Sickness? Accidents? Financial crisis? Family trouble?

In hard times – “Forget not!”

We all face emergencies and difficult days from time to time. Sickness, Accidents, Family trials, Financial difficulty.

As believers we know we have promises in the Word to cover every hardship we could possibly face. But when the trial comes do the promises immediately come to our lips? Or do we panic – “Oh dear Lord, what am I going to do?... “I’m going to die.” ... “I’m going to lose everything.” ... “My life is over.”

It’s better to stay silent until you remember that the Word has an answer for whatever comes. “Bless the Lord, O my soul; And all that is within me, bless His holy name! Bless the Lord, O my soul, And forget not all His benefits.” (Psalm 103)

Prepare yourself ahead of times for any trial. He said in Psalm 103, “Forget not.” Pay attention to His Word daily and bless Him with thanksgiving and showing your gratitude. That way you will stay refreshed in all His benefits. A key to overcoming what the world and the devil throw at us is to “Forget not” what He has promised in His word.

All these benefits in Psalm 103 belong to us. He forgives all our sins and iniquities. He heals all our diseases. He redeems our life from destruction. He crowns us with loving kindness and tender mercies. He satisfies our mouth with good things. So that our youth is renewed like the eagle’s.” Psalm 103:1-5

We are redeemed from anything that would destroy any aspect of our life. Regardless of what we have suffered in life, in childhood, God notices us. He crowns us. He shows us loving kindness and tender mercies.

He satisfies our mouth with good things by giving us the right words to say. We can speak out the promises in His Word. What we say determines how much good He can do in our lives. Speaking His words in faith and blessing Him with thanksgiving will bring us the victory that belongs to us.

His healing power is as far reaching as His power to forgive. He paid the price for all of it. Then why don’t I have it? We only receive these benefits by believing Him. We have to acknowledge and agree with what He has done. God is a perfect gentleman. He waits until we invite him into the situation. Faith is you agreeing – “Father I see that you have provided healing for me. I receive it.” Your faith is your invitation for Him to work in your life.

Prepare your heart and mind for any thing that may come by reminding yourself and thanking Him for His Word.

When the doctor says, you are going to die from this disease, you can say, “I thank God because He heals ALL my diseases.” When the devil tries to oppress you with guilt over past or present sins, you can say “I thank God because He forgives ALL my sins and iniquities.”

Stay connected to God by staying connected to His Word. Bless the Lord daily by thanking Him for all His benefits. That way you will remember and “forget not” in the hard times.

– Sandra Turner

Shining the light on grace

I have tried to write this article before, but never quite succeeded in saying things in a way that I thought made my point. Thus I find that I keep being directed back to the issue to try and try again to explain it to people who have closed their minds to the truth.

Religious tradition is a powerful force. There is only one thing that will overcome it and that is revelation. Revelation is when God turns on the light about a subject in your spirit and you see what you previously could not see. I hope this will help some folks to at least reach for the light switch.

Many preachers that I hear are still expressing outrage at “grace” preachers who say a born again Christian does not have to repent of their sins. They claim this is a great heresy and a doctrine from the pit of hell. But they close their minds at the first mention and have rejected the message without truly hearing what was said.

Preachers who say that these “grace” preachers are heretics must believe that they themselves are living without sin and that they can confess and repent of every sin (if they should accidentally commit one) in order to keep themselves saved and in good standing with God. They do not understand what sin is, according to the New Testament. Whatever is not of faith is sin, according to Romans 14:23.

If you have to confess and repent of every sin in order to stay saved and keep yourself out of hell, are you confessing and repenting every time you doubt the Word of God? Every time you gossip? Every time you overeat? Are you confessing and repenting every time you tell a little white lie or a big black one? Every time you know what is right to do but you fail to do it?

The true heresy here is to believe you can live a perfect, sin free life, a concept which some of us picked up in error from popular faith teachers in the 80s and 90s. The Bible says, “If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.” (1 John 1:8) Who needs a savior when we can save ourselves and keep ourselves saved?
