Caring through the Funeral Gene Fowler,2020-01-24 Caring through the Funeral is a guidebook to take pastors through the complete funeral process from the moment the call is received to the weeks following the funeral More than just a how to Caring through the Funeral uniquely addresses the funeral process from the perspective of pastoral ministry of pastoral caring throughout the time of mourning from the death through post funeral grieving Many times the funeral is the most momentous means of pastoral caring for the bereaved and often it is the only time that the church has an opportunity to care for the family and friends Gene Fowler explores what pastors go through at each stage of the funeral process Both descriptive and conceptual Fowler s practical advice solid pastoral and theological grounding and case illustrations take pastors and student pastors through many issues the language of loss the vocabulary ministers need for this caring ministry bereavement and grief pastoral care of family members pastoral care of non family members including groups within the church and community the funeral as worship service including a comparison of our Protestant liturgical books and the elements that comprise a Christian funeral practical issues of planning the service including sample services funeral service as means of caring for the bereaved and as a rite of passage and the interrelationship between funerals mourning and grief how funerals often launch mourners on a spiritual journey questions asked by the bereaved role of resurrection in pastoral care pastoral care after the funeral Rest in Peace Gary Laderman,2003-03-06 Though it has often been passionately criticized as fraudulent exploitative even pagan the American funeral home has become nearly as inevitable as death itself an institution firmly embedded in our culture But how did the funeral home come to hold such a position What is its history And is it guilty of the charges sometimes leveled against it In Rest in Peace Gary Laderman traces the origins of American funeral rituals from the evolution of embalming techniques during and after the Civil War and the shift from home funerals to funeral homes at the turn of the century to the increasing subordination of priests ministers and other religious figures to the funeral director throughout the twentieth century In doing so he shows that far from manipulating vulnerable mourners as Jessica Mitford claimed in her best selling The American Way of Death 1963 funeral directors are highly respected figures whose services reflect the community s deepest needs and wishes Indeed Laderman shows that funeral directors generally give the people what they want when it is time to bury our dead He reveals for example that the open casket often criticized as barbaric provides a deeply meaningful moment for friends and family who must say goodbye to their loved one But he also shows how the dead often come back to life in the popular imagination to disturb the peace of the living Drawing upon interviews with funeral directors major historical events like the funerals of John F Kennedy and Rudolf Valentino films television newspaper reports proposals for funeral reform and other primary sources Rest in Peace cuts through the rhetoric to show us the reality and the real cultural value of the American funeral

The Deritualization of Death Charles Lynn Gibson,2019-10-15 The problematic field of investigation for this study was for the care of bereaved human beings in the context of significant cultural shifts now shaping the twenty first century Deritualization was identified as a significant interdisciplinary concern that contributes to potential distress in processes of grieving The objective of the research was the development of a practical theology of compassionate caregiving for the bereaved with deference to the problem of deritualization The theoretical framework was guided by the Oxford Interdisciplinary Research model and the Loyola Institute of Ministries model of practical theology. The study was designed for applied research for funeral directors and vocational pastors utilizing qualitative research methods. Hermeneutical and empirical components addressed six research questions through two domains of inquiry: disciplinary perspectives and educational dynamics of bereavement caregiving. Using the method of hermeneutics to critically evaluate the first two research questions, three disciplinary fields of knowledge were examined and integrated from the perspective of pastoral care, funeral service, bereavement psychology, and practical theology. Each discipline individually converged upon meaningful caregiving, meaning reconstruction, and meaning reframing as significant modes of bereavement care. Using ethnographic semi-structured interviews to critically evaluate the remaining four research questions, data were collected from a Christian university and a mortuary college. The interview questionnaire included twenty-five main questions organized in four parts: Philosophy of Education, Hermeneutics of Bereaved Families, Care of Bereaved Families, and Encounter of Bereaved Families. The study utilized two cycles of qualitative coding techniques to report the findings of each participating school. A hybrid form of in vivo and holistic coding, as well as a second cycle of pattern coding, distilled the interview responses into actionable statements that reinforced bereavement caregiving. By synthesizing all of the findings, a compelling case was made for a paradigm of comforting presence supported by principles from a Louwian perspective of practical theology, including theological anthropology, promissiotherapy, bipolarity, and hermeneutics. The study connected a philosophy of meaning reframing and a paradigm of comforting presence to a meta-theoretical framework within a narrative approach to care. The research elucidated an interdisciplinary understanding that contributed toward a compassionate practical theology of caregiving for the bereaved.
