Talking At The Gates:

TALKING AT THE GATES JAMES. CAMPBELL, 2021 Finks Joel Whitney, 2017-01-03 When news broke that the CIA had colluded with literary magazines to produce cultural propaganda throughout the Cold War a debate began that has never been resolved The story continues to unfold with the reputations of some of America's best loved literary figures including Peter Matthiessen George Plimpton and Richard Wright tarnished as their work for the intelligence agency has come to light Finks is a tale of two CIAs and how they blurred the line between propaganda and literature One CIA created literary magazines that promoted American and European writers and cultural freedom while the other toppled governments using assassination and censorship as political tools Defenders of the cultural CIA argue that it should have been lauded for boosting interest in the arts and freedom of thought but the two CIAs had the same undercover goals and shared many of the same methods deception subterfuge and intimidation Finks demonstrates how the good versus bad CIA is a false divide and that the cultural Cold Warriors again and again used anti Communism as a lever to spy relentlessly on leftists and indeed writers of all political inclinations and thereby pushed U S democracy a little closer to the Soviet model of the surveillance state

Signs of Diaspora / Diaspora of Signs Grey Gundaker, 1998-07-30 Challenging monolithic approaches to culture and literacy this book looks at the roots of African American reading and writing from the perspective of vernacular activities and creolization It shows that African Americans while readily mastering the conventions and canons of Euro America also drew on knowledge of their own to make an oppositional repertoire of signs and meanings Distinct from conventional script literacy on the one hand and oral culture on the other these creolized vernacular practices include writing in charms use of personal or nondecodable scripts the strategic renunciation of reading and writing as communicative tools and writing that is linked to divination trance and possession Based on extensive ethnographic research in the Southeastern United States and the West Indies Gundaker offers a complex portrait of the intersection of outsider conventions with insider knowledge and practice

The English Book and Its Marginalia □□□□, 2000 This book is about books that recount the story of encountering another book There are various versions of the story told and retold from the heyday of imperialism up to the present day Homi Bhabha calls it the trope of the discovery of the English book by considering each of these versions carefully we may also give an alternative account of twentieth century English literature as the site of an intercultural discourse This project is very much inspired by debate on postcolonial theory namely the debate between Said and Bhabha Part I is devoted to the discussion of Conrad especially of Heart of Darkness and investigates how the novella has continually been reproduced to the extent that it represents the English Book of colonial postcolonial literatures The chapter on Hugh Clifford Ch 3 is virtually the first intensive critique of his novels such as Saleh 1908 with a particular focus on their intertextual relations with Conrad s texts Part II examines how the story of the English Book is repeated and revised in the texts of the following authors Joyce Cary Isak Dinesen V S Naipaul Kaiko Takeshi and Ng g wa Thiong o

The Race Talk Pierre W. Orelus, 2013-02-01 Drawing on critical race theory, this book critically examines race through a mosaic lens, pointing out various issues directly connected to it, such as racial identity, politics, racism, multiracialism, interracial relationships and the hegemony of whiteness. This book goes further to analyze the manner in which socially constructed racial stereotypes contribute to and are used to justify the poor socio-economic situation and marginalization of People of Color, particularly the poor ones. Designed for a broad range of readers, this book aims to open up democratic spaces for genuine discussions about racial issues.
