Lived Manfred F. R. Kets de Vries,2023-12-13 Manfred Kets de Vries wears many hats psychoanalyst executive coach consultant management educator researcher writer but he has noticed that whichever hat he is wearing every question he is asked boils down to one thing How can I live a well lived life Over many years of practice in all these disciplines Professor

Kets de Vries has realized the unsurpassed value of stories in tackling human dilemmas and providing answers to this question. The book is therefore one of the most important books he has written for coaches, students, leaders, managers, educators, or anyone seeking a more reflective text to guide them through the multitude of questions that we face in work and in life. He draws on a long literary tradition of the unexpected encounter with a wise other: fantastic or magical, like the Little Prince, Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, The Once and Future King, the Harry Potter novels, to animate an exploration of the deepest questions and concerns of human beings. He constructs an extended Socratic dialogue between his two selves: the first a naive traveler lost in the Siberian wilderness and the second a reflective avatar who comes to his aid. The avatar takes the form of a kabouter, a familiar figure in Dutch folklore whose counterpart can be found in different cultures around the world and throughout centuries of storytelling. Through stories, riddles, and puzzles, the kabouter challenges the traveler to question and reflect upon his life and values, guiding him and readers toward the insights that will help them achieve a life well lived.

Before Fidel Francisco José Moreno, 2010-01-01 Before Fidel Castro seized power, Cuba was an ebullient and chaotic society in a permanent state of turmoil, combining a raucous tropical nature with the evils of arbitrary and corrupt government. Yet this fascinating period in Cuban history has been largely forgotten or misrepresented, even though it set the stage for Castro's dramatic takeover in 1959. To reclaim the Cuba that he knew and add color and detail to the historical record, distinguished political scientist Francisco José Moreno here offers his recollections of the Cuba in which he came of age personally and politically. Moreno takes us into the little-known world of privileged upper-middle-class white Cubans of the 1930s through the 1950s. His vivid depictions of life in the family and on the streets capture the distinctive rhythms of Cuban society and the dynamics between parents and children, men and women, and people of different races and classes. The heart of the book describes Moreno's political awakening, which culminated during his student years at the University of Havana. Moreno gives a detailed insider's account of the anti-Batista movement, including the Ortodoxos and the Triple A. He recaptures the idealism and naivety of the movement as well as its ultimate ineffectiveness as it fell before the juggernaut of the Castro Revolution. His own disillusionment and wrenching decision to leave Cuba rather than accept a commission in Castro's army poignantly closes the book.
