The Hoopoe's Crown Jacqueline Osherow, 2005 Poems dealing with the land of Israel and inconsistencies and mysteries in Biblical texts The Edge of Modernism Walter Kalaidjian, 2020-03-03 In The Edge of Modernism Walter Kalaidjian explores American poetry on genocide the Holocaust and total war as well as on postwar social antagonisms racial oppression and domestic violence By asking what it means for traumatic memory to have agency in the American verse tradition Kalaidjian creates an original historical account of how American poets became witnesses often unconsciously to modern extremity Combining psychoanalytic theory and cultural studies this intense sweeping account of modern poetics analyzes the ways in which literary form gives testimony to the trauma of twentieth century history Through close readings of well known and less familiar poets among them Langston Hughes Countee Cullen Claude McKay Edwin Rolfe Sylvia Plath Adrienne Rich Peter Balakian Rachel Blau DuPlessis Anne Sexton and Anthony Hecht Kalaidjian discerns the latent edge of modern trauma as it cuts through the literary representations themes and formal techniques of twentieth century American poetics In this way The Edge of Modernism advances an innovative and dynamic model of modern periodization The Rooster's Wife Russell Edson, 2005 For the past 40 years Russell Edson has been producing a body of work unique in its perspective and singular in its approach He is arguably America's most distinguished writer of prose poems Here are contorted Darwinian narratives of apes and monkeys exhibiting absurdly human behavior along with his usual menagerie of elephants horses chickens roosters dogs mermaids and mice Along with his trademark humor The Rooster's Wife finds Edson contemplating age mortality and immortality as well Of Memory and Distance It's a scientific fact that anyone entering the distance will grow smaller as he proceeds Eventually becoming so small he might only be found with a microscope if indeed he is found at all But there is a vanishing point where anyone having entered the distance must disappear entirely without hope of his ever returning leaving only the memory of his ever having been But then there is fiction so that one can never really be sure if one is remembering someone who vanished into the distance or simply who had been made of paper and ink Russell Edson has been called a surrealist comic genius a magician of metaphor and imagination He is all of these and a philosophical poet whose zany expeditions into the twisted labyrinths of logic resemble Lewis Carroll's adventures through the wonderlands of paradox and illusion Perhaps that is why even people who do not read significant amounts of contemporary poetry can immediately appreciate the playful accessibility of Russell Edson's writing What he pulls out of the hat of the subconscious is always unpredictable immediate and surprising Russell Edson's books include The Very Thing That
