In our world of popular reality writings and television series let me introduce to you a reality in my life my creative series of children s books written from my heart based on my interesting life with animals on our almost heaven farm in rural Rogers Ohio I share this innovative series called Log Cabin Stories of over forty five years of research compiled from the animals that have come into my life My dear father didn t permit many pets during my growing up years As I left the nest and married my husband shared my love for animals and many have come into our lives We share the blessing of owning a 70 acre farm in Northeast Ohio and have built our log cabin home in this picturesque setting I would like to share my journey with those who have missed the privilege of caring for pets learning about them and with them feeling their love and loyalty learning each of their personalities likes and dislikes I hope you enjoy reading about this expedition that has been truly fulfilling and has made for a wonderful life This Book 4 of Log Cabin Stories is Bill the Bull Bill was a 1200 pound white faced Hereford Cow that captured our hearts He had quite the personality and loved the lady cows He fell in love and they had a baby while on the farm Book 5 of the Log Cabin Series is Baby the Goat My series includes over 40 nonfiction educational fun and enlightening stories Taytay's Tales Elizabeth Willis Dehuff,2017-11-25 Excerpt from Taytay s Tales Collected and Retold As is always true with stories that are passed on orally from one generation to another these folk tales must have been somewhat changed in the relating but judging from the accuracy of detail insisted upon when they were told to me I believe that the change has been very slight To what extent if any they have been influenced by the folk lore of other countries and races or the Indian tales have influenced those of other races I do not know There is a marked similarity between Little Red Riding Hood and Juanita Marianita the Cat and the Bear and also between Uncle Remus s Tar Baby and The Gum Baby but the Indian relatives insist that these two tales were told to them by their grandfathers and they were already then very old when my grandfather heard them It is interesting to compare the stories of the different pueblos where the Indians have intermarried among themselves for so many generations that each pueblo is a distinct world unto itself In Sehat chen a book of myths collected from the Laguna Pueblo by John M Gunn the story The Coyote and the Horned Toad is almost identical with The Fox and the Lizard which was also gotten from the Laguna Pueblo but told by a different narrator About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the
