The Foundation Stone The Life Nature And Cultivation Of Anthroposophy:

The Foundation Stone Rudolf Steiner, 2013-05-14 This volume which brings together two classic booklets for the first time features Steiner's valuable thoughts and guidelines regarding the Foundation Stone Meditation and the new character of the Anthroposophical Society given during and after the Christmas Conference of 1923-24

A Life for the Spirit Henry Barnes, 1997 Whether or not Steiner's insights are valid is for each of us to determine His work is not easy and he challenges our usual thinking every step of the way The insights are radical in the original meaning of that word they go to the roots We are forced more and more to realize that only through such thinking can actions arise that are truly healing and constructive Henry Barnes from the introduction Few people today recognize Rudolf Steiner's name yet those who are aware of him know that his presence pervades every forward looking aspect of contemporary life Nearly all fields of life have been fructified by his insights not abstractly or theoretically but in a concrete way that changes lives No wonder then that Steiner has been called the best kept secret of the twentieth century Born in 1861 in Kraljvec Austria Steiner showed evidence early on of the most varied gifts a precise and probing scientific mind combined with a natural clairvoyant ability to see into the spiritual world a determined need to think things through for himself and a profound reverence for the divine He first made his mark as a philosopher and the editor of Goethe's scientific writings He also recognized the revolutionary spirit in Nietzsche But Steiner's destiny led him in a different direction Profound cognitive experiences determined that his task would lie in service to the spirit While recognizing the integrity of modern science's phenomenological empiricism he also knew that the time had come to extend the field of science to include investigation of the supersensible Working at first within the Theosophical Society but always speaking and writing out of his own experience Steiner developed the foundations for a thoroughly modern spiritual scientific discipline that would transform spiritual and cultural life Until his death in 1925 in countless lectures and books Steiner created the body of knowledge and practice known as anthroposophy which not only challenged and extended the underlying methods of modern knowledge but stimulated many practical cultural initiatives such as Waldorf education biodynamic agriculture the art of eurythmy the movement for a threefold social order and anthroposophical medicine Henry Barnes the author of Into the Heart's Land: A Century of Rudolf Steiner's Work in North America recounts the dynamic life of this remarkable man He does so by placing Steiner in the crosscurrents of history and showing him not as a spectator or ivory tower philosopher but as a leading actor in the drama one whose entire being was given in service to humanity and to the spirit Contents Foreword by Robert McDermott Introduction In Search of a New Thinking The Twentieth Century Battleground for Human Individuality Child of Middle Europe Biographical Foundations The Weimar Years Nietzsche Steiner and the Redemption of Thinking The Years of Inner Testing Berlin The Work Unfolds The Building Rises Insight Becomes Life The Threefold Movement for Social Reform The First Waldorf School and the Independence of Education The Healing Arts Religious Renewal Out of Fire Renewal from Within The Christmas Foundation

Months of Grace Afterword The Battle Continues What Can I Do The Foundation Stone Meditation Rudolf Steiner, 2013-05-19 The Foundation Stone Meditation holds a central place in the inner life of many students of Rudolf Steiner's work First presented during the refounding of the Anthroposophical Society at the Christmas Conference of 1923 24 it is a powerful and penetrating meditative text which many consider to be a key to the spiritual mysteries of our time This version features three alternative translations by George Adams Pauline Wehrle and Richard Seddon together with the original German verses and an introduction by Michael Wilson The Development of Anthroposophy since Rudolf Steiner's Death T.H. Meyer, Paul V. O'Leary, 2014-11-01 This volume begins with Thomas Meyer's assessment of Anthroposophy's evolution since Rudolf Steiner's death and its future prospects He offers an overview of the eighty seven years of the development of the anthroposophic movement and the Anthroposophical Society the worldwide organization headquartered in Dornach Switzerland since the death of its founder The Society went through a very difficult and controversial period in the ten years following Steiner's death which culminated at its Annual Meeting in 1935 The result was the expulsion from the Society of two members appointed by Rudolf Steiner to its Executive Board Vorstand Ita Wegman and Elizabeth Vreede as well as the British and Dutch branches of the Society and many important anthroposophists who opposed the expulsions Meyer whose many books include Rudolf Steiner's Core Mission reveals the extraordinary concordance of four November 17 dates highly significant in the development of Anthroposophy On November 17 1901 the anniversary of the founding of the Theosophical Society in 1875 Marie von Sivers asked Rudolf Steiner to create an esoteric path suited to the Western mind which set Steiner on his mission On November 17 1923 Ita Wegman urged Steiner to establish a new Society with Steiner himself joining as both a member and its president Twelve years later on November 17 1935 the remaining three individuals of the Executive Board wrote to Adolf Hitler to plea for the Society's continued existence in Germany after being banned in Germany by the Nazi regime Profound connections underlie these events Four appendices supplement the present volume Appendix 1 presents a Chronology that denotes by year and day significant episodes in Steiner's life and in the development of Anthroposophy The remaining appendices feature for the first time in English in one volume significant documents pertinent to the Anthroposophical Society's Easter 1935 Annual Meeting Appendix 2 contains the Memorandum written by supporters of Marie Steiner setting forth a list of grievances in support of the expulsion motions adopted at the 1935 Annual Meeting Appendix 3 records Ludwig Polzer Hoditz's address in response to the 1935 Annual Meeting counseling against the expulsion measures Appendix 4 contains the letter in English and German written by the Society's Executive Board to Adolf Hitler This important book offers profound insights into the struggles for individual freedom and voice during the early years of the Anthroposophical Society Seeing the dynamics of that struggle can help us today to overcome differences to work toward common purpose both in the context of our everyday lives and within a spiritually oriented community Practical Advice to Teachers Rudolf Steiner, 2000-06 A seer sees more than meets the eye using the eyes of the soul along with the physical eyes As all seeing is a form of cognition higher seeing is the key to higher cognition or knowing For human beings the spiritual world is hidden deep within the disguise of the world available to the senses and deep within the human psyche and human consciousness enmeshed as it usually is in the physical senses cannot easily be aware of both worlds The human soul is the link between the physical sense imbued body and direct experience of the spirit because it has the latent ability to focus consciousness into any number of levels The ability to determine the focus of awareness is our great gift and our great challenge In this practical and accessible guidebook Dennis Klocek building on the alchemical tradition and the Western path of initiation developed by Rudolf Steiner shows how the soul's latent ability can be awakened by conscious acts of will and rhythmical practices The practices begin wherever we are in our everyday lives and take the seeker through the levels of concentration the ability to create and hold an inner image contemplation the ability to transform the image and make it dynamic and meditation the ability to reverse the image or think it backward into inner silence After presenting the practical exercises along with commentary that identify and lay out the steps Klocek shows us how the path can be followed through to an understanding of a seemingly impenetrable alchemical image of the soul's journey as he guides us up the Alchemical Mountain to heartfelt thinking Through such a journey it becomes possible for human beings to live as spiritual beings among other spiritual beings For those who are serious about developing faculties of higher knowing and seeing The Seer's Handbook is a unique practical and friendly handbook of exercises meditations and insightful commentary that will guide both beginners and more advanced students along the path to higher worlds In Search of Ethical Leadership Torin M. Finser, 2003-11-01 The seed of this book was planted in 1941 when Giorgio Spadaro first visited the Vatican Museums with his cousin the painter Beppe Assenza A second visit and further conversations in 1945 watered the seed which germinated and grew over more than half a century Now it has flowered in the light of Rudolf Steiner's Anthroposophy into this profound and accessible meditation on the spiritual significance of three of Raphael's greatest paintings The School of Athens shown left The Disputation below and The Transfiguration By working attentively patiently and carefully through its composition and the geometry it embodies Spadaro's meditation reveals a prophetic Raphael whose paintings have much to teach us about the evolution of consciousness the role of Christ and Christianity in human evolution and the path of individual inner development Spadaro shows how Raphael's paintings depict with precision and in detail the spiritual cosmic and physical situation of humanity through which it must grow to fulfillment Reading his descriptions and following them in the paintings brings to life a spiritual reality all too often ignored or denied by art historians At the same time through his deep understanding of the paintings spiritual content he is able to identify in a meaningful way the figures depicted and their significance Here is a valuable addition to the growing body of literature on the profound spiritual meaning contained in Raphael's paintings Rudolf Steiner's Intentions for the Anthroposophical Society Peter Selg, 2011-08 Although the fruits of Anthroposophy Waldorf education biodynamic agriculture Camphill anthroposophic medicine and so on are relatively well known and moderately successful their relationship to Anthroposophy and its vehicle for transmission the General Anthroposophical Society and the School for Spiritual Science remains mysterious and unclear sadly the same is true of the meaning and purpose of those institutions Related to this is the fact that though these offshoots of Anthroposophy are well known eighty five years after his death and eighty seven years after the re formation of the Anthroposophical Society what Rudolf Steiner brought into the world what entered the world through him and what he sought to accomplish that is what spiritual science and spiritual scientific research are and how one practices them remain virtually unknown In other words something essential has been forgotten Written both in commemoration of the 150th anniversary of Rudolf Steiner's birth and in the context of the long standing episodically erupting and ongoing confusion surrounding the mission and task of the Anthroposophical Society Peter Selg seeks to recover what has perhaps been forgotten or overlooked in Rudolf Steiner's own words and life He does so by describing clearly and objectively the historical background of Steiner's vision of the civilizational task of Anthroposophy and how he had hoped it might be accomplished This book has two parts First the author offers a lucid description of the development and gradual sharpening in the face of the crisis of Western culture epitomized by World War I and its aftermath of the vision of spiritual science as a truly Michaelic task for the Michael Age In part two Peter Selg takes up the events following Rudolf Steiner's death outlining deftly and subtly the struggles and developments that ensued commenting tactfully on the questions and perspectives that arose and continue to arise Rudolf Steiner's Intentions for the Anthroposophical Society is for all those who care about the reality and future of Anthroposophy Originally published in German as Der Vorstand die Sektionen und die Gesellschaft Welche Hochschule wollte Rudolf Steiner by Ita Wegman Institute for Basic Research into Anthroposophy Valentin Tomberg and Anthroposophy Sergei O.

Prokofieff,2005 Valentin Tomberg was for many years a strong proponent of Rudolf Steiner's spiritual science He became a prominent lecturer and writer on anthroposophy then in 1945 he turned away from anthroposophy and converted to Roman Catholicism subsequently authoring two influential texts on Catholicism Nevertheless a number of Tomberg's modern day adherents maintain that he remained faithful to esoteric Christianity and to Rudolf Steiner's ideas Prokofieff presents startling new research that in his estimation shows the hypothesis of Tomberg's followers to be misguided His key evidence is a letter reproduced in the book that was handwritten by Tomberg in 1970 Using this text Prokofieff attempts to show that Valentin Tomberg condemned and dismissed Rudolf Steiner and his spiritual path Education as a Force for Social Change Rudolf Steiner,1997-07 These dazzling radical lectures were given one month before the opening of the first Waldorf School following two years of intense preoccupation with the social situation in Germany as World War I ended and society sought to rebuild itself Well aware of the dangerous tendencies present in modern culture that undermine a true social life such as psychic torpor and boredom universal mechanization and a growing cynicism Steiner recognized that any solution must address not only economic and legal issues but also that of a free spiritual life Steiner also saw the need to properly nurture in children the virtues of imitation reverence and love at the appropriate stages of development in order to create mature adults who are inwardly prepared to fulfill the demands of a truly healthy society adults who are able to assume the responsibilities of freedom equality and brotherhood Relating these themes to an understanding of the human as a threefold being of thought feeling and volition and against the background of historical forces at work in human consciousness Steiner lays the ground for a profound revolution in the ways we think about education Also included here are three lectures on the social basis of education a lecture to public school teachers and a lecture to the workers of the Waldorf Astoria Cigarette Company after which they asked him to form a school for their children German sources Die Erziehungsfrage als soziale Frage GA 296 lectures 4 5 and 6 the Volkspädagogik lectures in Geisteswissenschaftliche Behandlung sozialer und pädagogischer Fragen GA 192 lectures 2 and 11 Neugestaltung des sozialen Organismus GA 330 331

The Roots of Education Rudolf Steiner, 1998-02 In an age focused increasingly upon a cultural political and social understanding of otherness as diversity preferring to ponder God if at all mostly in terms of immanence depth psychology is in danger of becoming breadth psychology The search for transcendence has become more and more the province of New Age weekend workshops On the other hand depth psychology that seeks only the transpersonal without the incarnate spirit in the flesh of everyday relationships in history may likewise prove to be a failed enterprise In this work I compare and contrast Boehme's and Jung's experiences with a special focus on the religious or psychological experience of what Erich Neumann calls unitary reality a ground of being that contains all opposites in potentiality from the book Dark Light of the Soul explores the inner journeys of Jacob Boehme the seventeenth century Protestant mystic and C G Jung the twentieth century depth psychologist Each was concerned with the immediacy of experience yet comprehended the importance of spirit as a transforming presence in human life Kathryn Wood Madden connects the experiences of these two pioneers focusing on a ground of being that contains all opposites in potentiality She examines those experiences from the perspective of depth psychology and religion offering meaningful insights for anyone on a path of inner development as well as for professionals in clinical settings Dark Light of the Soul will be of interest to all therapeutic clinicians and anyone who wishes a deeper understanding of and fresh paths into the human psyche Because so much tension exists in the world in the way each of us apprehends the divine we sorely need a way of working with our psyches this is imperative in fact to human existence and survival in the face of terrorism fundamentalism and archetypal evil We need to locate and work within a psycho-spiritual umbrella that is large enough to house contradictions from the book
