Talking About Cultural Diversity In Your Church Gift And Challenges:

Talking About Cultural Diversity in Your Church Michael V. Angrosino, 2001-09-24 In the Great Commission Jesus told his followers to go and make disciples of all nations But today you don't need to be a missionary in another country to come across different cultures In your neighborhood school workplace and shopping area you probably run across many people with backgrounds vastly different from your own To have an effective ministry in the U S today outside or inside the church Christians need to be aware of how people's culture affects the ways they think and live Talking about Cultural Diversity in Your Church gives classes workshops or small groups the opportunity to discuss issues of multiculturalism Presenting what culture means in the first part of the book shows how understanding and misunderstandings of culture affect American society This beginning section encourages readers to be aware of their own cultural assumptions and how these assumptions color relations with others It then highlights special skills for communicating between cultures and highlights the special challenges for religion in a pluralistic society But the heart of the book is eleven case studies with discussion questions These concrete cases allow participants to see about how their understandings of culture have real world implications And the discussion questions let participants talk in meaningful ways about these difficult issues If you want a useful discussion about multiculturalism in your congregation you should take a look at Talking about Cultural Diversity in Your Church Visit the author's web page Talking about Cultural Diversity in Your Church Michael V. Angrosino, 2001 Congregational workshop leader Michael Angrosino gives down to earth examples and practical information to make discussion of these tough issues for congregations much easier Clergy and laity of any church that wants to embrace rather than avoid issues of diversity will gain much from this book

Reaching the City Gary Fujino, Timothy R. Sisk, Tereso C. Casino, 2012-06-28 Rapid urbanization and globalization processes worldwide have changed the landscape of our times In Asia and Africa the number of urban dwellers increases by an average of one million per week according to the United Nations More than half of the globe's seven billion human beings now live in cities These realities have far reaching implications for mission in urban contexts at the start of the third millennium Reaching the City Reflections on Urban Mission for the Twenty first Century seeks to address the missiological challenges associated with this new world order Each author in this collection respectfully builds upon the significant contributions of seminal writers such as Ray Bakke Jacques Ellul Basil of Caesarea and others while making new and creative proposals for urban mission in our world today Beginning with the bigger picture of the global challenges of urbanization and moving through theological historical and educational perspectives this volume concludes with a rich bevy of case studies engaging these new realities of both North American and international cities to encourage a missional thrust to reach these communities www.congregationalresources.org Richard Bass, 2004-12-30

An ever increasing number of resources compete for the attention of congregational leaders With a seemingly endless number of choices finding the best resource on a particular topic for a specific congregation is an often daunting challenge www.congregationalresources.org is an invaluable companion to the groundbreaking online version of Alban Institute's and Indianapolis Center for Congregations jointly researched and produced Congregational Resource Guide launched in 2001 and accessed by thousands of seekers each week. The book conveniently and cogently puts the rich array of important resources into context by examining in depth the key books, organizations, Web sites, and people that will help leaders gain an understanding of important issues facing their congregations. The book features ten overviews of important topics by widely recognized experts in their fields including Amy Sherman on Community Ministry, Tom Fischer on Congregational Health, Lee Ramsey on Preaching, Paul Chaffee on Leadership, John Janka on Evaluation, and Jean Trumbauer on Lay Ministry. Each essay is accompanied by an annotated list of selected resources for researching further information. Helpful guides for using these valuable resources to promote and encourage congregational understanding and transformation are also included. A

House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft-repeated truism that there are no churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week, as Sheryl Kujawa-Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues. Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations, and Kujawa-Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out a multiracial community. Focusing on six congregations from different denominations, geographical regions, and settings, the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community. The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation's history, study their community's demographics, and most of all, search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst. The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further. Preaching with

Cultural Intelligence Matthew D. Kim, 2017-10-17 To preach effectively in today's world, preachers need cultural intelligence. They must build bridges between listeners who come from various denominations, ethnicities, genders, locations, religious backgrounds, and more. Experienced preacher and teacher Matthew Kim provides a step-by-step template for cross-cultural hermeneutics and homiletics, equipping preachers to reach their varied listeners in the church and beyond. Each chapter includes questions for individual thought or group discussion. The book also includes helpful diagrams and images, a sample sermon, and appendixes for exegesis, listeners, and for exploring cultural differences. Becoming a Multicultural Church Laurene Beth Bowers, 2010-04-01 In ital Becoming a Multicultural Church, ital Bowers reflects upon and shows how churches can benefit from the experience of First Congregational Church of Randolph, Massachusetts, as the church she pastors, once a historically traditional, one-social-grouping church, but now a multicultural church and one of the numerically largest churches in Randolph. She offers practical strategies and explores the processes involved in a conversational style that will make it an easy read for pastors. Radical Welcome Stephanie Spellers, 2021-11-16 For the fifteenth anniversary of its publication, this revised edition features a new introduction from the author on the state of the church and its radical welcome today along with new reflections on how it continues to reshape the church This book is at once a theological inspirational and practical guide for congregations that want to move beyond diversity and inclusion to present a vision for the church of the future one where the gifts voices and power of marginalized groups bring new life to the mainline church Based on two years of work and over 200 interviews with people in congregations all around the United States in urban suburban and rural settings it asks the question How do we face our fears and welcome transformation in order to become God's radically welcoming people Each chapter introduces a particular congregation and the challenges it faced and lays out the theological underpinnings of tackling fears head on to embrace change as a welcome part of community life This new edition features essays from Michael B Curry Mark Bozzuti Jones Jennifer Baskerville Burrows and Mark Richardson

The Power of Stories Rev. Jacqueline J. Lewis, 2010-09-01 Most congregational leaders find it difficult to resist the dominant cultural expectation that different cultural and ethnic groups should stick to themselves especially when it comes to church But some congregational leaders have learned the secrets of breaking out of these expectations to bring together communities of faith that model God's radical inclusiveness What makes the difference Jacqui Lewis explains that it resides in the stories these leaders tell stories about who they themselves are and what the communities they lead are about These leaders are able to embrace the multiple complex stories within these diverse communities hearing in the many voices a particular echo of the living voice of the gospel In this book Lewis shares with the reader examples of congregational leaders who have successfully overcome the challenges of leading multicultural congregations and the lessons that can be learned from them Jacqueline J Lewis is Senior Minister for Vision Worship and the Arts at Middle Collegiate Church in New York

From Every People and Nation David M. Rhoads, A diverse group of New Testament scholars and theologians offer myriad paths to a better understanding of the Book of Revelation They discuss topics such as Hispanic Cuban American and African American perspectives ecological issues postcolonial themes and liberation theology The book also provides a set of guidelines for intercultural Bible study The volume's contributors include Brian K Blount Justo Gonzalez Harry O Maier Clarice J Martin James Okoye Tina Pippin Pablo Richard Barbara R Rossing Victor Westhelle Khiok Khng Yeo

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
