The Flesh of the Matter Margo Natalie Crawford, C. Riley Snorton, 2024-11-15 PROSE Awards Category Winner Media and Cultural Studies 2025 Hortense Spillers is one of the most important literary critics and Black feminist scholars of the last fifty years Her 1987 scholarly article 'Mama's Baby, Papa's Maybe: An American Grammar Book' is one of the most cited essays in African American literary studies Edited by Margo Natalie Crawford and C. Riley Snorton The Flesh of the Matter: A Critical Forum on Hortense Spillers is the first collection to take up directly how Spillers's writing on literature, culture and theory have been signal posts to the varied and universal threads of Black thought as well as countless other areas of the academy Interspersed with archival fragments from Spillers's papers kept at the Pembroke Center for Feminist Thought at Brown University the fourteen essays in this collection demonstrate a fidelity to the ways of reading Spillers has taught us the nomenclature of enslavement keyed into the American lexicon and the ways that history permeates our cultural boundaries today

Intentionality Deconstructed Amir Horowitz, 2024 Intentionality Deconstructed: An Anti-Realist Theory argues for the view that there are and can be no intentional states We may put this view in terms of the truth of content ascriptions Content ascriptions in themselves cannot be true or false they lack truth conditions for the concept of intentionality is flawed Nonetheless content ascriptions have truth conditions and can be true or possess a related epistemic merit relative to practices of content ascription The suggested view does not deny the existence of those mental states standardly considered intentional notably the so-called propositional attitudes it affirms it That is the book defends the existence of those states with the properties usually attributed to them but absent intentional properties Specifically it is argued that the so-called propositional attitudes possess logico-syntactic properties The postulation of such properties plays an important role in addressing the challenge of reconciling intentional anti realism with beliefs being true or having substitute epistemic merits the argument from the predictive and explanatory success of content ascription for intentional realism and the cognitive suicide objection to views that deny intentionality As part of the rejection of this final objection intentional anti realism is presented as a radical view which replaces traditional talk of content ascriptions with talk of quoted logico syntactic structures but which can yet give clear sense to its dispute with its rivals as well as to its own superiority In the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern Division of the Eastern Judicial District of Missouri ,1908 United States of America, Petitioner, V. Standard Oil Company of New Jersey Et Al, Defendants: Petitioner's testimony United States,1908
