journey and migration as well as social and cultural stereotypes and prejudice in transforming contexts Three papers in the last Part 4 of the book Linguistic Concepts Meanings and Interaction focus on the semantic interpretation of the changes and differences which occur in their intra as well as inter linguistic contexts Inheritance and Originality : Wittgenstein, Heidegger, Kierkegaard Stephen Mulhall, 2001-06-14 What might it mean to think of philosophy as being in the condition of modernism in which its relation to its own past and hence its sense of its own future has become an undismissible problem If philosophy's hitherto defining conventions can neither be taken for granted nor rejected they must be put in question which means re-evaluating the relation between the form and content of philosophical writing rethinking the demands that such writing must place on its readers and reconceiving the nature of philosophy itself Inheritance and Originality argues that the writings of Wittgenstein Heidegger and Kierkegaard are best understood as responsive each in their own way to such questions and as driven in consequence to strikingly similar reconceptions of language reason and understanding doubt and scepticism morality and the structure of selfhood Through detailed re-readings of these authors' most influential texts as attentive to their specificity as to their family resemblances Stephen Mulhall reorients our sense of the philosophical work each text aims to accomplish to engender a critical dialogue between them from which the elements of a new conception of philosophy might emerge and to uncover that conception's indebtedness to certain fundamental theological preoccupations

Journeys in the Night Theodore Mann, 2007-09 Through the decades Theodore Mann has kept Circle in the Square alive by leaping from the precipice of one hit to another taking on every task from stoking a dilapidated furnace to directing Tony Award winning productions In the process Mann has helped restore the reputation of one of our greatest playwrights Eugene O'Neill first with a landmark revival of The Iceman Cometh and then with the American premiere of Long Day's Journey Into Night Mann's own long journey has been inextricably linked with O'Neill and he presents here some extremely significant previously unreported aspects of the O'Neill

Parliament,1887 The Mark Lane Express, Agricultural Journal &c ,1921 The Subversive Activities Prevention Law of Japan Cecil H. Uyehara,2009-12-16 The Subversive Activities Prevention Law SAPL was the last major controversial law to be drafted at the end of the Allied Occupation of Japan 1945 1952 which was managed and controlled by General Headquarters GHQ under U S General MacArthur and was enacted into law after Japan had regained its formal independence in 1952 Soon after the Occupation began prewar Japanese internal security laws were ordered abolished by the Occupation Now that Japan would be re gaining its independence in 1952 there was urgency to creating a new integrated national internal security law to fill the vacuum created by the Occupation 1945 1952 The Subversive Activities Prevention Law was to be the centerpiece for maintaining internal security in the new independent Japan It turned out to be an extremely controversial law that was vociferously opposed by the political opposition in and out of the Diet in light of the prewar history surrounding how such internal security laws were implemented by the state security apparatus The demonstrations in 1951 52 against the proposed law organized by the labor unions were the largest loudest and most determined since the end of the war This publication is the first analysis in English on how this law was drafted and debated
