2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com The Routledge Companion to Fairy Tales Claudia Schwabe,Christa
Jones,2025-11-28 The Routledge Companion to Fairy Tales provides a comprehensive guide to fairy tales across literatures and cultures It offers an expansive overview of contemporary themes and issues throughout the intersections of the fields of fairy tale studies literary studies and cultural studies The first part considers global formations of the canon and acts to decolonize the field of fairy tale studies highlighting the diverse national histories and traditions of the fairy tale worldwide It demarcates the complex history of the field of fairy tale studies and demonstrates how the genre is rooted in different oral stories and narratives passed down in cultures around the globe throughout time The second section outlines important critical approaches including recent developments shaping fairy tale studies today such as disability studies diversity ecocriticism inclusivity and intersectionality Part three explores how fairy tales have been articulated through a wide range of forms and combinations of textual visual and sound media This section foregrounds the versatility and adaptability of the fairy tale and more specifically how it intersects with different art forms and genres including literature illustrations performing arts and media outlets Section four addresses sociocultural concerns in transnational fairy tale cultures and literatures examining the connections between fairy tales and multivocal influences in modern adaptations and postmodern reimaginings the undoing of colonization and appropriation feminism politics and activism the canon and controversies over authenticity This interdisciplinary collection draws on international perspectives from folkloristics ethnology ethnography cultural and social anthropology as well as queer and gender studies It will be an invaluable resource for students and researchers interested in fairy tales and their developments over time and across cultures The Athenaeum ,1888

Inter-imperiality Laura Doyle,2020-11-02 In Inter imperiality Laura Doyle theorizes the co emergence of empires institutions language regimes stratified economies and literary cultures over the longue dur e Weaving together feminist decolonial and dialectical theory she shows how inter imperial competition has generated a systemic stratification of gendered racialized labor while literary and other arts have helped both to constitute and to challenge this world order To study literature is therefore Doyle argues to attend to world historical processes of imaginative and material co formation as they have unfolded through successive eras of vying empires It is also to understand oral performed and written literatures as power transforming resources for the present and future To make this case Doyle analyzes imperial economic processes across centuries and continents in tandem with inter imperially entangled literatures from A Thousand and One Nights to recent Caribbean fiction Her trenchant interdisciplinary method reveals the structural centrality of imaginative literature in the politics and possibilities of earthly life Jewish Approaches to Hinduism Richard G. Marks,2021-09-16 This book explores past expressions of the Jewish interest in Hinduism in order to learn what Hinduism has meant to Jews living mainly in the 12th through the 19th centuries India and Hinduism though never at the center of Jewish thought claim a place in its history in the picture Jews held of the wider world of other religions and other human beings Each chapter focuses on a specific author or text and examines the literary context as well as the cultural context within and outside Jewish society that provided images and ideas about India and its religions Overall the volume constructs a history of ideas that changed over time with different writers in different settings It will be especially relevant to scholars interested in Jewish thought comparative religion interreligious dialogue and intellectual history Història de Jacob Xalabín / History of Yakub Çelebi ,2015-09-29 The Història de Jacob Xalabín an anonymous novel written in Catalan c 1400 focuses on the figure of the Ottoman prince Yakub elebi son of Murad I and half brother of Bayezid I It ends with the first detailed account of the battle of Kosovo of 1389 which left a lasting mark on the history of the Balkans This text mixing historical and fictional elements is one of the earliest depictions in Western Literature of the rising Ottoman empire Because of this it is most relevant for Mediterranean studies and debates about orientalism Juan Carlos Bayo has prepared a new critical edition of this novel with an introduction and notes and Barry Taylor offers its first translation ever into the English language The volume is completed with an appendix of texts and documents on the Turkish connections of the Crown of Aragon
