United States Army in WWII - Europe - the Siegfried Line Campaign Charles B. MacDonald,2014-08-15 Includes 19 maps and 82 illustrations Some who have written of World War II in Europe have dismissed the period between 11 Sept and 16 Dec 1944 with a paragraph or two This has been their way of gaining space to tell of the whirlwind advances and more spectacular command decisions of other months The fighting during Sept Oct Nov and early Dec belonged to the small units and individual soldiers the kind of warfare which is no less difficult and essential no matter how seldom it reaches the spectacular It is always an enriching experience to write about the American soldier in adversity no less than in glittering triumph Glitter and dash were conspicuously absent in most of the Siegfried Line fighting But whatever the period may lack in sweeping accomplishment it makes up in human drama and variety of combat actions Here is more than fighting within a fortified line Here is the H rtgen Forest the Roer plain Aachen and the largest airborne attack of the war The period also eventually may be regarded as one of the most instructive of the entire war in Europe A company battalion or regiment fighting alone and often unaided was more the rule than the exception In nuclear war or in so called limited war in underdeveloped areas of which we hear so much today this may well be the form the fighting will assume As befits the nature of the fighting this volume is focused upon tactical operations at army level and below The story of command and decision in higher headquarters is told only when it had direct bearing on the conduct of operations in those sectors under consideration The logistics of the campaign likewise has been subordinated to the tactical narrative It is a ground story in the sense that air operations have been included only where they had direct influence upon the ground action

A Winter amid the Ice Jules Verne,2018-01-18 Reproduction of the original The 5 Biggest Civil War Battles

Charles River Editors,2025-05-02 Of all the Civil War battles fought and of all the victories achieved by Robert E Lee at the command of the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia the Battle of Chancellorsville is considered the most tactically complex and ultimately the most brilliant Confederate victory of the war In early May 1863 the Army of the Potomac was at the height of its power as it bore down on Robert E Lee's Army of Northern Virginia near Fredericksburg where the Confederates had defeated them the previous December. The Union behemoth had spent most of the winter season being reorganized and drilled by Fighting Joe Hooker, an aggressive commander who had fought hard at places like Antietam. With an army nearing 130,000 men, Hooker's Army of the Potomac was twice the size of the Army of Northern Virginia. With that advantage, Hooker proposed a daring and aggressive two-pronged attack that aimed to keep Lee's army occupied in front of Fredericksburg while marching around its left. Meanwhile, a cavalry raid well in the rear was intended to cut Lee's lines of supplies and possibly retreat. Hooker's plan initially worked perfectly with the division of his army surprising Lee. At the end of May 1, Lee was outnumbered 2:1 and now had to worry about threats on two fronts. Incredibly, Lee once again decided to divide his forces in the face of the enemy, sending Stonewall Jackson to turn the Union army's right flank while the rest of the army maintained positions near Fredericksburg. The Battle of Chancellorsville is one of the most famous of the Civil War and the most famous part of the battle was Stonewall Jackson's daring march across the Army of the Potomac's flank, surprising the XI Corps with an attack on May 2, 1863. Having ignored warnings of Jackson's march, the XI Corps was quickly routed. The surprise was a costly success, however, as Jackson was mortally wounded after being mistakenly fired upon by his own men. The names of history's most famous battles still ring in our ears today; their influence immediately understood by all. Marathon lent its name to the world's most famous race but it also preserved Western civilization during the First Persian War. Saratoga won by one of the colonists' most renowned war heroes before he became his nation's most vile traitor. Hastings ensured the Normans' success in England and changed the course of British history. Waterloo, which marked the reshaping of the European continent and Napoleon's doom, has now become part of the English lexicon. In Charles River Editors' Greatest Battles in History series, readers can get caught up to speed on history's greatest battles in the time it takes to finish a commute while learning interesting facts long forgotten or never known. Without question, the most famous battle of the American Civil War took place outside of the small town of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, which happened to be a transportation hub serving as the center of a wheel with several roads leading out to other Pennsylvanian towns. From July 1-3, Robert E. Lee's Confederate Army of Northern Virginia tried everything in its power to decisively defeat George Meade's Union Army of the Potomac, unleashing ferocious assaults that inflicted nearly 50,000 casualties in all. Day 1 of the battle would have been one of the 25 biggest battles of the Civil War itself and it ended with a tactical Confederate victory. But over the next two days, Lee would try and fail to dislodge the Union army with attacks on both of its flanks during the second day and Pickett's Charge on the third and final day. Meade's stout defense held barely repulsing each attempted assault, handing the Union a desperately needed victory that ended up being one of the Civil War's turning points.

The History of the Civil War Charles River Editors, 2025-05-02. Americans have long been fascinated by the Civil War, marveling at the size of the battles, the leadership of the generals, and the courage of the soldiers. Since the war's start over 150 years ago, the battles have been subjected to endless debate among historians and the generals themselves The Civil War was the deadliest conflict in American history and had the two sides realized it would take 4 years and inflict over a million casualties it might not have been fought Since it did however historians and history buffs alike have been studying and analyzing the biggest battles ever since The secession of the South was one of the seminal events in American history but it also remains one of the most controversial The election of Abraham Lincoln was the impetus for secession but that was merely one of many events that led up to the formation of the Confederacy and the start of the Civil War On December 20 a little more than a month after Lincoln had been elected the 16th president a convention met in Charleston and passed the first ordinance of secession by one of the United States declaring We the people of the State of South Carolina in convention assembled do declare and ordain that the Union now subsisting between South Carolina and other States under the name of the United States of America is hereby dissolved In January 1861 Mississippi Florida Alabama Georgia Louisiana and Kansas followed South Carolina s lead and the Confederate States of America was formed on February 4 in Montgomery Alabama with former Secretary of War Jefferson Davis inaugurated as its President A few weeks later Texas joined The Confederacy s hope of being let go in peace ended at 4 30 a m on the morning of April 12 1861 when Confederate Brigadier General P G T Beauregard ordered the first shots to be fired at the federal garrison defending Fort Sumter in the Charleston Harbor effectively igniting the Civil War For nearly 36 hours Beauregard s Confederates unleashed a general bombardment from 43 guns and mortars positioned at various points across the Harbor Unable to effectively reply or defend themselves Major Robert Anderson raised the white flag early in the afternoon of April 13 bringing the first battle of the Civil War to a close No casualties were suffered on either side during the dueling bombardments across Charleston Harbor but ironically two U S Army soldiers were killed by an accidental explosion during the surrender ceremonies After Fort Sumter the Lincoln Administration pushed for a quick invasion of Virginia with the intent of defeating Confederate forces and marching toward the Confederate capitol of Richmond Lincoln pressed Irvin McDowell to push forward Despite the fact that McDowell knew his troops were inexperienced and unready pressure from the Washington politicians forced him to launch a premature offensive against Confederate forces in Northern Virginia
