ageing there is a wide range of services available for the elderly and for their carers aimed at improving the quality of life of the elderly while maintaining them in their own homes community and environment However the majority of care for the elderly is still provided by the family members This publication is the first nation wide report concerning the state of family members taking care of older relatives in the Maltese Islands It investigates the socio economic conditions of these carers while analysing their changing role and status their needs and problems resulting from the various changes which Maltese society and family are passing through

Supporting Family Carers of Older People in Europe Iva Holmerová, 2007 The following publication offers an outline of a situation of family caregivers just before the significant changes brought about by the new legislation on social services will have occurred That the timing is right since the publication proves that the situation of family caregivers must be substantially changed and improved If there are any doubts regarding necessity of the new law on social services this publication will belong to the ones that will help to overcome such presumptions

Supporting Family Carers of Older People in Europe Simona Hvalic Touzery, 2007 This report provides a comprehensive overview of the current state of care services for older people in Slovenia with emphasis on family care There are numerous services intended for old people in the country some more others less accessible and developed yet almost no support is given to family carers who still provide the bulk of care to elderly Recent socio political developments in the country give hope that the situation and the position of family carers will improve to better

Supporting Family Carers of Older People in Europe Piotr Bledowski, Wojciech Pedich, Barbara Bien, 2006-06 There is no extensive formal care provision or system supporting family carers in Poland The cohabiting family plays a major role in organizing support for the elderly Nevertheless the family carers are not perceived as natural partners for both medical and social services As a result caring for the elderly often brings additional costs for the family and restrictions to work and income This book presents the legal status and social situation of family carers in Poland explains the range of services available and the possibilities to use help adapted specially for this group

Supporting Older Persons on Their Aging Journey Idevania Costa, Kristen Jones-Bonofiglio, 2024-08-12 Supporting Older Persons on Their Aging Journey provides an emancipatory holistic patient centred and decolonizing approach to nursing practice for older persons and caregivers focusing on their unique needs and experiences Providing a general overview of aging and well being this text identifies trends in present nursing practice discusses the future of an aging population and seeks to create opportunities for individuals to live well with chronic conditions With a focus on collaboration and context as the keys to providing quality care that promotes health well being and safety the chapters discuss prevention strategies for successfully navigating life transitions The authors encourage learners to creatively and collaboratively consider opportunities to support older people their families and caregivers so they may thrive flourish maintain their dignity and fully define their own quality of life as they navigate the challenges of aging and illness This vital text is essential for nursing programs in universities and colleges within Canada intended for courses on older persons aging or gerontological nursing Aging and the Family Patricia Neff Claster, Sampson Lee Blair, 2021-02-25 This collection makes a crucial contribution by collating research on aging and the family from an international perspective Providing this wide scope of quality research the volume equips readers to better assess how aging and its related issues are affecting families from multiple backgrounds International Perspectives on State and Family Support for the Elderly Scott Bass, Jill Norton, Robert Morris Deceased, 2013-12-02 Within the context of long range planning this book examines the changing responsibilities of the state and family toward elders in different societies around the world International Perspectives on State and Family Support for the Elderly presents a fresh range of lucid analyses of family caregiving policy from Canada the United States Sweden the United Kingdom Hong Kong Austria Denmark Israel and the People s Republic of China Different institutional structures levels of economic development and cultural values among other factors impact policy development in various countries With the information examined in this book readers can gain an understanding of elder care in other societies which can help them in developing policies for their own countries Authors of International Perspectives on State and Family Support for the Elderly address questions such as Who is responsible for caring for the aged What are the policy issues that determine how such care is handled in various countries Are the underlying principles upon which policy is based changing Who pays for the care of the aged What is the balance of the roles of government family and community Along with these questions authors discuss the importance of family care the well being payment and rights of informal caregivers providing services for informal caregivers shifting the burden of care from formal organizations to families the effects of governmental frameworks on caregiving the impact of the political agenda on caregiving caregiving and the welfare state International Perspectives on State and Family Support for the Elderly contains information for all professionals interested or involved in developing policy for the elderly Demographers sociologists social workers health care and public health professionals gerontologists and advanced students in these fields will find this book a helpful guide in their studies Family Care of Older People in Europe Ian Philp, 2001 Developing appropriate responses to an ageing population is recognized by policy makers throughout the developed world as a top priority as is the vital contribution made by family caregivers However cultural demographic and organizational differences between countries have encouraged diverse patterns of response to this common challenge This book provides a systematic cross cultural analysis of contemporary patterns and future trends in all major countries of the European Union Additional interest is provided by including Poland emerging from the post Communist block as the country at the forefront for joining the European Union The book should be useful to European policy makers and academics involved in studying the health and social care needs of older people and the capacity contribution and needs of family caregivers who provide care to older people The book is also relevant for policy makers and researchers in other countries mostly in North America and Australia who wish to study European approaches to supporting older people and family caregivers Taking Care Nancy R.
