Ghosts of New Orleans Rosary Hartel O'Neill, 2008 Both anthologies are about New Orleans the past and the present. This author has grown up in this city and there is a certain timelessness about it the past definitely influences the present. All the plays are permeated with the sensuousness decadence and bewilderment of brave and driven people living in chaos confusion extreme pleasure and delight. I hope you get a taste of this rich jambalaya of life as you experience these plays. Volume Two contains historical plays mostly Victorian with characters driven by stratified society and tradition. Knowledge of New Orleans history made me want to adapt Uncle Vanya. I loved the play but felt its details were too Russian. I took the bones of Vanya and put it on a plantation called Waverly the last sugarcane plantation in Louisiana and called my play Uncle Victor. That play won a number of awards and hooked me on historical drama. I also researched Edgar Degas visit to New Orleans in 1872 and wrote a nine cast show so struck was I by all Degas relatives who had lived with him in 1872. Degas had tried to save his Uncle's failing cotton business and create new roots in the city of his mother. He fell prey to scandal and decadence I spent days visiting Kate Chopin's house in Cloutierville La and interviewed descendants of Chopin's lover Albert Sanpitié and town members about the scandals of her life I researched in French and English all the books on Degas I did similar research in New York and Paris for Beckett at Greystones Bay and John Singer Sargent and Madame X which are loosely tied to New Orleans We are glad Degas did go back to Paris and paint and didn't succumb to the temptations of New Orleans We are pleased Sargent refused to change his scorned portrait of Madame X and that Kate Chopin forged a way to raise her six children and still write A Collection of Squirrel Tales Norma Waldon Mullican, Missy Mullican Zivney, 2009-06 As a youngster trying to find his place in life a quirky flying squirrel realizes he is able to adapt with chickens after being plucked from a pickle barrel Abandoned by his mom and dad he is taken under the wing of a rooster eventually striking out in search of his true squirrel identity He finds himself once again adapting this time with a family of humans And so the adventure begins As mother daughter team Norma Mullican and Missy Zivney have written a children's book that everyone is sure to enjoy Norma and her husband Mike live in Montalba Texas where they own and operate a wedding venue Together they have two children and six grandchildren Pets include their puppy dog and Rooster the flying squirrel Missy and her husband Chris along with their four children live in Whitehouse Texas Missy has a degree in Deaf Education with an endorsement in early childhood She is currently the Children's Minister at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church in Tyler Texas Together they have combined their life experiences and love of children into a heartfelt book filled with difficult decisions to help children understand how to cope with everyday situations they may encounter Astrolations!
