The Garden And The Map Schizophrenia In Twentieth Century Literature And Culture:

The Garden and the Map John Vernon, 1973 The Two-fold Thought of Deleuze and Guattari Charles J.

Stivale, 1998-06-05 French philosophers Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari worked together extensively from the 1960s into the 1990s and the resulting intersections of their different sensibilities and modes of knowing fueled powerful alternatives to Marxian and psychoanalytic orthodoxies Yet readers approaching Deleuze and Guattari's works are often frustrated by the paucity or unfamiliarity of specific examples that might clarify their complex arguments This timely volume animates key concepts and terminology by applying them to provocative readings of literary texts films and cultural phenomena from Apocalypse Now to Cajun music and dance Drawing extensively from primary and critical sources to elucidate Deleuze and Guattari's theoretical contributions Stivale reinvigorates their two fold thought for use as an analytical tool in the humanities and social sciences The book also offers a clear introduction to the precollaborative phase of each thinker's work an interview Stivale conducted with Guattari and the first time English translation of a 1967 essay by Deleuze Winner Board of Governors Faculty Recognition Award Wayne State University The Map Reader Martin Dodge, Rob Kitchin, Chris Perkins, 2011-05-09 WINNER OF THE CANTEMIR PRIZE 2012 awarded by the Berendel Foundation The Map Reader brings together for the first time classic and hard to find articles on mapping This book provides a wide ranging and coherent edited compendium of key scholarly writing about the changing nature of cartography over the last half century The editorial selection of fifty four theoretical and thought provoking texts demonstrates how cartography works as a powerful representational form and explores how different mapping practices have been conceptualised in particular scholarly contexts Themes covered include paradigms politics people aesthetics and technology Original interpretative essays set the literature into intellectual context within these themes Excerpts are drawn from leading scholars and researchers in a range of cognate fields including Cartography Geography Anthropology Architecture Engineering Computer Science and Graphic Design The Map Reader provides a new unique single source reference to the essential literature in the cartographic field more than fifty specially edited excerpts from key classic articles and monographs critical introductions by experienced experts in the field focused coverage of key mapping practices techniques and ideas a valuable resource suited to a broad spectrum of researchers and students working in cartography and GIScience geography the social sciences media studies and visual arts full page colour illustrations of significant maps as provocative visual think pieces fully indexed clearly structured and accessible ways into a fast changing field of cartographic research A Different Reality Anita K. Stoll, 1990 This anthology of materials by and about Elena Garro includes translations of two of her one act plays and several essays that explore her theatrical and narrative pieces Also presented are a personal interview and a chronology of her life by her own account Heidegger and Criticism William V. Spanos, 1993 In Heidegger and Criticism Retrieving the Cultural Politics of Destruction William Spanos examines the controversy both in Europe and the United States surrounding Heidegger and recent disclosures about his Nazi past Not intended as a defense or apology for Heidegger's thought Spanos instead affirms the importance of Heidegger's antihumanist interrogation of the modern age its globalization of technology and its neo imperialist politics The attack on Heidegger's antihumanistic discourse by liberal humanists who have imported the European debate into the United States aligns ideologically with the ongoing policing operations of William Bennett Allan Bloom E D Hirsch Roger Kimball Dinesh D Souza and others in the spheres of higher education and cultural production Throughout his arguments Spanos focuses not so much on Heidegger the historical subject as on the transformative cultural and political discourses and practices implicit in and enabled by Heidegger's interrogations of Being and Time that have led to the contemporary emergence of the multiplicity of resistant Others colonized by hegemonic discursive formations All the while he reminds us that Heidegger's philosophic interrogations eventually generate a diverse body of transgressive writing and an oppositional intellectual climate in the West Spanos is author of Repetitions the Postmodern Occasion in Literature and Culture 1987 and The End of Education Toward Posthumanism Minnesota 1992 and the editor of Martin Heidegger and the Question in Literature 1980 and the co editor of The Question of Textuality Strategies of Reading in Contemporary American Criticism 1982 This book is intended for those in the fields of philosophy literary theory political theory The Prose of Sasha Sokolov Elena Ivanovna Kravchenko, 2013 Hailed as one of the most significant writers in contemporary Russian literature Sasha Sokolov 1943 nevertheless remains one of its most hermetic Despite a considerable scholarly interest in his work no comprehensive book length study has yet been published on Sokolov With the focus on his three main texts School for Fools Between Dog and Wolf and Palisandriia this groundbreaking monograph is an exploration of Sokolov's aesthetics in which language is shown to embody reality rather than express it In her study Elena Kravchenko invites us to examine how language and art affect our perception of the real that fading away into its reflections finds its essence Elena Kravchenko is an independent researcher whose doctoral thesis School of Slavonic and Eastern European Studies UCL laid a foundation for this monograph Madness and Irrationality in Spanish and Latin American Literature and Culture Lloyd Hughes Davies, 2020-06-01 The subject matter is topical madness has universal and enduring appeal The positive aspects of the irrational particularly its potential for cultural renewal are given more prominence than has been the case in the past The coverage is wide ranging new critical angles enrich our understanding of major writers while the appeal of lesser known figures is highlighted often by means of a comparative perspective Thematics Reconsidered Frank Trommler, 1995 Responding to a new interest in thematic studies the volume features essays by some of the leading scholars from the United States and Europe In honor of Horst S Daemmrich the co author with Ingrid Daemmrich of the handbook Themes and Motifs in Western Literature the contributors reassess both in theory and in case studies the viability of thematics as part of contemporary literary criticism They demonstrate the broad scope of methodologies between strict systematization of themes and motifs and reader response conceptions of theming Special topics include a thematology of the Jewish people motifs in folklore a cluster on madness hysteria and mastery the story of Judith Cinderella thematics in D rrenmatt and Isaac Babel chaos as a theme A concluding chapter illuminates aspects of nineteenth century literary history

The Apartheid City and Beyond David M. Smith, 2003-09-02 Apartheid as legislated racial separation substantially changed the South African urban scene Race group areas remodelled the cities while the creation of homelands mini states and the pass laws controlling population migration constrained urbanization itself In the mid 1980s the old system having proved economically inefficient and politically divisive was replaced by a new policy of orderly urbanization This sought to accelerate industrialization and cultural change by relaxing the constraints on urbanization imposed by state planning The result was further political instability and a quarter of the black or African population housed in shanty towns Negotiations between the Nationalist government and the African National Congress are working towards the end of the old apartheid system Yet the negation of apartheid is only the beginning of the creation of a new society The vested interests and entrenched ideologies behind the existing pattern of property ownership survive the abolition of apartheid laws Beyond race class and ethnicity will continue to divide urban life If the cities of South Africa are to serve all the people the accelerating process of urbanization must be brought under control and harnessed to a new purpose The contributors to this volume draw on a broad range of experience and disciplines to present a variety of perspectives on urban South Africa
