In the Queens' Parlor Ellery Queen, 1969 The Pocket Book of Father Brown Gilbert Keith Chesterton, 1927 The father of paradox The outstanding characteristics of Father Brown are his remarkable abilities first to imagine himself in the place of the criminal and secondly his insight into the human heart gained over a long period of time in the course of his parish work These two qualities make him the most human most lovable and the wisest of all fictional detectives Physically he is small and insignificant man except for a rather large round stomach and small round hat At first people are inclined to overlook him but after five minutes of conversation people recognize that he talks truth The Four of Hearts and ; Halfway House Ellery Queen, 1983 Everything Was Better in America David Welky, 2010-10-01 As a counterpart to research on the 1930s that has focused on liberal and radical writers calling for social revolution David Welky offers this eloquent study of how mainstream print culture shaped and disseminated a message affirming conservative middle class values and assuring its readers that holding to these values would get them through hard times Through analysis of the era's most popular newspaper stories magazines and books Welky examines how voices both outside and within the media debated the purposes of literature and the meaning of cultural literacy in a mass democracy He presents lively discussions of such topics as the newspaper treatment of the Lindbergh kidnapping issues of race in coverage of the 1936 Olympic games domestic dynamics and gender politics in cartoons and magazines Superman's evolution from a radical outsider to a spokesman for the people and the popular consumption of such novels as the Ellery Queen mysteries Gone with the Wind and The Good Earth Through these close readings Welky uncovers the subtle relationship between the messages that mainstream media strategically crafted and those that their target audience wished to hear The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1905 The Eagle's Heart Hamlin Garland, 1901 The Bookman, 1908 Heart of the Family Margaret Daley, 2018-04-23 Savor again this classic tale about creating family where you find it from top selling author Margaret Daley Women Dr Jacob Hartman knows are a mystery Take the first time he meets social worker Hannah Smith at the Stone Refuge home for foster children The woman stares him down as if he'd come at her with castor oil Why His past is full of heavy duty heartache but he is positive they've never met As a former foster child himself Jacob is deeply touched by how much she cares about the kids at the home how loving she is to everyone but him Can he convince Hannah to give him a second chance Originally published 2007 Monthly Bibliography of Medical Reviews, 1977 Alibi II Teri Woods, 2012-11-13 ALIBI II picks up where ALIBI left off The year is 2006 and Diane Praeliou is happily married and living on a horse ranch in Arizona when she receives a letter that threatens her entire world Someone knows her true identity In 1986 Daisy was given a second chance at life when she received a new identity and a fresh start as a college student in Arizona courtesy of the witness protection program Nard wasn't so lucky He was sentenced to twenty years to life in a western Pennsylvania facility and has endured things that no man should ever have to endure All Nard can think about is Daisy's testimony and how much he wants revenge Diane goes on living life finding love and getting married until things slowly begin to spiral out of control What makes matters worse is now Nard is out on parole and Diane is afraid for herself and her family Feigning innocence Diane can only turn to one person for help But if she doesn't come clean about her past secrets her entire world can come crashing down and there will be no one to protect her 60 000 words
