Gendered Resistance Valérie Baisnée,2023-04-24 Four major women s autobiographies of the twentieth century are discussed together here for the first time Val rie Baisn e reinterprets the autobiographical writing of Simone De Beauvoir Maya Angelou Janet Frame and Marguerite Duras finding some striking similarities in these women s resistance to a conservative order Deploying a variety of theoretical approaches from linguistic to Marxist Baisn e endeavours to break the restrictive patterns of author centred studies to go beyond simple oppositions between truth and fiction and to dispense with the facile interpretation of these texts as confessional For Val rie Baisn e Autobiography is meant to represent not the true but the official version of a life signed by the author herself and revered as hagiography by the public Instead of analysing women's autobiographies as confessional it is possible to see this mode of discourse as a means to counteract the effect of exposure of women's private lives. By revealing their past however painful it may be the four autobiographers studied in this book also enhance their present strength and therefore underline the political nature of the autobiography. The Autobiography of William Allen White William Allen White, 1990. White, who died in 1944, was both small town newspaperman and national celebrity, a journalist, editor and author, popular commentator, Republican political leader and founder of the Progressive party. First published posthumously in 1946, this 2nd ed. of the Autobiography is abridged and edited for the modern reader. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc. Portland, OR. The Content of the Form Hayden White, 1990-08. The secret of the process by which consciousness invests history with meaning resides in the content of the form in the way our narrative capacities transform the present into a fulfillment of a past from which we would wish to have descended. Nor Shall Diamond Die: american studies Carme Manuel, Paul S.
