Twelve short stories by Arthur Conan Doyle are collected in Tales of Terror and Mystery a book that John Murray initially released in 1922. The book is split into two sections: Tales of Terror which contains horror stories and Tales of Mystery which contains tales about mysterious plots. This book includes some of Conan Doyle's masterworks that have been unfairly overlooked. Each starts out simply factual which makes the crescendo of anxiety and confusion that follows as each new situation is disclosed all the more powerful. Conan Doyle demonstrates that his stories are unmatched for thrills and excitement even without his eminently logical creation Sherlock Holmes. This anthology of tales is what persuaded me of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's extraordinary narrative talent. Compared to Tales of the Ring and The Camp or Tales of Pirates and Blue Water Arthur Conan Doyle is more secure with Tales of Terror and Mystery. Conan Doyle is most known for his mysteries but as his Sherlock Holmes tales frequently show he also had a keen taste for the macabre and gory.      Tales of Terror and Mystery Illustrated Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, 2020-10-17

Though Sir Arthur Conan Doyle is best known for his detective stories he also wrote other short stories which are masterpieces of mystery and suspense. In some of the stories in Tales of Terror and Mystery a suppressed uneasiness gradually builds up and evolves into sheer terror. In others the story line unexpectedly changes and comes to a horrific conclusion. Sit back in the comfort of your armchair and let yourself be transported to the strange but compelling world created by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.      Tales of Terror and Mystery Arthur Conan Doyle, 2010-08-05

In some of the stories in Tales of Terror and Mystery a suppressed uneasiness gradually builds up and evolves into sheer terror. In others the story line unexpectedly changes and comes to a horrific conclusion. A Review from Amazon of just one of the stories The New Catacomb 4 stars. The good feature about this story is that it gives a twist of plot at the end. It starts with 2 archeologists in Rome chatting about a catacomb discovered by one of them. In order for the latter to tell the former about the location of the catacomb he wanted to know about some private secret. In the catacomb a strange and interesting twist of plot takes place and the story ends in the best manner a writer can bring to end. Do not take me wrong I figured this twist from the second page of the story and I hope you do not so that you can enjoy the ending.      Tales of Terror and Mystery Arthur Conan Doyle, Sir, 2016-12-10
