Moonlit Tales of the Macabre: volume two Various authors, 2024-04-21 We all of us are hard wired to fear the unknown and what is more unknown than death or rather what happens after death While each of the world s philosophies has its own interpretation of the subject there is really no telling for certain In the six stories that follow the authors not only consider death as such but also whether there are things worse than death This collection includes the following works The Wooden Guest or a Tale About a Doll That Came to Life and Monsieur Nodder by Vladimir Odoyevsky The Sinner from Toledo by Anton Chekhov The Eve of Ivan Kupala by Nikolai Gogol The Silver Wolf by Alexander Kuprin The Chickadee by Alexei Tolstoy An Incident at the Apartment of Madam Cerize by Alexander Grin

True Tales of a Traveller Volume Two Alix Lee, This book Volume Two of the True Tales of a Traveller series consists of three travel stories two substantial novella length stories separated by a story of short story length These stories can read separately but the best way to read them is to start with the first That principle applies to the whole series and also to this volume It isn t necessary however to read all the stories of Volume One to enjoy those related in Volume Two The book begins in late 1984 with the sixth tale in the series overall Culture Shock This story finds the young traveller myself taken from the relative orderliness of a life in London where he had been attempting with mixed results to pursue a career in travel related in the fifth story of the series A Career in Travel and throws him into the furious assault on the senses that constituted life in the Indian capital Delhi at that time The second story of this volume Just A Businessman is set in Indian administered Kashmir At nearly 17 000 words this account constitutes a lengthy short story which may need more than one sitting to read In addition to being a travel story Just A Businessman is also a story about religious and ethnic conflict and political upheavals and the extents to which these can affect the life of a traveller or an outsider Overlanding Part One is the third story in this volume and at over 46 000 words the longest story of the series so far for one of the shortest periods of actual travel Of all my travels in the 1980s in terms of time spent undoubtedly no journey made such a deep and lasting impression on me as this overland trip from Karachi to Rotterdam Not only did it unceremoniously blow away many of my own preconceived notions of life in Pakistan and Iran it was also a harsh lesson for me as a traveller in the virtues of being prepared for any journey into terra incognita Additionally the first part of the journey from Karachi to the Turkish border with Iran was relatively dangerous not due to involving difficult terrain but rather to man made hazards But overall the journey turned out to be something I originally had never suspected for a moment it would be an intensive course in the follies of racial prejudice and ethnic chauvinism Like all the other stories in the series these three stories provide not only entertaining reads but also information on all the places visited some relevant only to the era in which the story is set but most still relevant at the time of this book s publication Told by Uncle Remus: New Stories of the Old Plantation Joel Chandler Harris, 2023-11-02 In Told by Uncle Remus New Stories of the Old Plantation Joel Chandler Harris presents a collection of captivating folktales that spring from the rich oral traditions of African American culture Using the frame narrative of Uncle Remus a fictional wise old African American man Harris weaves together tales steeped in humor and moral lessons featuring anthropomorphic animal characters such as Br er Rabbit and Br er Fox The literary style blends dialect and vernacular speech bringing authenticity and vibrancy to the storytelling while preserving the cultural heritage of the Southern plantation experience This collection serves as both an artistic representation of folklore and a social commentary on the complexities of race and identity in post Civil War America Joel Chandler Harris born into a poor family in Georgia in 1848 developed a keen interest in folk narratives and African American culture during his youth His work as a journalist and his interactions with former slaves provided him a unique lens through which he could appreciate and document the oral traditions of the South Told by Uncle Remus reflects Harris s commitment to capturing the voice of the marginalized and serves as a testament to the storytelling prowess of African American communities This engaging collection appeals to readers interested in folklore Southern culture and the intersections of race and literature Harris s foundational work not only entertains but invites reflection on the socio political landscape of its time making it a valuable addition to the canon of American literature Confessions of a young man:
