Le Guin,2002-05

Prose Kathleen Kuiper Manager, Arts and Culture,2011-08-15 Presents entries on history theory and literary terms associated within such literary categories as the novel short story satire romance biography science fiction and literary criticism      In the Mirror of the Past Tomasz Ratajczak,Bogdan Trocha,2014-09-26 These days we are ever more often confronted by overwhelming events Searching for a way to understand them we turn to mythic archetypes still present in our culture The authors of these essays pose questions about the reliability of the archetypes found in tradition history and scattered mythologemes The essays in this collection deal with the presence of mythic time in modern speculative fiction such as fantasy and alternate histories and discuss major mythologemes and their functions in popular literature and extra literary reality The authors show how mythopoeic fiction becomes a genetically modified mythic mirror in which we hope to see answers to vexing questions or just a reality superior to the ordinary one In the Mirror of the Past Of Fantasy and History is a collection of seven essays by American and Polish authors including Brian Attebery Terri Doughty and Marek Oziewicz with Mircea Eliade's concept of return from history to History as their underlying theme      Fantastic Spiritualities J'annine Jobling,2010-07-01 In this work Jobling argues that religious sensibility in the Western world is in a process of transformation but that we see here change not decline and that the production and consumption of the fantastic in popular culture offers an illuminating window onto spiritual trends and conditions She examines four major examples of the fantastic genre the Harry Potter series Rowling His Dark Materials Pullman Buffy the Vampire Slayer Whedon and the Earthsea cycle Le Guin demonstrating that the spiritual universes of these four iconic examples of the fantastic are actually marked by profoundly modernistic assumptions raising the question of just how contemporary spiritualities often deemed postmodern navigate philosophically the waters of truth morality authority selfhood and the divine Jobling tackles what she sees as a misplaced disregard for the significance of the fantasy genre as a worthy object for academic investigation by offering a full length thematic comparative and cross disciplinary study of the four case studies proposed chosen because of their significance to the field and because these books have all been posited as exemplars of a postmodern religious sensibility This work shows how attentiveness to spiritual themes in cultural icons can offer the student of theology and religions insight into the framing of the moral and religious imagination in the late twentieth and twenty first centuries and how this can prompt traditional religions to reflect on whether their own narratives are culturally framed in a way resonating with the signs of the times
