McKee, 2014-04-03 This book explores the relationship among gender desire and narrative in 1940s woman's films which negotiate the terrain between public history and private experience The woman's film and other form of cinematic melodrama have often been understood as positioning themselves outside history and this book challenges and modifies that understanding contextualizing the films it considers against the backdrop of World War II In addition in paying tribute to and departing from earlier feminist formulations about gendered spectatorship in cinema McKee argues that such models emphasized a masculine centered gaze at the inadvertent expense of understanding other possible modes of identification and gender expression in classical narrative cinema She proposes ways of understanding gender and narrative based in part on literary narrative theory and ultimately works toward a notion of an androgynous spectatorship and mode of interpretation in the 1940s woman's film Reinventing Hollywood David Bordwell, 2017-10-02 In the 1940s American movies changed Flashbacks began to be used in outrageous unpredictable ways Soundtracks flaunted voice over commentary and characters might pivot from a scene to address the viewer Incidents were replayed from different characters viewpoints and sometimes those versions proved to be false Films now plunged viewers into characters memories dreams and hallucinations Some films didn t have protagonists while others centered on anti heroes or psychopaths Women might be on the verge of madness and neurotic heroes lurched into violent confrontations Combining many of these ingredients a new genre emerged the psychological thriller populated by women in peril and innocent bystanders targeted for death If this sounds like today s cinema that s because it is In Reinventing Hollywood David Bordwell examines the full range and depth of trends that crystallized into traditions He shows how the Christopher Nolans and Quentin Tarantinos of today owe an immense debt to the dynamic occasionally delirious narrative experiments of the Forties Through in depth analyses of films both famous and virtually unknown from Our Town and All About Eve to Swell Guy and The Guilt of Janet Ames Bordwell assesses the era's unique achievements and its legacy for future filmmakers Reinventing Hollywood is a groundbreaking study of how Hollywood storytelling became a more complex art and essential reading for lovers of popular cinema Theory of the Novel Philip Stevick, 1967-10 Comprehensive collections of theoretical essays on various facets of the novel Catalog of Copyright Entries. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Perplexing Plots David Bordwell, 2023-01-17 Nominated 2024 Edgar Allan Poe Award in the category of best critical biographical Mystery Writers of America Shortlisted 2024 Agatha Awards Best Mystery Nonfiction Malice Domestic Posthumous Winner 2023 IFCA Book Prize International Crime Fiction Association Narrative innovation is typically seen as the domain of the avant garde However techniques such as nonlinear timelines multiple points of view and unreliable narration have long been part of American popular culture How did forms and styles once regarded as difficult become familiar to audiences In Perplexing Plots David Bordwell reveals how crime fiction plays and films made unconventional narrative mainstream He shows that since the nineteenth century detective stories and suspense thrillers have allowed ambitious storytellers to experiment with narrative Tales of crime and mystery became a training ground where audiences learned to appreciate artifice These genres demand a sophisticated awareness of storytelling conventions they play games with narrative form and toy with audience expectations Bordwell examines how writers and directors have pushed pulled and collaborated with their audiences to change popular storytelling He explores the plot engineering of figures such as Raymond Chandler Agatha Christie Dashiell Hammett Patricia Highsmith Alfred Hitchcock Dorothy Sayers and Quentin Tarantino and traces how mainstream storytellers and modernist experimenters influenced one another s work A sweeping kaleidoscopic account written in a lively conversational style Perplexing Plots offers an ambitious new understanding of how movies literature theater and popular culture have evolved over the past century The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Lesher, 2000-02-15 This reader s guide provides uniquely organized and up to date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations careful cross referencing and extensive indexing this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism More than 1 000 titles are included each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book Twentieth Century Authors Stanley Kunitz, 1955
