The Foreign Relations Of The New States Studies In Contemporary Southeast Asia

The Foreign Relations Of The New States Studies In Contemporary Southeast Asia:

Malaya's First Year at the United Nations Tawfik Ismail, 2003-08-01 Dr Ismail's writings and speeches and his letters to the Tunku covering a variety of foreign policy issues are a valuable asset in understanding the unique role he played in the nation's history. He was without doubt the primary architect of Malaysian Foreign Policy. Tengku Tan Sri Dato Seri Ahmad Rithauddeen, Former Foreign Minister of Malaysia. Not only was Dr Ismail Abdul Rahman Malaysia's first ambassador to the United States and permanent representative to the United Nations, he was also Foreign Affairs Minister in 1959-60. Later as long time Home Affairs Minister, Deputy Prime Minister and occasionally Acting Prime Minister, he played a decisive role in making neutrality the pillar of Malaysia's foreign policy. This important collection of notes he wrote to the Tunku in 1958 and of his speeches made in 1957-58 at the UN are being published for the very first time. It gives us a window into his seminal thinking and makes us understand the contribution he made to Malaysian nation building in the early years. Tawfik Ismail and Ooi Kee Beng deserve kudos for compiling these into one volume and for providing elaborate footnoting that presents the reader with an intriguing picture of the Cold War year of 1958. The book is a must-read for the diplomatic corps and Malaysian foreign policy analysts. Johan Saravanamuttu, Former political science Professor and Dean, Science University Malaysia, USM.

The Elgar Companion to ASEAN Jörn Dosch, Frederick Kliem, 2023-05-09 Providing a contemporary discussion of ASEAN, this holistic Companion critically examines the organisation's characteristics, strengths and weaknesses, politics and policies, internal dynamics and external relations. This fascinating and informative Companion makes a significant contribution to the literature on ASEAN, providing a comprehensive overview of the organisation and evaluating multidisciplinary perspectives on Southeast Asian regionalism.

International Relations in Southeast Asia Donald E. Weatherbee, 2009 This balanced, comprehensive guide to Southeast Asian politics offers a sensible but non-dogmatic realist approach to the region's international relations. In this revised second edition, Donald E. Weatherbee lucidly explains the dynamics of the Southeast Asian subsystem as a struggle for autonomy in pursuit of national interests. He explores three important questions the answers to which will shape the future of Southeast Asia: Will democratic regimes transform international relations in Southeast Asia? Will national leaders succeed in reinventing ASEAN as a more effective collaborative mechanism? Finally, how will the evolving Chinese position, balancing and perhaps displacing the United States as Asia's great power, affect Southeast Asia's struggle for autonomy?

Global International Relations in Southeast Asia Chanintira na Thalang, Yong-Soo Eun, 2024-08-02 This edited volume explores the contours of Global International Relations (IR) in terms of teaching and research in Southeast Asia and China, with the purpose of revealing existing and hidden pre-theories, conceptual frameworks and theoretical contributions to Global IR rooted in local histories, contemporary experiences and indigenous thought. The exploration is conducted within a context where scholars across regions are progressively taking strides to reshape IR, which has long gravitated towards Western experiences, thought and knowledge into a more inclusive discipline Otherwise known as the Global IR project these efforts aim not only to amplify marginalized voices and experiences but also introduce new conceptual and theoretical tools derived from a diverse range of experiences While some of these insights provide new understandings others offer useful implications that transcend national and regional boundaries fostering crossregional discussions about the diverse realities within our world An essential read for scholars and students of IR with an interest in Global IR IR theory in general and the development of IR in parts of Southeast Asia

Small States and Hegemonic Competition in Southeast Asia Chih-Mao Tang, 2018-03-20 In the last few decades Southeast Asia has become generally more peaceful and more prosperous with progress in economic development regional cooperation and integration ASEAN in particular plays a leading role within and beyond the region in promoting multilateral cooperation in both security and economic matters All these developments progress amid increasing hegemonic competition between the US and China for regional dominance in the Asia Pacific region According to the realist viewpoint of international politics Southeast Asian states can do nothing but choose sides at the expense of international political autonomy in order to maintain their national interests Tang argues however that in fact there exists an opportunity for Southeast Asian states to simultaneously reinforce their military security economic development and international political autonomy in face of the US China hegemonic competition Drawing on the ideas of power transition theory and recent works of capitalist peace Tang argues that small states can exploit the competition between great powers to make economic gains and ensure security while maintaining their autonomy He outlines the necessity of cooperation among these small states and of economic liberalization for the effectiveness of this reinforcing dynamics applying policy and econometric analyses to a wide range of qualitative and quantitative data

Regionalism in Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling, 2006-09-27 This innovative text provides the reader with an historical analysis of Southeast Asia from the unusual perspective of regionalism

ASEAN's Foreign Relations Ma Irācēntiran, 1985

ASEAN's Diplomatic and Security Culture Jurgen Haacke, 2013-05-13 Member states of ASEAN the Association of South East Asian Nations have developed a distinctive approach to political and security co operation which builds on the principles of sovereign equality non intervention and non interference quiet diplomacy mutual respect and the principle of not involving ASEAN in mediating bilateral disputes among the membership This book examines the origins of ASEAN s diplomatic and security culture and analyses how over time its key principles have been practised and contested as ASEAN states have responded to regional conflicts as well as challenges posed by the major regional powers ASEAN s enlargement and the Asian financial crisis The book goes on to assess whether ASEAN s diplomatic and security culture is likely to remain salient as the political economic and security context in which regional leaderships operate is undergoing further change

The Routledge Handbook of US Foreign Policy in the Indo-Pacific Oliver Turner, Nicola Nymalm, Wali Aslam, 2022-12-30 This handbook provides a comprehensive survey of US foreign policy throughout the Indo Pacific Home to around 60 percent of the world s population most of the world s largest and fastest growing economies around half of the world's states with full nuclear capabilities and a complicated web of unresolved tensions, disputes and conflicts, the Indo Pacific is arguably the most diverse, dynamic and contested region on Earth. US strategy there has evolved over centuries with its physical presence going broadly unchallenged since at least the middle of the last century. However, the rapid development and expanding influence of China alongside the growth of India, Indonesia, Vietnam, the Philippines and others, as well as political and economic crises and disruptions within the United States itself, mean that in recent times the US has come to occupy a newly uncertain position and perceive a range of highly unfamiliar challenges. To explore how the US has managed and continues to manage its regional history and how it approaches the modern-day landscape of an Indo Pacific only recently normalised within international political discourse, the book contains 33 newly commissioned chapters from leading experts in the field. It does so partly with help from the more traditional realms of International Relations theory as well as more critical realms. It also unpacks US policy and strategy as it pertains to regional governments, states and multilateral institutions as well as to pressing issues including inter-state security, human rights, trade, artificial intelligence and cyber strategy. It does so in four parts: History of the US in the Indo Pacific; Theorising US Policy and Presence in the Indo Pacific; The US and Indo Pacific States and Institutions; The US and Indo Pacific Issues. The book is designed to be of interest to students and scholars of the US in the Indo Asia Pacific, the international relations of the Indo Asia Pacific and US foreign policy.

Forging a Singaporean Statehood: 1965-1995 Robin Ramcharan, 2021-10-25. This work takes an in-depth look at the multi-faceted contemporary relationship between Singapore and Japan since the end of World War II. It is the story of a relationship between an economic superpower, Japan, and an enterprising city state whose leaders have sought to emulate not only Japan's economic success but several key facets of Japanese society as well. No other country surpasses Singapore in its public admiration of Japan. How is it possible for a multi-ethnic Singapore to emulate a relatively homogeneous Japan? What features of economic and political motives behind the attempt to emulate Japan? These and other questions are addressed in this work, which will be of interest to scholars of the international relations and security of East and Southeast Asia.
