The Forgotten Catholics Of The Soviet Empire From Lenin Through Stalin:

The Forgotten Rev. Christopher Lawrence Zugger, 2001-04-01 This remarkable work traces the history of Soviet Catholicism from its rich life in 1914 through its tentative fate in the first sixty years of the USSR Rev Zugger tells of the faithful men and women shackled by dictatorship doomed to deportation and abandoned by their own church in the west Soviet Russia was an empire born of atheism with religion viewed as a threat to the state's notion of individualism By 1932 dictator Joseph Stalin firmly declared that religion would be extinct in the USSR within five years In this compelling volume Zugger details the Soviet campaign against Catholicism among many ethnic groups and worshippers whose devotion would not be shaken He shows how they kept faith alive in prison camps in remote villages in monastery prisons and in the secrecy of their homes where the light of faith continued to burn brightly while churches crumbled or became dance halls and office buildings This is the first book in English to recount the fate of Catholic Russia and the church in the various lands conquered by Soviet rule It is at once a memorial to those who perished a tribute to those who survived and a testament to the enduring power of faith

The Catholic Church and Soviet Russia, 1917-39 Dennis Dunn, 2016-11-18 This book based on extensive research including in the Russian and Vatican archives charts the development of relations between the Catholic Church and the Soviet Union from the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917 to the death of Pope Pius XI in 1939 It provides background information on the animosity between the Orthodox and Catholic churches and moves towards reconciliation between them discusses Soviet initiatives to eradicate religion in the Soviet Union and spread atheist international communism throughout the world and explores the Catholic Church's attempts to survive in the face of persecution within the Soviet Union and extend itself Throughout the book reveals much new detail on the complex interaction between these two opposing bodies and their respective ideologies

The Germans of the Soviet Union Irina Mukhina, 2007-03-06 Using rarely seen archival information this book provides an account of the experiences of the Germans living in the Soviet Union from the early post revolution period to the post Soviet era following the collapse of communism

Broken Altars Thomas Albert Howard, 2025-03-25 A sweeping history of the violence perpetrated by governments committed to extreme forms of secularism in the twentieth century A popular truism derived from the Enlightenment holds that violence is somehow inherent to religion to which political secularism offers a liberating solution But this assumption ignores a glaring modern reality that putatively progressive regimes committed to secularism have possessed just as much and often a vastly greater capacity for violence as those tied to a religious identity In Broken Altars Thomas Albert Howard presents a powerful account of the sheer numbers misery deaths and destruction visited on religious communities by secularist regimes in the twentieth century Presenting three principal forms of modern secularism that have arisen since the Enlightenment passive secularism combative secularism and eliminationist secularism Howard argues that the latter two have been especially violence prone Westerners do not fully grasp this however because they often mistake the first form passive secularism for secularism as a whole But a disconcertingly more complicated picture emerges with the adoption of a broader global vision Admitting different species of secularism greater historical perspective and case studies drawn from the former Soviet Union Turkey Mexico Spain Czechoslovakia Albania Mongolia and China among other countries Howard calls into question the conventional tale of modernity as the pacifying triumph of secularism over a benighted religious past The Catholic Church and Russia Dennis J. Dunn,2017-05-15 This unique account of Russia's encounter with Catholicism from the medieval period to the present provides fascinating insights into Catholic Russian relations Dennis Dunn analyzes religious politics in the former USSR and in Russia particularly in areas where relations between the state backed Orthodox establishment and the Catholic Church have renewed debates about civil rights religious freedom and Russian national identity under Vladimir Putin's regime Discussing issues such as the role of Pope John Paul II in helping to bring down the Iron Curtain Dunn argues provocatively that Catholic Russian relations are a microcosm of Western Russian relations and sheds new light on the historical strain between Russia and the West Showing how Russia's adoption of a secular ideology a vain attempt to surpass the West alienated the Russian government not only from the Catholic Church but also from its own Orthodox foundation this book discusses how Russia sealed its fate while precipitating the Cold War with the West Students and general readers interested in Russian history Western Russian relations Catholicism and comparative religion more broadly will find this an invaluable and accessible account of an important and understudied subject The 'Lviv Sobor' of 1946 and Its Aftermath ,2022-12-28 In 1946 the Lviv Sobor voted to liquidate the Ukrainian Greco Catholic Church The Moscow Patriarchate considers it a triumph of Orthodoxy while the Catholic Church condemns it as an illegitimate council convened by Soviet authorities What is the truth This volume presents the contexts of the Lviv Sobor its aftermath and reception from various perspectives Although there is no common narrative scholars have concluded that the decisions of the Lviv Sobor were coerced by Soviet authorities the Russian Orthodox Church was forced to collaborate and that reconciliation depends on acknowledging these facts in order to move toward reconciliation Priests, Prelates and People Nicholas Atkin, Frank Tallett,2003-09-26 The Catholic Church has always been a major player in European and world history Whether it has enjoyed a religious dominance or existed as a minority religion Catholicism has never been diverted from political life Priests, Prelates and People records the Church struggling to adapt to the new political landscape ushered in by the French Revolution and shows how the formation of nation states and identities was both helped and hindered by the Catholic establishment It portrays the Vatican increasingly out of step in the wake of world war Cold War and the massive expansion of the developing world with its problems of population growth and under development The Culture of the Incarnation: Essays in Catholic Theology Tracey Rowland,2017-08-01 In this collection of essays distinguished Australian theologian Tracey Rowland takes up the relationship of Christ and culture broadly understood She contrasts the principles undergirding what St John Paul II called a culture of death with those required for the flourishing of a humanism that flows from the grace of the Incarnation Rowland returns frequently to the theological insights of Joseph Ratzinger Pope Benedict XVI to whose thought she is deeply indebted Drawing upon the Augustinian and Thomist traditions of political theology she offers a trenchant theological critique of liberalism in all its forms with attention to our modern attraction to false utopias and accommodationist impulses The nine essays in this volume engage such perennial topics as the place of natural law the theological status of the world and the nature of true humanism along with timely topics such as the retrieval of the sources of Catholic resistance to Communism and what is now commonly called cultural Marxism Rowland's inimitable voice keen wit and penetrating insight into the distinctiveness of Catholic truth make this book a landmark volume as the Church today revisits anew its relationship to the world

Vatican II Behind the Iron Curtain Piotr H. Kosicki, 2016 The goal of this volume is to begin writing Central and Eastern Europe back into the story of the Second Vatican Council its origins and its consequences This volume assembles for the first time in any language a broad overview of the place of four different Communist run countries Czechoslovakia Hungary Poland and Yugoslavia in the story of the Council Framing these is an account of how the Cold War impacted the Council and its reception The book engages with both English language scholarship and the national historiographies of the countries that it examines offering a global lens on the present state of research covering all relevant languages and seeking to propel that research forward All of the chapters draw on both non English secondary literature and original primary sources some published some archival

Literary Images of Self and Other in Irish and Ukrainian Famine Fiction Tatiana Krol, 2025-07-10 This book is a comparative imagological study of novelistic representations of the Irish and Ukrainian Great Famines It examines the formation of stereotypical perceptions between nations in Irish and Ukrainian fiction Focusing on the novels The Silent People 1962 by Walter Macken The Hungry Land 1986 by Michael Mullen Maria A Chronicle of a Life 1934 by Ulas Samchuk and Sweet Snow 2013 by Alexander J Motyl the author compares and contrasts images of the Self and the Other created in Irish and Ukrainian novels about famine and investigates ways in which stereotypical perceptions between nations are forged and disseminated The author argues that negative attitudes between people and or nations largely depend on power relations
