Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston,2021 Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit Homeland Calling Paul Hockenros,2018-07-05 Over the last ten years many commentators have tried to explain the bloody conflicts that tore Yugoslavia apart But in all these attempts to make sense of the wars and ethnic violence one crucial factor has been overlooked the fundamental roles played by exile groups and migr communities in fanning the flames of nationalism and territorial ambition Based in the United States Canada Europe Australia and South America some groups helped provide the ideologies the leadership the money and in many cases the military hardware that fueled the violent conflicts Atypical were the dissenting voices who drew upon their experiences in western democracies to stem the tide of war In spite of the

diasporas power and influence their story has never before been told partly because it is so difficult even dangerous to unravel Paul Hockenos a Berlin based American journalist and political analyst has traveled through several continents and interviewed scores of key figures many of whom had never previously talked about their activities In Homeland Calling Hockenos investigates the borderless international networks that diaspora organizations rely on to export political agendas back to their native homelands agendas that at times blatantly undermined the foreign policy objectives of their adopted countries Hockenos tells an extraordinary story with elements of farce as well as tragedy a story of single minded obsession and double dealing of high aspirations and low cunning The figures he profiles include individuals as disparate as a Canadian pizza baker and an Albanian urologist who played instrumental roles in the conflicts as well as other men and women who rose boldly to the occasion when their homelands called out for help The Calling Philip Pisciotto,2017-08-08 This is the story of a young man who enters a Catholic seminary to study to become a Catholic priest From his early youth he is influenced by situations which steer him through various stages of his life His seminary experiences and Catholic faith mold him into the man he is today He matures into a man with good Christian family values and takes many directions throughout his life He leads an interesting full and productive life Above all God is always present because of his early training in the seminary His work ethic is evident In the seminary he attended school six days a week throughout his life he worked six days a week Dublin University Magazine ,1835 The Dublin University Magazine ,1835 Read like Gabriel García Márquez Terry, Kate,2015-12-21 Gabriel Garcia Marquez favorite books One of the most popular author suggests inspiring books Explore book recommendations of great thinkers entrepreneurs pioneers and visionaries with Aegitas collections
