Television Program Master Index Charles V. Dintrone, 1996

Television history has become one of the hottest areas of research in popular culture. Because the field is relatively new and so wide ranging no matter what one is researching much of the relevant material will be found scattered through numerous other works frustrating scholarly progress. This work makes the television researcher's job easier by providing a single index to 341 books that include information on 1 002 shows. Most of the books deal exclusively with television though some autobiographies biographies Congressional hearings and works on communication and the media are also indexed. For a show to be included it must have been carried on NBC CBS ABC or Fox and must have been a series. Shows on PBS are generally not included though exceptions have been made for Sesame Street and Mister Rogers Neighborhood. The Brontës (Authors in Context) Patricia Ingham, 2006-01-12 The extraordinary creativity of the Brontë sisters who between them wrote some of the most enduring fiction in the English language continues to fascinate and intrigue modern readers. The tragedy of their early deaths adds poignancy to their novels and in the popular imagination they have become mythic figures. And yet as Patricia Ingham shows they were fully engaged with the world around them and their writing from the juvenilia to Jane Eyre and Wuthering Heights reflects the preoccupations of the age in which they lived. Their novels which so shocked their contemporaries address the burning issues of the day class gender race religion and mental disorders. As well as examining these connections Patricia Ingham also shows how film and other media have reinterpreted the novels for the twenty first century. The book includes a chronology of the Brontës suggestions for further reading websites illustrations and a comprehensive index. ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe.
